

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Zija Bahija is colonel of the Albanian Army and currently Deputy Commanding General of Albanian Armed Forces Training and Doctrine Command (AL TRADOC), which is a service command responsible for training, education, doctrine and combat development of Albanian Armed Forces.

Julian Bujoreanu LTC is education organization and planning officer at the Air Force Academy and Regional Defense Resources Management Center, Brasov, Romania.

Dr. Viorel Cibotaru is Programme Director of the project “Public Opinion Barometer in Moldova” and worked as an expert in the UNDP National Human Development Report 2002 for Moldova project “Responsible Governance for Social Development”.

Eden Cole is Outreach Coordinator at DCAF.

Dr. Pál Dunay is Director of Studies at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy. Previously he was legal adviser of the Hungarian Delegation to the Conventional Armed Forces in Europe talks in Vienna and head of the Security Policy and Disarmament Department of the Hungarian Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

Anja H. Ebnöther is DCAF Assistant Director for PfP Programmes. Anja Ebnöther is the Swiss representative in the PfP Consortium of Defence Academies and Security Studies Institutes and the Coordinator of the PfP-Consortium Working Group on Security Sector Reform. She works also as liaison officer to the Swiss Department for Defence and is a member of the Planning Staff for the future “Maison de la Paix”.

Dr. Philipp H. Fluri is Deputy Director of the Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of Armed Forces (DCAF), formerly Coordinator for Civil-Military Relations at the Secretariate General the Swiss Department for Defense, Civil Protection and Sports.

Dr. Lidija Georgieva is Assistant Professor of Peace and Conflict and Etiology of Threats at the Institute for Defense and Peace Studies, Faculty of Philosophy, Skopje. Since August 2002 she is Central European University's Civic Education Project local fellow.

Dr. Miroslav Hadzic is Professor for Global and National Security at the Faculty of Political Science, University of Belgrade and president of the non-governmental Centre for Civil-Military Relations, Belgrade.

Stefan C. Imobersteg is a Research Associate at DCAF.

David Law is an adjunct member of the faculty of the Geneva Centre for Security Policy and of the Centre for European and Russian Studies at Carleton University (Canada), a member of the Partnership for Peace Working Group on Security Sector Reform and an external fellow of the Queen's Centre for International Relations. His involvement in security sector training and education activities includes participation in such activities while a member of NATO's International Staff until 1994, and subsequently the direction of the Democratic Civil-Military Relations Programme sponsored by the Canadian Ministry of National Defense.

Leonid I. Polyakov, Col. (Army of Ukraine, retired) is Director of Military Programmes at Ukrainian Centre for Economic and Political Studies named after Olexander Razumkov (Razumkov Centre) in Kyiv. Previously, Col. Polyakov served as State Expert with the National Security and Defense Council Staff.

Nikola Radovanovic, Minister Counselor, is the Head of Department for Peace And Security in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of BiH. He actively participates in all current activities dealing with security issues in BiH, as well as at the international scene.

Valeri Ratchev, Colonel is "G. S. Rakovski" Defense and Staff College Deputy Commandant and Dean of National Security and Defense Faculty. In this position he is responsible for senior and flag officers education and training on security and defense policy, strategic planning, civil-military relations and military strategy.

Prof. Janos Szabo is General Director at the Office for Strategic and Defense Studies, MoD, and Professor in Sociology at Miklos Zrinyi National Defense University.

Anatoliy S. Tkachuk, Col. (Army of Ukraine, retired) is Military Policy Consultant of the Ukrainian Centre for Economic and Political Studies named after Olexander Razumkov (Razumkov Centre), in Kyiv, Ukraine. Previously, Col. Tkachuk served as Head of Operational Analytical Department of the General Military Inspectorate under the President of Ukraine.

Dr. Jan A. Trapans is a Senior Fellow at DCAF. He was Ambassador in Residence and associate at the Centre for European Security Studies, The Netherlands from 1999 to 2000. Dr. Trapans served as Minister of Defence of the Republic of Latvia in 1994-1995, where after he became Ambassador of Latvia to NATO Headquarters and Ambassador at Large in the period 1995-1997.

Marlene Urscheler is a Research Associate at DCAF.