

INDEX

Adler, Friedrich, 35
 Administrative-command system. See
 Socialist command economy
 Advanced countries, role in international relations, 213–214
 Advanced Western society, 236
 Afghanistan, 177, 198
 Africa, 198–199
 Agenda for Development (United Nations), 228
 Agenda for Peace (United Nations),
 227–228
 Aggressive nationalism, 233, 249
 Agriculture, 4, 27–28
 Aid programs, 246
 Akhromeyev, Marshall, 203
 Alksnis, V., 121
 Alma-Ata, 86, 157
 Andropov, Yuri, 55
 Anticolonial revolutions, 5, 43
 Anti-Semitism, 32
 Anti-utopias, 261
 “Appeal to the Soviet People” (broadcast), 134
 Arc of crisis, 215
 Arias, Oscar, 253
 Armed force. See Force
 Armed forces, 155
 Armenia, 91, 96, 119, 272

Arms exports, 253
 Arms manufacturers, 191
 Arms race, 39, 41; continuing, 250–251; disastrous consequences, 212; influence of nuclear weapons on, 174; relationship to Cold War, 196; See also Cold War; New arms race;
 Nuclear weapons
 Arms reductions treaties, 196
 Arms spending, 247
 Arms trade, 253
 Asia: financial crisis, 224, 236; joint efforts to resolve conflicts in, 199; recent developments, 246; regional security system, 197
 Asian-Pacific region, 214
 Atheism, 21
 Atomic bomb explosions, 190; See also
 Nuclear weapons
 Attempted coup. See August coup attempt
 August coup attempt (1991), 134–148;
 Communist Party of the Soviet Union’s support for, 22; conservatives’ planning for, 125; effect on perestroika, 57; effects on new union treaty, 63; effects on reforms, 30
 Authoritarian systems, 263–264; See also Totalitarianism
 Autonomization, 29
 Autonomous republics, 92, 131
 Azerbaijan: declaration of independence, 136; draft of new Union treaty,

- Azerbaijan (continued)
 111; participation in Novo-Ogarevo process, 122–123; protest campaign over Karabakh, 91; worsening relations with Armenia, 96
 Azerbaijani National Front, 96
- Bacteriological (biological) weapons, 196, 252
- Baklanov, Grigory, 134
- Baku, 96–97
- Balfour, Arthur, 40
- Balkans, 254
- Baltic republics, 90–91, 98, 100, 119
- Bauer, Otto, 35–36
- Belarus, 152, 159; See also Byelorussia
- Belorussia. See Belarus; Byelorussia
- Belovezh accord, 30, 149–161; a deception, 162; declaration supporting, 157; Gorbachev's views on, 151–152; reasons for support of, 158–159; unrealized goals, 161; See also Dissolution of Soviet Union
- Bereday, George Z. F., 29
- Berlin wall, 202
- Bessmertnykh, Alexander Alexandrovich, 130
- Biological weapons, 196, 252
- Biosphere, 242
- Bipolar structure of international community, 209
- Bissolati, Leonido, 40
- Bolsheviks: chief error, 16; defective model of socialism, 18–19; evaluation of, 64; introduction of communist principles, 14; model of social development, 39; policy of peace, 65; reasons for victory, 10; solution to political crisis, 7; view of Russian Orthodox Church, 20; See also Reds; White
- Bolshevism or Social Democracy* (Bauer), 35–36
- Border regions between civilizations, 254
- Borderlands, 29
- Brandenburg Gate, 202
- Brandt, Willy, 55
- Brasilia conference on ecology and development, 213
- Brest-Litovsk Treaty, 65
- Brezhnev doctrine, 42, 183, 264
- Bukharin, Nikolay Ivanovich, 27
- Bush, George, 141, 180, 202
- Business world, attention to global issues, 241
- Byelorussia: aim to dissolve Union, 147; bilateral negotiations with Russia, 150–151; declaration of independence, 136; draft of new Union treaty, 111; new economic rights, 100; participation in Novo-Ogarevo process, 122–123; See also Belarus
- Cairo Conference on population problems (1994), 244
- Capital (financial), 224
- Capitalism, 5, 13–14
- Capitalist market system, 47–50
- Capitalist society, 70
- Carlos, Juan, 141
- Casualties in twentieth-century wars, 248
- Center (of Soviet government); actions toward nationalities, 85; criticisms of, 112; disintegration, 140; Kravchuk's views on, 144–145; in Union of Soviet Sovereign Republics, 138
- Central America, resolution of conflicts in, 199
- Central and Eastern Europe, Soviet relations with, 200–201
- Central Committee of Communist Party of the Soviet Union: decision to send troops to Tbilisi, 94; foreign policy statement (March 1985), 180; platform on restructuring Soviet Union, 105; plenum, March 1985, 179; plenum, April 1985, 56, 182; plenum, October 1985, 186; plenum, February 1988, 91; plenum, April

- 1991, 123–125; support for August 1991 coup attempt, 22
- Central Europe: Soviet relations with, 200–201; varied models of liberalism, 236–237
- Challenges. See Democracy, challenges of; Diversity, challenges of; Global problems, challenges of; Globalization, challenges of; Power politics, challenges of; Universal human values, challenges of
- Change; attempts at, 55–56; communal nature, 76; factors affecting pace of, 11–12; lack of models, 59; need for, 5, 56; relationship of Communist Party of the Soviet Union to, 22
- Charter of Paris for Europe, 257
- Chebrikov, Viktor Mikhaïlovich, 88, 90
- Chechen republic, 109
- Chemical weapons, 196, 252
- Chernenko, Konstantin, 180
- Chernobyl disaster, 272
- China, 57, 197, 214, 220
- CIS. See Commonwealth of Independent States
- Citizens: alienation from government power, 263; right to judge national interests, 239
- Civil society, role in meeting challenges of globalization, 230
- Civil war (Russian), 8, 9, 10, 20; See also October revolution
- Civilization: present crisis, 72–73; requirements for future of, 276; shifts in basic nature, 218
- Clash of Civilizations* (Huntington), 237
- Class antagonisms, 5
- Classical liberalism, 262–263
- Climate, anthropogenic changes to, 240–241
- Code of rights and responsibilities for governments, 265
- Co-development: of civilizations, 246; definition, 74
- Cold War: continuing legacies, 211; effects of end, 53, 205, 220; effects of Soviet intervention in Afghanistan, 177; effects on domestic development, 225; effects on national aspirations, 232; end, 41, 52–53, 205; importance of new thinking to overcoming, 194–207; major powers' use of small and medium-sized countries, 265; nuclear proliferation, 171; peripheral proving ground, 171; relationship to arms race, 196; responsibility for, 65–66; state of East-West relations, 175; thaw after Stalin's death, 176; theoretical avoidance of, 38; winners, 53, 205
- Collective action, 277
- Collectivism, 70
- Collectivization, 27–28
- Colonial empires, 245
- Colonial era, 245
- Colonialism, 43
- Colonizers, disputes with former colonies, 249
- Command economy. See Socialist command economy
- Committee for National Salvation (Lithuania), 103
- Common Eurasian market, within CIS, 155
- Common European home, 196
- Commonwealth of European and Asian States, 154
- Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS); areas for coordination, 156; criticism of Russia, 163; formation, 151; Gorbachev's views on viability of, 153–157; integration within, 163–164, 165; international status, 155–156; leaders' desire for power, 162; reality of functioning, 160–161
- Communication, importance to mutual understanding, 272
- Communism, negation of liberal values, 70
- Communist movement, 41
- Communist Party: backbone of power monopoly, 21; basis for structure

- Communist Party (continued) and functioning, 21; disputes about New Economic Policy, 18; under Khrushchev, 22; under Lenin, 21; under perestroika, 22; under Stalin, 21–22; See also Central Committee of Communist Party of the Soviet Union; Communist Party of the Soviet Union
- Communist Party of Lithuania, 103
- Communist Party of Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic, 110–111
- Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU); difficulty of reforming, 22; initiation of reforms, 22; Nineteenth Congress, 92, 205; policies on nationalities, 100; support for August 1991 coup attempt, 22; support for right of self-determination, 182; Twentieth Congress, 32; Twenty-second Congress, 39; Twenty-fourth Congress, 177; Twenty-seventh Congress, 39; Twenty-eighth Congress, 22, 85; See also Central Committee of Communist Party of the Soviet Union
- Communists, hostility toward Social Democrats, 34
- Compulsory public education, 4
- Confederation, 147, 150
- Conferences: on demographics, 213; on ecology and development (Brasilia), 213; on environmental consequences of war, need for second conference, 259; Madrid conference, 199–200; on open skies, 1990, 203; on political parties and movements (Moscow, 1987), 189; on population problems (Cairo, 1994), 244; Rio de Janeiro Conference, 241, 243, 246; between Soviet and American leaders (Geneva), 199; on women's rights, 213
- Conflicts: in Africa, 198–199; armed, in Post-Soviet space, 160; in Asia, 199; Azerbaijan-Armenia, 92; based in social factors, 237; in Central America, 199; dangers of regional, 224–225; Ecuador-Peru, 250; elimination of threat of nuclear military, 251–252; estimate of world, 215; India-Pakistan, 250; internationalization of internal, 225; intolerance as cause for, 271; military, importance of prevention of, 259; NATO war against Yugoslavia, 256–259; need for peaceful resolutions, 249; North-South gap as cause of, 250; Palestinian-Israeli, 199–200; regional conflict resolution, 198; Romano's views on, 239; social, 250; in Yugoslavia, 199; See also Wars
- Confrontation, 213
- Congress of People's Deputies of the USSR, 101, 109, 118, 136–137
- Consciousness, 243
- Conservatives: continued action against new Union treaty, 125; preparation for coup, 121
- Constitutional order, 124
- Constructive potential in world politics, 215
- Consumerism, 48, 242, 246, 269
- Consuming economy, 276
- Contemporary civilization, 220
- Contemporary democracy, 156
- Continuity in foreign policy, 179
- Conventional weapons, 195, 252; See also Arms race; Nuclear weapons
- Cooperative movement, 4, 14
- Cooperative sectors of economy, 51
- Coordination Council, 224
- Cosmopolitanism, 32
- Costa Rica, 252–253
- Council for Interaction, 47, 49
- Council of Nationalities of the USSR Supreme Soviet, 111
- Council of the Federation, 104, 107–108, 111
- Council of the wise, 230
- Coup attempt. See August coup attempt

- Coup by legal means (attempt, June 1991), 125
- “A Course Toward Peace and Progress” (Central Committee of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 180
- Court system, 4
- CPSU. See Communist Party of the Soviet Union
- Crime problems, 225
- Crimea, 88
- Crimean Tatars, 87–90
- Crisis, arc of, 215
- Croatia, 209
- Culture, of European countries, 257
- Cybernetics, 26
- Czarist Russia. See Tsarist Russia
- Czechoslovakia, 55, 264
- The Debt of the West* (Sabet), 245
- Decentralization of power, 264
- Deep layer, of post-confrontational world’s structure, 218
- Deep processes, of post-confrontational world, 219
- Defederalization, 116
- Dementei, Mikalai, 131
- Democracy: basis for healthy society, 78; burden to current regime, 36; challenges of, 261–267; lack of success after February revolution, 6–7; Lenin’s views on, 18; outdated concept of, 263; principles of contemporary, 156; reasons for lack of, 8
- Democracy, challenges of, 261–267; code of rights and responsibilities for governments, 265; problem of nationalities, 263; problem of respect for human rights, 266–267; social problems, lack of attention given to, 262–263
- Democratic change, 60
- Democratic Congress Bloc, 118
- Democratic institutions, 160
- Democratic Russia (political party), 110, 118, 137
- Democratic values, 261
- Democratism, 30
- Democratization, 189, 201, 261, 262
- Democrats (so-called), 101, 117
- Demographic problems. See Population growth
- Denikin, Anton Ivanovich, 7
- Denmark, 246
- Department of Research on Problems of Peace and Conflict (Uppsala University), 215
- Depleted uranium (DU), 259
- Despotic socialism, 35–36; See also Totalitarianism
- Developing countries, 244, 246
- Development: consequences of paradigm of, 242–243; technocentric model, 72; See also Progress
- Dictatorial regimes, 35, 263, 272; See also Totalitarianism
- Differences, purpose of human activity, 231
- Dissidents, suppression, 55, 56
- Dissolution of Soviet Union, 63; basis, 110–111; effect of Russian declaration of sovereignty on, 103; effects of, 83, 149, 159–160, 275; factor of geopolitical change, 209; negative consequences, 234; Tarazevich’s views on effects of, 113; a tragedy, 83; unforeseen, 83; See also Belovezh Accord; Preservation of Soviet Union, possibility of; Soviet Union
- Distribution of social product, 69
- Diversity: among nations, 189; within globalization, 231–232
- Diversity, challenges of, 231–239; aggressive nationalism, 233; balancing individual and national rights, 235; complicating factors, 237–238; conflicts based in social factors, 237; Fukuyama’s model of liberalism, 236; Huntington’s views on, 237; hyper-ethnicism, 233–234; importance of principle of federalism, 235; mistaken interpretations of national security, 239; rise of pluralism in

- Diversity (continued) regional civilizations, 237; summary, 238–239; varied models of liberalism, 236–237
- Domestic affairs. See Domestic policy
- Domestic policy, relationship to foreign policy, 225–226, 263
- Domestic processes, 225–226
- Doublethink, 19
- Duma, 4
- East (division of world community), 38
- East Germans, 201
- East Germany, 202, 206–207; See also Germany
- Eastern Europe: problems of imposed economic models, 45; recognition of changes in, 200–201; varied models of liberalism, 236–237
- East-West confrontation, 39–42
- Economic change, 61–62
- Economic Committee, 137
- Economic development, in post-confrontational world, 218
- Economic development plans, 24
- Economic differences between countries, 249
- Economic egoism, 241
- Economic instability, 234
- Economic rivalry, 229
- Economic Security Council, 228
- Economic systems, 50, 99; See also capitalist market system; Socialist command economy
- Economic union, 137
- Economy, Kaminka's views on, 25–26
- Ecuador, 250
- Efficiency, of production, 69
- Einstein, Albert, 176, 190, 273
- The End of History* (Fukuyama), 46, 236
- Engels, Friedrich, 16
- Enlightenment, humanist ideas of, 70
- Environmental consequences: of market economies, 49; of NATO's military action in Yugoslavia, 258
- Environmental problems, 225, 243, 244
- Era of disarmament, 250
- Euro-Communists, 55
- Europe: alliance with U.S., 258; democratic and humanistic culture, 257; importance of security in, 254–255; military conflicts within, 255; need for peace and security efforts, 256; reduction of conventional weapons, 195–196; security unthinkable without Russia, 212; treaty on troops and weapons reductions, 252; See also Eastern Europe
- European Community, international status, 155
- European courts, universal recognition of human rights, 266
- European Union, 68, 197, 246
- Evolutionary reform, 11–12
- The Factory of Wars* (Romano), 239
- Familiarity, effects of, 222
- Fanaticism, 272
- Fascism, 42, 270; See also Totalitarianism
- February revolution (1917), 6, 8; See also October revolution
- Federalism, 235
- Federations, 235
- Finance, political uses, 220
- First Congress of People's Deputies (1989), 99
- Food-requisitioning units, 6–7
- Force: analysis of role in history, 175–176; armed, 104; Gromyko's proposed use of, 92; growing use, 217; means of dispute resolution in Cold War, 204; principle of government policy, 158, 212; use in Tbilisi, 94–96; See also Yugoslavia, NATO war against
- Foreign affairs. See Foreign policy
- Foreign military intervention in civil war, 9
- Foreign policy; 1985–91 period, folly of criticisms of, 206–207; arena of internal political struggle, 205; of

- authoritarian systems, 263–264;
- internal contradictions in conceptions of, 194; new approach to during perestroika era, 200–201; relationship to domestic policy,
225–226, 263; turnabout in, 204
- Former colonies, 249; See also Colonial empires
- Former Soviet republics, 164
- Fourteen Points (peace program), 65
- Fourth Congress of People's Deputies,
112–113
- Free speech, 18
- Freedom of choice, 190, 233
- Free-trade system, 210
- Fukuyama, Francis, 46, 236, 277
- Fund for Population Activities, United Nations (UNFPA), 244
- Future, importance of interests of all humanity, 71–74; See also New thinking

- G-7 (Group of Seven), 226
- Gaidar, Yegor, 63
- Galbraith, John Kenneth, 250
- Gandhi Foundation, Rajiv, 254
- Gefter, Mikhail, 231
- General Assembly (of United Nations),
228
- Geneva conference between Soviet and American leaders, 199
- Geneva conventions, 259
- Geo-economics, 218
- Geopolitical change, 209
- Geopolitical map of world, 209
- Georgia, 94–95, 119
- Germany: conception of new world order, 210; effects of foreign policy in early twentieth century, 5; rate of support of aid programs, 246; reunification, 202, 203, 206; role of new
Soviet foreign policy in unification,
201
- Girenko, A., 96
- GKChP (State Committee for the State of Emergency), 134

- Glasnost, 2, 60–61; See also Perestroika
- Global crisis; intensification, 75; in postconfrontational world, 221; roots, 72, 73; solutions, 73; See also Global problems, challenges of
- Global economy, 220–221
- Global humanism, 71–72
- Global integration, 223
- Global interdependence, 187–189
- Global problems, challenges of, 240–
247; dangers of current path, 240;
development of the South, 245–247; economic egoism, 241; inequality of production and consumption, 242– 243; means for overcoming, 243;
political slowness, 241; population explosion, 243, 244; problem of paradigm of development, 242–243;
special qualities of global problems,
240; summary, 247
- Global problems, resolution, 188
- Global security, 224, 254
- Global thinking, 273
- Globalization: acceleration, 219; description, 231; of economy, 175; growing number of independent states a result of, 232; influence on values, 269; of information systems, 175; internally contradictory process, 223–224; of market economy,
50; problems, 75; as standardization of life, 231; use of term, 223
- Globalization, challenges of, 223–230; changes in finance, 224; crime problems, 225; environmental problems, 225; expansion of information revolution, 224; fragility of global security, 224; inversion of relationship between domestic and international processes, 225–226; meeting, 226, 230; need for managing worldwide processes, 226–227; need for new quality of human activity, 224; need for refining functions of United Nations, 227–229; need for world government, 226–227; problem of

- Globalization (continued) global interests vs. nation states', 225; universal human interests, 225
- GOELRO (State Plan for the Electrification of Russian), 14
- Gonzalez, Felipe, 141
- Gorbachev, Mikhail Sergeevich: belief in democracy, 78; belief in freedom of choice, 42; belief in socialist idea, 67, 69; cessation of activity as president of USSR, 157; comments on Unionwide referendum, 119–121; conception of new Soviet Union, 106, 111; conversation with Yeltsin on new Union treaty, 142; defense of reform policy, 123–125; failure to end Afghan conflict in 1985, 198; Lenin's influence on, 18; meeting with Mitterand, 183–184; meeting with Reagan, 184; participation in discussion on Crimean Tatars, 87–90; participation in discussions of new Union treaty, 126–128, 130–132, 142–143, 145–146; regard for Khrushchev's historical role, 34; response to use of force in Tbilisi, 95; speech after attempted coup, 135; speech on conclusion of new Union treaty, 132–133; support for new Union treaty, 107; support for Union of Sovereign States, 150; trip to Madrid, 141; views on Belovezh accord, 151–152; views on breakdown of state system, 149–150; views on campaign against new Union treaty, 115–117; views on CIS viability, 153–157; views on concept of freedom of choice, 190; views on foreign policy, 180–181; views on future of humanity, 193; views on importance of new Soviet Union, 141–142; views on international cooperation, 183–184; views on Kosovo tragedy, 258–260; views on Lithuanian situation, 101; views on morality, 192–193; views on national question, 98–99, 102; views on need for new political thinking, 177–178; views on peaceful coexistence, 181; views on possibility of return to USSR, 165–166; views on Union of Sovereign States, 144; views on use of force, 97; visit to Great Britain, 177; See also August coup attempt
- Gorbachev Foundation, 74–75, 217, 221, 254
- Gorky, Maxim, 9
- Gorsky, Yu. M., 244
- Gosodarstvo* (state entity), 142
- Governments: basis for authority, 191–192; code of rights and responsibilities for, 265; roles, 50–51; as sole property owner, 51; See also Federalism; Socialism; Stalinism; Totalitarianism
- Great October Socialist Revolution. See October revolution
- Great Patriotic War, 10, 24
- Green Cross International, 258
- Gromyko, Andrei Andreyevich, 90, 92
- Gross national product, pre-World War I, 3
- Group of Seven (G-7), 226
- Gulag, 23, 28
- Gurenko, S. I., 125
- Gysi, G., 202
- Health problems, resulting from Persian Gulf war, 258
- Hegemony of the West, 189
- Historical development, pace of, 276
- History: beginning of, 275–278; end of, 277–278; as history of fanaticism, 272; as history of ideological politics, 273; multiple alternatives, 9; need for change in the course of, 276; new thinking as beginning of, 275–278; since 1917, effects of East-West division on, 38–46; unidirectional course, 46
- Hobsbawm, Eric, 1
- Holland, 246

- Homo sapiens, 247
 Honecker, Erich, 201
 Human activity, need for new quality of, 224
 Human beings, goal of progress, 71
 Human race, relation with nature, 72
 Human rights, 108, 266–267; See also Universal human values
 Humanism, 70
 Humanist progress, 74
 Humanistic solidarity, 272
 Humanity: as community of progress, 275; history of, as history of values, 268
 Hunger protests, 6
 Huntington, Samuel P., 237
 Hussein, Saddam, 258
 Hyper-ethnicism, 233, 234, 235

 Ideological blinders, 26
 Ideological crisis, 221
 Ideological intolerance, 10
 Ideological-political division of the world, 249
 Illegal arms exports, 253
 “The Immediate Tasks of the Soviet Government” (Lenin), 17
 Immigrants, 237
 “In Search of a Global Order” (Council for Coordination), 49
 Income distribution, 49
 Independent states, 232
 India, 250
 Individual rights, 235
 Individualism, 70
 Individuals, moral degradation, 221
 Industrial production, during Soviet era, 26
 Industrial society, 276
 Industrialization, under Stalin, 27
 Industry, pre-World War I, 3–4
 Information: lack of, on internal affairs, 95–96; sources of, 273
 Information age, 56
 Information economy, 276
 Information society, 218

 Ingush, 88
 Institute of Government and Law (Soviet Academy of Science), 111–112
 Institute of World Economy and International Relations, 173
 Institute on the Economics of the World Socialist System, 173
 Integration, manifestations of global trend toward, 223
 Intellectual history, 273
 Interdependence, 187–188, 232
 International Atomic Energy Agency, 252
 International community, disappearance of bipolar structure, 209
 International conference: of political parties and movements (Moscow, 1987), 189; See also Conferences
 International cooperation, 183
 International Foundation for Socioeconomic and Political Science Studies, 254
 International legal system, 228–229
 International organizations, 264
 International politics, 271
 International processes, 225–226
 International progress, 46
 International relations: advanced countries’ role, 213–214; basis in ideology, 189; concept of equal security, 185–186; confrontational approach to, 41; current divisiveness, 169; democratization of, 264–267; global interdependence, 188; limitations, 192; new system, 208; old models, 73; perestroika’s influence on, 206; unacceptability of revolutionary change, 221; unhealthy state, 73
 International security, 192, 196–197
 Internationalization, acceleration, 219
 Interregional Deputies’ Group, 112
 Intolerance, 270–271
 Invisible hand theorem, 49, 50
 Iran, 250

- Iraq, 204, 259
 Isolationism, 26–27, 44–45, 140
- Japan, 45, 198, 246
 “Joint Declaration on Urgent Measures to Stabilize the Situation in the Country and Overcome the Crisis” (Novo-Ogarevo meeting), 123
- Kahn, Jean Francois, 44
 Kairnen, V. G., 43
 Kaiser Wilhelm. See Wilhelm II
 Kalmyk autonomous region, 87
 Kalmyks, 88
 Kaminka, A., 25–26
 Kapitsa, Pyotr, 176
 Karabakh region, 91
 Karachai, 88
 Karimov (participant in talks on new Union treaty), 127–128, 130–131, 145
 Karpinsky, Len, 139–141
 Kautsky, Karl, 35, 42
 Kazakhstan: draft of new Union treaty, 111; participation in Novo-Ogarevo process, 122–123; possibility of union with Slavic republics, 166–167; protests in, 86; support for new Union, 143; willingness to join CIS, 153
 Kennan, George, 43
 Khrushchev, Nikita Sergeevich: contradictory record, 33; denunciation of Stalinism, 33, 173; fear of democracy, 33; laying of basis for reform, 55; peaceful coexistence policy, 177; relationship with Communist Party, 22; relaxing of totalitarianism under, 32; report on personality cult, 32; slogan on world peace, 248
 Kirghizia, 111, 122–123
 Kissinger, Henry, 188
 Kohl, Helmut, 182, 202
 Kokovtsev (head of tsarist Cabinet of Ministers), 25
 Kolbin, G. V., 86
 Komsomol (Young Communist League), 101
 Kornilov, Lavr Georgiyevich, 7
 Kosovo, 256, 258; See also Yugoslavia, NATO war against Kosygin reforms, 55
 Kravchuk, Leonid: election as Ukraine president, 148; The Last Days of the Empire, –147; meeting with Yeltsin and Shushkevich, 150–151; participation in discussion of new Union treaty, 126, 127; views on new Union treaty, 144–145; views on Ukraine independence, 144
 Kronstadt revolt, 14
 Kryuchkov, Vladimir, 103
 Kunaev, D., 86
 Kuwait, 258
 Kyrgyzstan, 136, 143, 153
- La Pira, Georgio, 176, 268
 Laptev, P. P., 130
The Last Days of the Empire (Kravchuk), 147
 Laszlo, Erwin, 241, 247
 Latin America countries, 246
 Latouche, Serge, 242
 Lavshuk, V. V., 244
Le Socialisme (Belgian socialist magazine), 43
 Leadership, democratic methods of, 34
 Legal continuity within CIS, 156–157
 Lenin, Vladimir Ilich (born Ulyanov): “The Immediate Tasks of the Soviet Government,” 17; last writings, 18; predictions of revolution, 6; State and Revolution, –16–17; views on October revolution, 13; views on peaceful coexistence, 39; views on possibilities of civil war, 8; views on proletariat and democracy, 18; views on self-determination, 84; views on socialism, 14, 16–18
 “Letter to the Congress” (Lenin), 17
 Levi, Arrigo, 44
 Liberalism, 70, 236–237, 262–263

- Life, value of, 269
 Ligachev, Igor Kuzmich, 106
 Lippmann, Walter, 43–44
 Literacy, 28
 Lithuania: food shortages, 98; Gorbachev's views on, 101; Moscow faction's support for secession, 103; possibility of membership in new Soviet Union, 102; Russian population in, 97; secessionist movement, 97–103; use of force in Vilnius, 104
 Local conflicts, 198–199, 224; See also Conflicts; Wars
 Local self-government, 264
 Lukashenko, Alexander Grigoryevich, 159
 Lukyanov, Anatoly Ivanovich: participation in discussion of Crimean Tatars, 87, 89, 90; participation in discussions of new Union treaty, 126–128, 130; statement against new Union treaty, 134
 Lying, Solzhenitsyn's views on, 24
 Madrid conference, 199–200
 Major powers, role in regulation of international affairs, 265
 Malenkov, Georgy, 176–177
 Malthus, Thomas Robert, 273
 Man as the king of creation, 242
 March revolution. See February revolution
 Market economy: advantages, 48; balance with government's role, 51; within CIS, 155; efficiency, 48; faults, 48–49, 242; globalization, 50
 Market system. See capitalist market system
 Marx, Karl, 11, 16
 Mayor, F., 245
 Medicine, 243–244
 Mediterranean region, 254
 Medium-range missiles, 186; See also Arms race
Megamachine (Latouche), 242
 Middle East. See Mideast
 Middle peasants, 27
 Mideast, 199–200, 214, 254
 Military conflicts, 259
 Military industry, conversion to civilian production, 253
 Military policy, within CIS, 155
 Military spending, 172, 250
 Military systems, within CIS, 155
 Military technology, 31, 212; See also Arms race; Nuclear weapons
 Military-political division of the world, 249
 Milosevic, Slobodan, 199, 256–257
 Minsk agreements, 151
 Mitterand, François, 141, 180, 183–184
 Mlynar, Zdenek, 33
 Mobility of capital, 224
 Models: Bolsheviks', of socialism, 18–19; of development, technocentric, 72; imposed economic, 45; of international relations, 73; of social development, 39; for socialist idea, 69; Soviet Union as socialist, 13–24; See also Socioeconomic models
 Modern warfare, 249; See also Wars
 Modern weaponry, 191; See also Arms race
 Modrow, H., 202, 203
 Moldavia, 119
 Moldova, 136
 Molotov, Vyacheslav, 177
 Mondialization, 223
 Moral ensavement, 268
 Moral principles. See Universal human values
 Moscow conference of political parties and movements, 189
 Most-favored-nation status, 123
 Movement for a Great and Unitary Russia, 121
 Multinational states, 234
 Multipolar structures, 218
 Mutual understanding, 271–272
 National cultures, 85, 99
 National identity, 232

- National interests, 238–239, 239
- National languages, 99
- National minorities, 263
- National question: framework for consideration of, 92–93; need for analysis of, 86–87; new view of solving, 91; political platform on, 100; problems with solving, 85–86; regarding Baltic republics, 90–91; threat to perestroika, 62–63; See also New Soviet Union; New Union treaty
- National rights, 235
- National security, 239
- National sovereignty, 228
- Nationalism, 233, 249
- Nationalities, 84–85, 263
- “The Nationalities Policy of the Party in Present-Day Conditions” (Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 100
- NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization); basis for European security, 212; bombing of Serbia, 257; emphasis on supremacy in military power, 256; expansion to east, 255; functioning as European Security Council, 255–256; members’ desire to preserve supremacy, 230; new strategic conception, 256; reunited Germany as member, 203; Schmidt’s views on, 258; viability, 257; war against Yugoslavia, 256–259
- Nazarbaev, Nursultan Abishevich, 127–128, 131, 143, 162
- Near abroad, 163
- Neolithic revolution, 276
- New arms race, 212
- New civilization, 73–74, 75–76, 221
- New Delhi declaration (1986), 248
- New Economic Policy, 17–18
- New millennium, challenges of, 222
- New politics, 269
- New Soviet Union: discussion of name, 129; effects of attempted coup on formation of, 135, 136; as federation, 106, 126; Fourth Congress of People’s Deputies’ support for, 113; popular support for, 121; possible nature of, 142; See also New Union treaty; Preservation of Soviet Union, possibility of
- New thinking: areas of application, 276–277; basic postulates, 187–190, 217; basis for political analysis, 175–176; basis for theory of, 192; as beginning of history, 275–278; challenge of democracy, 261–267; challenge of global problems, 240–247; challenge of globalization, 223–230; challenge of power politics, 248–256; challenge of universal human values, 268–274; concept of freedom of choice, 190; conception of, 187–193; considerations of the problem of development, 246; criticisms of, 275; difficulty of assimilation of, 188; effects of, 194; evolution of, 66, 179; expressions of, to world leaders, 180–182; facts underlying, 249; first steps in, 179–186; first stimulus, 172; ideological barriers, 173; importance of returning to, 217; importance to overcoming Cold War, 194–207, 216; influence on Soviet foreign policy, 194; influence on Soviet view of Persian Gulf crisis, 204; initial views of, 194; introduction, 169–170; need for continuity, 179; need for enrichment of, 278; need for evolution in, 275; origins, 59, 172–173, 175; outdatedness, 216, 217; policies based on, 198; in post-confrontational world, 215–222; precursors, 176; results in late 1980s and early 1990s, 275; search for balance of interests, 238; sources, 171–178; tasks of, 277; transitional world order, 208–214
- New Union (post-CIS), possibility of, 166–167
- New Union treaty: alternative to dissolution of Soviet Union, 158; Central

- Committee's support for, 125; completion of draft, 130; continued attacks on, 125; date of signing, 132; discussions of contents, 126–129, 130–132; discussions of drafts, 142–143, 145–146; distribution of powers between Union and sovereign republics, 129; drafts, 111–112; effects of attempted coup on signing of, 135; formation of preparatory committee, 111; inclusion of word “socialist” in Union name, 129; lack of agreed initialing, 146–147; new working group on, 137; preparation of draft in 1991, 114; preparations for its signing, 125–126; procedure for signing, 132; support from Novo-Ogarevo process participants, 123; work toward, 105–117; working groups on, 108–109
- New world civilization, 277
- New world order, 208–209, 210, 211, 212; See also Transitional world order
- New Zealand, 252–253
- NGOs (nongovernmental organizations), 213
- Nicholas II, Tsar (emperor of Russia), 5
- 1917 revolution. See October revolution
- 1984 (Orwell), 261
- Nineteenth Party Conference (of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 92, 205
- Nishanov, R., 111, 130
- Niyazov, Saparmurad, 145
- Nobel Prize winners, 230
- Nomenklatura (hierarchical apparatus), 18, 57, 60–61
- Non-Communist parties, 18
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 213
- Non-intervention, 265
- Nonrenewable resources, 242
- Non-Russian nationalities, 29
- North Atlantic Treaty Organization. See NATO
- North-South problem, 48, 245, 250
- Norway, 246
- Novo-Ogarevo process, 123
- Nuclear arms race, 41; See also Cold War
- Nuclear capabilities, need for reduction of, 251
- Nuclear military conflict, 251–252
- Nuclear nonproliferation treaty, implementation of pledge in, 195
- Nuclear power, 252
- Nuclear proliferation, 171, 174
- Nuclear testing, 174, 185, 195, 251
- Nuclear war, 171, 191, 220
- Nuclear weapons: importance of elimination, 191; influence on arms race, 174; spread, 212, 250; views of, as conventional, 259
- Objective processes, 220
- October revolution (1917), 1–79; background, 3–12; basic causes, 3, 7, 13; characterizations of, 13; civilizing role, 29; differing views of, 1; effects on colonial empires, 43; evaluation of results, 25–37; failures, 14; importance, 1, 77–78; inevitability, 3, 7; influence on world order, 38–46; necessary tasks, 13; and perestroika, 55–66; resulting economic system, 47–54; slogans, 7, 10–11, 64; as socialist revolution, 13; and Soviet system, 13–24; summary, 77–79; unrealized ideals, 56; See also Civil war; February revolution; Perestroika; Socialism
- Odichanie* (moral ensavagement), 268
- Offensive operations, use by NATO, 256
- “On Cooperation” (Lenin), 17
- “On the Draft Treaty for a Union of Sovereign States” (Supreme Soviet of USSR), 130
- “On the General Conception of a New Union Treaty and the Procedure for Concluding Such a Treaty” (Congress of People's Deputies), 113

- “On the Imposition of the State of Emergency” (State Committee for the State of Emergency), 134
- O’Neill, Thomas (“Tip”), 181
- One-party system, 18–19
- Open borders, within CIS, 154
- Open skies conference (1990), 203
- Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe. See OSCE
- Orwell, George, 261
- OSCE (Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe), 230, 255, 256
- Ottawa, 203
- Pakistan, 250
- Palestinian-Israeli conflict, 199–200
- Pan-American integration processes, 214
- Parade of sovereignties, 110
- Paris Charter for a New Europe*, 197
- Paris peace principles, 254–255
- Parliament, paralysis, 36
- Party-state, power of, during Soviet era, 30
- Past, problem of legacy of, 54
- Patiashevili, Dzhumbar, 94
- Patriotism, double-headed, 10
- Patriots, radical wing, 101–102
- Pavlov, Valentin, 125, 130, 134
- Peace, 191
- Peace Program, 177
- Peaceful coexistence, 39, 177, 181
- Peaceful revolution, in Central and Eastern Europe, 200
- Peasants, 14, 27
- People’s Chamber, 203
- Perestroika: accomplishments, 57–58; application of principles of, 276–277; Communist Party under, 22; considerations of international affairs during, 172–173; continuation of October revolution, 56; disavowal of Brezhnev doctrine, 42; end, 57; evolutionary nature, 60; failures to recognize, 200; fate related to new Soviet Union, 106–107; foreign policy changes, 66; foreign policy of, 204–205; glasnost during era of, 2; goals, 30, 59, 84; importance to new Soviet foreign policy, 204–205; interruption to, 157; Khrushchev as precursor, 33; lessons from, 75–76; meaning, 200; nationalities policy, 99; need for continuance, 117; and October revolution, 55–66; political reform vs. economic change, 61–62; precursory conditions, 34, 56; reasons for downfall, 8; reasons for successes, 58–59; reestablishment of worldwide links, 176; religious faith under, 21; results of, on international level, 205–206; revival of democracy under, 52; Stalin’s relationship to, 33; struggles in transition to social market economy, 57; threats to, 62–63; and world peace, 248; See also Glasnost
- Perestroika era: importance of foreign policy during, 206–207; negotiations on chemical, bacteriological, and biological weapons, 196
- Persian Gulf crisis, 203–204, 258
- Personality cult (Stalin’s), 31, 32; See also Stalin, Joseph
- Peru, 250
- Picard, Patrice, 44
- Plenums of Communist Party of the Soviet Union Central Committee; See under Central Committee of Communist Party of the Soviet Union
- Pluralism, 237
- Plyushch, Leonid, 131
- Politburo: adoption of law on secession, 101; condemnation of use of force in Tbilisi, 95; discussion of Azerbaijan-Armenia conflict, 92; discussion of Baltic republics, 98–99; discussion of problem of Crimean Tatars, 87–90; meeting of March 1, 1990,

- 105–106; position on national question, 92; resolution on Kazakhstan, 86
- Political Consultative Council, 137
- Political fragmentation, 8
- Political interests, universal, 188
- Political intolerance, 10
- Political parties, 262
- Political partisanship, 8–9
- Political pluralism, 68–69
- Political practices, reflection of democracy in, 189–190
- Political reform, 61–62; See also New Union treaty
- Political systems: antidemocratic nature of existing, 262; pre-World War I, 4; during Soviet era, 30–31; See also Democracy; Socialism; Totalitarianism
- Political unity, 8
- Politics: aggressiveness, 217; criminalization of, 221; gap with development of objective processes, 220; lack of solidarity reflected in, 272; lag in attention to global issues, 241; methodology based on new thinking, 194; need for new quality of, 224; relationship to universal human values, 270; See also Power politics; Power politics, challenges of
- Politics of force, 191, 192
- Polozkov, Ivan, 110
- Popov, Gavriil, 116
- Population growth, 243, 244, 245
- Post-Cold War changes, 210
- Post-confrontational world: characteristics, 218; crisis in, 220–221; double-layered quality, 218–219; factors needed, 216; internationalization of internal conflicts, 225; multipolar structure, 218; need to address challenges, 222; new thinking in, 215–222; summary, 215
- Postindustrial society, 218, 276
- Post-Soviet space: armed conflicts, 160; decline, 159; importance of developments in, 214; problem of integration, 163
- Post-World War II era, missed opportunities, 208
- Power politics: importance of challenges, 251; reversion to, 254; revival, 212; strength of tradition of, 249
- Power politics, challenges of, 248–260; aggressive nationalism, 249–250; arms race of the South, 250; border regions between civilizations, 254; conventional weapons, 252–253; European security, 254–256; nuclear military conflicts, 251–252; summary, 260; universal security, 251; war against Yugoslavia, 256–259; wars, 248–249
- Prague Spring (1968), 55, 264
- Preservation of Soviet Union, possibility of, 83–167; actions of April 1991 Central Committee plenum, 125; August coup attempt, 134–148; Belovezh Accord, 149–161; effect of Russian declaration of sovereignty on, 103; ended by Belovezh accord, 158–159; Fourth Congress of People's Deputies' resolution on, 113–114; future possibilities, 162–168; and new Union treaty, 105–117; opposing schemes for renewal of Soviet Union, 112–113; referendum on the Union, 118–133; and responses to national problems, 83–93; and use of force as problem-solving method, 94–104; See also New Soviet Union; New Union treaty
- President's Council, 111
- Primordial human values, 269; See also Universal human values
- Producing economy, 276
- Production: conversion from military to civilian, 253; efficiency of, 69
- Profit, 242
- Profound processes. See Deep processes

- Progress: advances in idea of, 276; conditions necessary for, 74; harmful nature, 242–243; human beings as goal, 71; See also Development
- Prokhanov (writer), 121
- Proletarian internationalism, 42
- Proletariat, dictatorship of, 18
- Promakov, Yevgeny, 96
- Provisional Government (after February revolution), 7
- Public health system, 29
- Pugachovism, 124
- Pugo (minister of the interior), 103
- Purges (Stalinist), 19
- Radical democrats, 114
- Railroads, 4
- Rajiv Gandhi Foundation, 254
- Razumovsky, Georgi, 90, 94
- Reactionary military dictatorship, 7
- Reagan, Ronald, 184, 195
- Red Army fighters, 10
- Reds (political group), 9; See also Bolsheviks; Whites
- Reed, John, 1, 6
- Referendum (on question of new Soviet Union), 118–123; campaign against, 118; conservatives' actions after, 122; form of question, 118; Gorbachev's radio address on, 119–121; meeting of government bodies in Novo-Ogarevo, 122–123; participation in, 121
- Regional civilizations, 237
- Regional conflicts, 198, 224; See also Conflicts
- Regional organizations, 229–230
- Regional security systems, 196–197
- Regionalization of the world, 229
- Regormy glazami amerikanskikh i russkikh uchenykh (The Reforms Seen Through the eyes of American and Russian Scholars)*, 45
- Repression, after victories of W.W.II, 31–32
- Revenko, G. I., 131
- Revolutions, 11, 34; See also February revolution; October revolution
- Reykjavik summit meeting, 195
- Rights, balance between individual and national, 235
- Rio de Janeiro Conference, 241, 243, 246
- Rodionov, General, 95
- Rolozkov (head of Communist Party of the Russian Federation), 121
- Romano, Sergio, 239
- Rostow, Walter W., 277–278
- RSFSR. See Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic
- Rukh (Ukrainian nationalist movement), 117
- Russel, Bertrand, 176
- Russia: anti-democratic actions, 52; benefits of current status of CIS, 163–164; bilateral negotiations with Byelorussia, 150–151; central economic institutions' attitude toward, 220; crisis status in early twentieth century, 5; current bureaucratic-oligarchic regime, 36–37; current problems, 78; current status, 30; debates over socialism in, 25; declaration of sovereignty, 102–103; democratic future, 63; effects of dissolution of Soviet Union on, 160; importance of democratization efforts, 261; impossibility of socialism in, 13–14; leadership's undermining of union, 63; need for reduction of nuclear capabilities, 251; needs at time of October revolution, 25; observance of human rights, 266; participation in Novo-Ogarevo process, 122–123; pre-World War I, 3–4; reasons for independence from Soviet Union, 110; relations with independent republics, 166; role of government in meeting social needs, 262–263; separation from Soviet Union, 140; slow progress toward democracy, 36; Yeltsin's under-

- standing of its sovereignty, 109–110;
See also Russian Soviet Federated
 Socialist Republic; Soviet Union
- Russian army, 114
- Russian experiment, importance, 53
- Russian Federation. See Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic
- Russian foreign policy, 275
- Russian Orthodox Church, 20–21
- Russian Republic. See Russia
- Russian revolution. See October revolution
- The Russian Revolutions of 1917*
 (Shapiro), 10
- Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic (RSFSR, Russian Federation); declaration of sovereignty, 63; return of Crimea to, 89–90; state sovereignty, 102; takeover of USSR banks, 136
- Russians: reactions to creation of CIS,
 164; support for freedom, 37
- Russification of Baltic republics, 90–91
- Ryzhkov, Nikolai, 95–96, 106
- Sabet, Hafez, 245
- Sacrifice, willingness toward, during Soviet era, 27
- Sajudis (Lithuanian political organization), 97
- Sakhalin, 272
- Sakharov, Andrei, 176
- Saudi Arabia, 250
- Savings bank deposits, 4
- Schmidt, Helmut, 47, 258
- Schultz, George, 180
- Schuman, Frederick L., 29
- Scientific progress, 219
- Scientific research, 242
- Second Persian Gulf crisis, 212
- Security, 191, 192, 251
- Security agencies, 253; See also NATO
- Self-determination, 182, 233–234, 235
- Serbia, 257
- Sevastyanov (Communist delegate), 159
- Shaimiyev, Mintimer, 127, 128, 131
- Shakhnazarov, G. Kh., 132
- Shapiro, Leonard, 10
- Shcherbakov (participant in talks on new Union treaty), 130
- Shcherbitsky, Vladimir Vasilyevich, 90
- Shevardnadze, Eduard A., 89, 94, 95
- Shock therapy, as form of change, 63, 158
- Shock therapy reform era, 30
- Shushkevich, Stanislav Stanislavovich,
 143, 146, 150–151
- Siberia, 4
- Silaev, Ivan Stepanovich, 131
- “Silver Age” of culture, 4
- SIPRI, 250
- Six-member group (on German reunification), 203
- Slavic republics, 166–167
- Slogans of the October revolution, 7, 10–11, 64
- Slovenia, 209
- Smena (parliamentary group), 151
- Smith, Adam, 50
- Social conflicts, 250
- Social consciousness, 243
- Social Democrats, 13–14, 34
- Social development, 11–12, 60
- Social differentiation, 72
- Social injustice, 68
- Social life, crisis of, 220
- Social problems, 262–263
- Social structures, 69
- Social tensions, 5
- Socialism: anathematization, 67; as antipodes to capitalist society, 69; collection of values, 69; conditions necessary for, 13–14; exemplification in Soviet Union, 15; future of,
 67–76; negation of liberal values,
 70; Soviet Union as model of, 13–24
Socialism and the Stalinist Experiment
 (Adler), 35
- Socialist camp (of countries), 42, 55
- Socialist command economy, 47, 51
- Socialist Federated Republic of Yugoslavia, 209; See also Yugoslavia

- Socialist idea, 68, 69–70, 236
- Socialist ideals, 23–24
- Societal progress, 242
- Society: moral degradation, 221; pre-World War I, 5; results of globalization of, 269
- Socioeconomic models, 45
- Soldiers of October, 10
- Solidarity, as universal human value, 272
- Solomentsev, Mikhail Sergeevich, 88, 90
- Solzhenitsyn, Alexander, 24
- South (global region), 245–247, 250
- South Korea, 198
- Southeast Asia, 45
- South-North problem, 48, 245, 250
- Soviet Army, authorization for use of force, 95–96
- Soviet era: cultural achievements, 28–29; employment guarantees, 28; evaluation of, 25–37; modernization of Russia as catching up, 26; ossification of society, 34; potentialities, 31; repression of democracy, 30; Russia's economic accomplishments during, 26; See also Socialism; Socialist idea
- Soviet foreign policy: after October revolution, 64–66; attempts at modernization, 177; balance sheet, 186; basic concepts, 172; changes, 183; changes during perestroika era, 58; realization, 194–195
- Soviet leadership, support for overthrow of capitalism, 39
- Soviet republics, rebirth as sovereign states, 129; See also New Union treaty
- Soviet society, 19, 23
- Soviet Union (Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, USSR): alliance with anti-Hitler coalition, 65; basis for monopoly of power, 21; end of existence, 157; foreign policy, 65–66, 179–186, 200; formation, 84; impact on capitalist world, 43; isolationism, 44–45; lagging development, 56; nature of system built in, 15; not an empire, 84; observance of human rights, 267; participation in Madrid conference, 199; Politburo proposals for strengthening, 92; position on German reunification, 201, 202–203; possible preservation as renewed federation, 235; relations with Central and Eastern Europe, 200; relations with China, 197–198; relations with East Germany, 202; relations with European Union, 197; relations with Japan, 198; relations with republics, 99; relations with South Korea, 198; relations with West Germany, 203; suppression of democracy, 52; systemic problems, 84; totalitarian system, 15; views on Persian Gulf crisis, 204; world impact, 41; See also Commonwealth of Independent States; Dissolution of Soviet Union; New Soviet Union; New Union treaty; Preservation of Soviet Union, possibility of; Russia; Supreme Soviet of Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
- Soviet-American treaties, 195
- Soyuz (conservative block), 121
- Stalin, Joseph: actions toward nationalities, 85; disregard of history, 19–20; evaluation of, 64; ideological principles of socialism, 18; imposition of war communism, 17; personal qualities, 16; purges, 19; rapprochement with Germany, 65; reactions to his death, 32–33; theory of autonomization, 29; use of Communist Party, 21–22; West's effects on his dictatorship, 9; See also Personality cult
- Stalinism, 14–16, 33, 270
- Stalinist era, cost of successes, 28
- Stalin's terror, 31
- Standard of living, 29
- Starodubstev (leader of Movement for a Great and Unitary Russia), 121

- State and Revolution* (Lenin), 16–17
 State Committee for the State of Emergency (GKChP), 134
 State Council, 136, 137, 142–143, 144–146
 State entity (gosodarstvo), 142
 State ownership, 21
 State Plan for the Electrification of Russian (GOELRO), 14
 Stavropol region, 20, 32
 Stereotyped ideas, in tsarist Russia, 15–16
Stern (magazine), 250
 Strategic arms reductions, 185, 195; See also Arms race
 Strategic defense system, of CIS, 155
 Subjective factors in upper layer of structure of post-confrontational world, 219
 Sub-Sahara Africa, 214
 Sukhanov (Menshevik author), 14
 Sumgait, 91
 Supreme Soviet of Belarus, 152, 159
 Supreme Soviet of Russia, 102, 159, 160
 Supreme Soviet of Ukraine, 152
 Supreme Soviet of Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: action on economic rights for Baltic republics, 100; approval of draft treaty, 149; approval of referendum on future of Soviet Union, 118; discussion of Union treaty, 111; emergency session after August coup attempt, 136; proposal for final meeting, 156–157; resolution on new Union treaty, 130
 Supreme Soviet of Union of Soviet Sovereign Republics, 131
 Supreme Soviets of republics, reasons for support of Belovezh accord, 158–159
 Surface processes of post-confrontational world, 219
 Sverdlovsk Province, 100
 Sweden, 246
 Tadzhikistan, 111, 122–123, 143, 153
 Tarazevich, G., 112–113
 Tax formulas, 131
 Tbilisi, 94–95
 Tcurkmenbashy, Saparmyrat. See Niyazov, Saparmurad
 Technocentric models of development, 72
 Technology-based civilization, 220
Ten Days That Shook the World (Reed), 1
 Thatcher, Margaret, 182
 “The Strategy of Russia During the Transitional Period” (Democratic Russia), 137
Thermidor, symbolism, 11
 Third Congress of People’s Deputies, 106
The Third Millennium-Challenge and Prognosis (Laszlo), 241
 Third World, 272
Thoughts Out of Season (Gorky), 9
 Tobin, James, 49
 Toffler, Alvin and Heidi, 241
 Tolerance, 270, 271
 Totalitarian systems, 263–264, 267
 Totalitarianism: in 1920s, 19; in 1930s, 20; abuse of socialist ideals, 24; characteristics, 22, 35; democratic decorations, 21; effects, 31, 78; fear of democracy, 33; foreign policy legacy, 172; inadequacies, 84; inertia, 57; reasons for acceptance of, 23; reasons for weakening, 24; in Soviet Union, 15; See also Stalinism
 “Toward a Humane and Democratic Socialism” (Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 105
 Trade wars, 219
 Transitional period, to new Soviet Union, 136; See also New Union treaty
 Transitional world order, 208–214; See also New world order
 Transnational corporations, 224
 Treaty of economic union, 137
 Treaty on the Union of Sovereign States. See New Union treaty

- Trust* (Fukuyama), 236
- Tsar Nicholas II, 5
- Tsarist Russia, backwardness, 15–16
- Tudjman, Franjo, 199
- Turkmenia, 111, 122–123
- Turkmenistan, 143, 153
- Twentieth century: early, crisis-filled potential, 5; intolerant nature, 270–271; wars in, 248
- Twentieth Party Congress (of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 32
- Twenty-second Party Congress (of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 39
- Twenty-fourth Party Congress (of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 177
- Twenty-seventh Party Congress (of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 39, 186
- Twenty-eighth Party Congress (of Communist Party of the Soviet Union), 85
- Ukraine: aim to dissolve Union, 147; declaration of independence, 135–136; participation in Novo-Ogarevo process, 122–123; role in treaty process, 150–151; Rukh (nationalist movement), 117; vote for independence, 148
- Ulyanov, Vladimir Ilich. See Lenin, Vladimir Ilich
- Unanimity of opinion, 18
- Unemployment, 48–49
- UNFPA (United Nations Fund for Population Activities), 244
- Unification of Germany, 201
- Union of Sovereign States, 108, 147; See also New Soviet Union: New Union treaty
- Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR). See Soviet Union
- Union of Soviet Sovereign Republics, 129, 137; See also New Soviet Union; Preservation of Soviet Union, possibility of
- Union republics, 29–30; declarations of sovereignty, 110; Politburo plan for, 92; responsibility for civil rights, 107; status under new Union treaty, 105, 106; See also specific republics
- Unionwide institutions, 140–141
- Unionwide referendum. See Referendum
- United Nations: conditions necessary for efficient functioning, 227; consideration of international security proposals, 196; need for creation of security agencies, 253; need for improving international legal system, 228; need for monitoring adherence to international law, 228–229; need for refining functions of, 227–229; need for timely financing, 229; oversight of human rights, 267; recommendations on aid programs, 246; role as peacemaker, 213; treaty on economic, social, and cultural rights (1966), 233; U.S. disregard for, 264–265
- United Nations Agenda for Development, 228
- United Nations Agenda for Peace, 227–228
- United Nations Charter, 270
- United Nations Fund for Population Activities (UNFPA), 244
- United Nations General Assembly, 228
- United States: approach to dispute resolution, 204; attempt to manage worldwide processes, 226, 238; attempts to impose own forms of democracy, 264; disregard for international law, 256; disregard for the U.N., 264–265; importance of developments in, 214; inadequacy of response to world challenges, 257; need for reduction of nuclear capabilities, 251; new foreign strategy, 256; participation in Madrid confer-

- ence, 199; reactions to processes of integration within CIS, 164–165; response to Soviet foreign policy initiatives, 186; supplying of arms to Afghan mujaheddin, –198; views on end of Cold War, 210; willingness to find new world order, 210
- United States and Canada Institute, 173
- Unity of the world, 190
- Universal civilizing processes, 274, 275
- Universal goals, 277
- Universal human values: crisis of, 268–269; infusion into world affairs, 212–213; priority, 188, 216–217; significance, 273; solidarity, 272; suppression of, 270; survival as, 269; tolerance as, 270
- Universal human values, challenges of, 268–274; consumerism, 269; imperative need for values, 270; mutual understanding, 271–272; protection of natural environment, 269
- Universal secrecy, 61
- Universe, oneness, 193
- Upper layer of post-confrontational world's structure, 219
- Uppsala University (Sweden), 215
- Urban housing, 28
- U.S. and Canada Institute, 173
- Usmankhodzhaev (member of commission studying Crimean Tatars), 90
- USSR. See Soviet Union
- USSR Supreme Soviet. See Supreme Soviet of Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
- Uzbekistan, 89, 111, 122–123, 136
- Values, 268, 269; See also Universal human values
- Varennikov, Valentin, 101, 104
- Vernadsky, Vladimir, 176
- Vilnius, 97, 104; See also Lithuania
- Violence, 24
- Vlasovites, 87
- Volga Germans, 88
- Voltaire (François Marie Arouet), 272
- Vorotnikov (Politburo member), 89, 90
- War and Anti-War* (Toffler and Toffler), 241
- War communism, 17
- War of laws, 115–116, 131
- Warfare, justifications, 191
- Wars: commonness, 248; Gorky's views on, 9; as inevitable evils, 248; lack of desire for, pre-World War I, 4–5; Romano's views on, 239; in twentieth century, 219; valid political tool, 174; world without, 248; See also Conflicts
- Warsaw Pact countries, 182–183, 200
- Weapons: depleted uranium, 259; non-lethal, 252; See also Arms race; Biological weapons; Chemical weapons; Nuclear weapons
- Weapons of mass destruction, 212
- Weapons reductions, 252–253
- West (division of world community); attempts to suppress Russian revolution, 40; crisis of democracy, 52; cutbacks in social programs, 44; gap between governments and society, 52; goals regarding Soviet republic, 9; hegemony, 189; influences of Soviet Union on, 43; lack of confidence in peaceful coexistence, 39; nature of civil society in, 262; policies regarding former Soviet states, 209; political crisis, 262; reactions to processes of integration within CIS, 164; split from East as basic feature of twentieth century, 38; use of old images of enemies, 211; willingness to find new world order, 210
- West Germany, 203; See also Germany
- Western hegemony, 189
- Whites (political group), 7, 9–10; See also Bolsheviks; Reds
- Wilhelm II (Friedrich Wilhelm Viktor Albert, Kaiser Wilhelm), 5
- Wilson, Woodrow, 40, 65

- World: dangers of regionalization, 229;
unity within diversity, 189
- World civilization, 274
- World community, 278
- World currency markets, 229
- World development, 50, 213, 218, 220–221
- World economy, 224
- World existence, contradiction between layers, 219
- World government, 226–227
- World Health Organization, 243
- World market, 224
- World nations, interdependence, 187
- World order, 160, 208–214; See also New world order
- World politics, 189, 215, 243
- World public opinion, 213
- World relations, 220–221
- World religions, 268
- World revolution, 39
- World Trade Organization, 229
- World War I, 5–6
- World War II, people's qualities during, 31; See also Great Patriotic War
- Worldwide brain trust, 230
- Worldwide problems, 214
- Worldwide processes, 226–227
- Wren, Melvin S., 28
- Yakovlev (Politburo member), 90
- Yakutia, 86
- Yanaev, G. I., 134
- Yazov, Dmitri Timofeevich, 95, 103, 130
- Year of Tolerance, 270
- Yeltsin, Boris Nikolaevich: acknowledgment of criticisms, 163; comments against central government, 119; comments on bilateral Russian-Byelorussian negotiations, 150; covert actions against reform of Union government, 110–111; decree on sovereignty of Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic, 135; disavowal of signatures on draft Union treaty, 119; Gorbachev's suspicions about, 147–148; inconsistent actions, 139; meeting with Kravchuk and Shushkevich, 150–151; misrepresentation of Union treaty, 119; participation in discussions of draft Union treaty, 127, 142–143, 145–146; presentation of proposals to Congress of People's Deputies, 139; public support for new Union treaty, 142, 143; reasons for election, 37; reasons for not signing draft treaty, 146–147; receipt of Democratic Russia document, 137–138; recognition of Ukraine's independence, 148; relations with Gorbachev, 115, 119, 151; shock therapy method of change, 63; supplementary comments to draft Union treaty, 137; trip to Latvia and Estonia, 114; views on four-sided agreement, 115; views on Russian sovereignty, 109–110
- Yeltsin group, 63
- Young Communist League (Komsomol), 101
- Yugoslavia, 199, 212, 256
- Yugoslavia (former), 234
- Yugoslavia, NATO war against: effects of bombing, 256–257, 258–259; environmental consequences, 258; as exemplar of new American strategy, 256; importance, 257; need for responsible analysis of, 258; use of depleted uranium weapons, 258
- Zero-sum diplomacy, 182
- Zones for weapons reductions, 252–253
- Zyuganov, Gennady, 110