

---

Index

- Abdallah Pasha, 71–72
Abul-Husen, Latif, 289
Académie de Beaux-Arts, 186
Adams, Henry, 144 aggression, psychology of, 38–41 agriculture: development of, 164–166;
    under feudalism, 66–67; ahdath
    (events), 235, 237
Ain al-Rummaneh, 229–230
Akarli, Engin, 282
al'Amal, 124
Al-Aynturini, 78
Al-Bashir, 174
Alcalay, Ammiel, 207
al-Hakim, Adnan, 119–120
al-Hawadith, 211
al-Hoss, Salim, 292–294
Ali, Abbas, 84
Ali, Muhammad, 80, 81
al-Khal, Yusif, 187
Al-Khoury, Bishara, 161
Al-Mashriq, 177 al-Matni, Nassib, 114
al-Murabitun, 146
al-Najjadah, 119
al-Qaddour, Ahmad, 225
al-Sadr, Imam Musa, 214, 319
al-Shaykh, Hanan, 245–246 al-Solh, Riad, 126, 136
al-Solh, Sami, 137
al-Sulh, Munah, 176–177
al-Zi'inni, Omar, 184
Amal Movement, 319
American Information Office (USIS), 127
American University of Beirut (AUB), 175; art at, 186–189; music at, 190–191; Palestinian tactics used by students at, 213; student strike at, 211; theatre at, 193; USJ rivalry with, 178
amirs, 64, 65
ammiyyah uprising, 71–79
An-Nahar, 172, 211 anti-Western demonstrations, 110 anonymity, 25–26, 306

- Anuales*, 177
- APSAD (Association for the Protection of Sites and Ancient Dwellings), 317
- Arab Communist Organization, 225
- Arab Deterrent Force (ADF), 290
- Arab League, 147–148; summit conference, 216, 290
- Arab League Committee, 291
- Arab Liberation Front, 224
- Arab nationalism, 107, 174; Christian fears of, 115; Greater Lebanon and, 283–284; in radicalization/mobilization, 213–214; as threat to identity, 206–207
- Arab Nationalist Movement (ANM), 218–219
- Arab Rebellion (1916), 283–284
- Arab Rejection Front, 46
- Arab Vigilance Committee, 290
- Arafat, Yassir, 217, 226; Ain al-Rummaneh massacre and, 229–230
- Arafat Trail, 217
- architecture, 313
- Arendt, Hannah, 6
- Armenian Intellectuals, 193
- Armenian refugees, 182, 185–186
- army. See military
- Army Day, 228
- Arslan, Majid, 133
- art, 183, 184–185, 185–189; kitsch and, 311–314; reconstruction and, 322–328; art criticism, 187–188
- As'ad, Ahmad, 109
- Assad, Rifat, 253
- assassinations, 225
- Association for the Revival of Heritage, 317
- asylum, 19; 1840 rebellion and, 81, 85; paradoxes in, 157; political, 211
- Awad, Fuad, 19, 155–156
- Awn, Michael, 47, 54, 290–291, 322; government under, 292–294; removal of, 298; Ta'if criticisms by, 296–297
- Aziz, Tariq, 297
- Baalbeck Festival, 194, 195, 196
- Badre, Albert, 164
- Baer, Gabriel, 63, 90, 101
- Baghdad Pact (1955), 6, 108
- Ba'lbak, 134–135
- balkanization, 11, 247
- banking, 163
- Bank of America, 225
- Barber, Benjamin, 41–42, 306–307, 314
- Bashir, Amir, 71–72, 77–78, 79
- Bashir II, 81–82
- Bashir III, 86–87
- Ba'th; rise to power of, 210–211; Socialist Party, 218–219; in Tripoli, 127
- Bayt al-Dine, 132–133
- Baz, Jean, 177
- Begin, Menachem, 44
- Beirut: airport bombing, 217; commercialization in, 153; common spaces in, 246–247, 258–259; construction in, 181; cosmopolitan milieu of, 176–177; cultural life in, 170; dual nature of, 207–208; East vs. West, 51, 269; economic growth of, 156–157; embargo of, 139; as financial center, 160; globalism vs. localism in, 314–319; growth of, 169–170; as intellectual center, 17–18; as liberal sanctuary, 207; as motion picture capital, 170; in 1958 strife, 119–127; radical mobilization in, 213–214; reconstruction of, 307–308; refugees in, 214; snipers in, 230; as transit port, 17, 160–161
- Beirut College for Women, 190

- Beirut Decentrists, 244–246
 Bell, Bowyer, 32–34, 53, 57 belligerent equality, 33 bigotry, 45, 59
 bipolarity, 41–42
 black markets, 198
 Black Saturday, 43–45
 Bolshoi Dance Company, 194, 195
 Britain; in 1840 uprising, 82–83, 84–85, 94; Greater Lebanon and, 282–289; Règlement Organique and, 279–280
 Buehr, George, 186
 Bustani, Cesar, 139
 Bustani, Emile, 143, 148

 Cairo Accord (1969): Maronites and, 219; military guidelines in, 216; PLO and, 35, 223 capitalism, industrial development and, 168–169 cartel agreements, 163–164
 catharsis, 313–314
 Cenacle, 179–180
 censorship, 112–113, 211
 Centre Université d'Etudes Dramatique, 193
 Chamber of Deputies, 294
 Chamoun, Camille; assassination attempt on, 230; assessments of, 154–155; Christian fears and, 122–123, 124; economic development under, 161; electoral reforms of, 109; foreign policy of, 107–108; Jumblat and, 131, 132; portrayals of, 113–114; Third Force criticisms of, 123; Tripoli opposition to, 127, 128
 Chamoun, Dany, 241
 Chamoun, Dory, 149
 Chamoun, Mrs. Zalfa, 194
 Charlton, Maryette, 186

 Chehab, Abdel Aziz, 112
 Chehab, Fuad, 109, 115, 322; cabinet formation under, 137, 139; economic development under, 161–162; election of, 136–137
 Cheikho, Louise, 177
 Chiha, Michel, 215–216, 284, 287, 288, 331 children, violence and, 238–240
 Christians: Chamoun and, 122–123; in 1840 uprising, 96–97; foreign interventions and, 273–274; massacre of, 277; militia actions, 222, 225–226; National Covenant of 1943 and, 285; naturalization and, 301–302; in 1958 strife, 139–140; Ta'if and, 54, 297. See also Maronites Chuf region, 129–134 civility, prospects for, 304–328; cultures of disappearance and resistance and, 309–319; memory, space, and identity in, 306–309; social technologies of pacification and, 319–326 civil liberties, 157; globalization and, 41–42 civil strife, 24; class vs. communal, 102; consumatory and instrumental characters of, 100–101; origins of, 233–234 civil war, 24; civil strife's crossover to, 32–34; comparison of early to recent, 43; globalization and, 40–42; “just,” 47–48; turf battles in, 45–48; unending, 51–53 “Clash of Civilizations” (Huntington), 12 closed societies, 5, 265–270 Cobban, Helena, 213, 217 coffee houses, 184, 189–190
 Cold War, 6, 40–42, 291

- College of 'Ayn Waraqah, 75
 Collins, Randall, 59, 310 colonialism, 40, 173
 commercialization, tourism and, 203 Committee of Union and Progress, 141 communalism, 265–270
 communal solidarity: among displaced groups, 60; coexistence and, 104–105; confessional loyalties in, 27; conflict resolution and, 33–34; coping strategies and, 234–235; 1840 uprising and, 86–89; empowerment and, 28–29; enmity and social distance, 267–269; enmity from, 5; under feudalism, 85; hostility/enmity and, 27; ideologies of enmity and, 36–37; as ideology, 265–270; memory and forgetting and, 307; modernization theory on, 25–26; political mobilization and, 27, 28–29; population shifts and, 27–28, 247–248; radicalization of, 23–37; regional/global rivalries and, 157; religion and, 28–31; resilience of, 25–31; undermining of, 31; in villages, 69; violence and, 31–37, 40–42
 Communist Action Group, 241
 Communist party, 213; in Tripoli, 127 confessionalism, 270–272; solidified by foreign interventions, 274–303. See also communal solidarity conflict resolution; civil violence and, 33–34; declaration of victor/vanquished and, 51–53 conscription; 1840 uprising and, 80–81; 1958 crisis and, 120–121 constitutionalists, 174
 consumerism, 170, 306, 308–309; nostalgia and, 311–312
Contact, 187
 conviviality, 201–202
 Cooke, Miriam, 244–245, 333
 Cooley, John, 224 coping behavior, 233, 253–258; persistence of violence and, 235 corruption, 198–199
corvée system, 80 cultural life; globalization of, 307–308; golden age of, 173–196; growth in, 153–154; in transition to violence, 209–210; vulgarization of, 311–313; women in, 188–189 cultural organizations, 176 culture of disappearance, 309–319 culture of resistance, 307–308, 309–319
 Dahrendorf, Ralf, 328
 Damascus, 54–55
 Damour Brigade, 45 dance, 183
 Daraj al-Fann, 318
 Dar Al Fan, 188
 Davis, Natalie, 56, 57–58
 Dayr al-Qamar, 87
 decentralization, 265–266, 300 decentrist literature, 244–246 defilement, 56 deprivation, 254
 desensitization, 310–311
 Deuxième Bureau, 162, 217 diaspora, 323–324
 disengagement diplomacy, 7–8 displaced violence, 12–13. See also proxy battles Dodge, Bayard, 190–191
 d'Onfroi, Comte, 82–84
 drug traffic, 198, 252
 Druze: in 1820 uprising, 78; in 1840 uprising, 87–90, 95–97
 Dulles, John Foster, 6–7

- Ecole Supérieure des Lettres, L', 190, 193
- economy: under feudalism, 67–68; foreign dependence in, 91, 163–164; foreign intervention in, 55; golden age, 159–169; growth rate of, 163; inequality in, 107, 156–157; inflation and, 214; oil revenues in, 18; Palestinian contributions to, 17–18; from subsistence to market, 153; tertiary sector, 163; tourism and, 202–203; war booty, 251–253; weakening of feudal, 90–91
- Edde, Emile, 174, 284
- Edde, Raymond, 54
- education: church-affiliated, 281; freedom in, 325–326; growth in, 153–154, 181–182; monastic control of, 74, 101; music, 189–191; universities and cultural life, 173–179
- Egypt, 6–7, 86; hostility toward Chamoun, 110; power balance with U.S., 212; reconciliation with Israel of, 221; uprising of 1840 and, 79–85
- Eisenhower, Dwight, 6, 8
- Eisenhower Doctrine, 108
- elections: Chamoun's reforms of, 109; emotionalism in, 110; infiltrators and, 112; 1958 strife and, 109; playfulness of, 142–143, 199
- Elias, Norbert, 238–240
- Elisar Project, 318–319, 334
- el-Khazin, Farid, 300
- employment security, 168–169
- empowerment, 28–29, 305
- entrepreneurism, 168; gamesmanship in, 200–201
- environment: clean-up campaigns, 322, 324; natural beauty of, 158; postwar ravagement of, 258–260; space attachments and, 250
- equality, belligerent vs. peaceful inequality, 33
- Erikson, Kay, 243–244
- escapism, 311–313
- essentialists, 206–207
- ethnic cleansing, 37
- ethnic groups. See communal solidarity
- ethnurgy, 29
- Etudes de Droit Libanais*, 177
- evil, 56
- extravagance, 158
- Faisal, Amir, 283
- false consciousness, 25
- familism, 263–265
- family tensions, 255–257
- Fanon, Frantz, 39–40
- Fares, Waddah, 187
- Faris, Fuad, 16, 52
- Fatah Land, 217
- fear: as homogenizing factor, 236, 247; responses to, 310–313
- feminization, 257
- Ferren, John, 187
- feudalism, 64–70; in Ba'lbak and Hermel, 134–135; disruptions of, 2; economic weakening of, 90–91; effects of uprisings on, 85; iqta' system of, 64–67; personal nature of, 65; Shakib Efendi Règlement and, 276–277; weakening of, 70–71, 86–89
- fishermen's strike, 227–228
- flight, fight, freeze responses, 310–313
- folkdance, 193–196
- folklore, 184–185, 195–196, 205, 312
- folklorization and, 206–207
- forced labor, 80
- foreign intervention, 6–9, 273–303; after WWII, 160; confessional

- foreign intervention (Continued)
 solidification by, 274; in cultural life, 187, 193; designation of war victors and, 52, 53–55; divisive strategies of, 50; in 1820 uprising, 79; in 1840 uprising, 82–85, 86, 89–90, 97; Greater Lebanon and, 282–289; ineffectiveness of, 33, 223; moral indifference and, 9, 10; in 1958 strife, 115–118, 147–148; proxy violence from, 13; radicalization of communal solidarity and, 23; Règlement Organique, 6, 97, 274, 277–282; Règlement Shakib Efendi, 90–91, 275–277; in sustaining civil conflict, 42; Ta'if Accord, 54, 289–303; in the war system, 251–253
- Forums of Contemporary and Experimental Theatre, 193
- fragmentation, 106; as cause of strife, 233–234; of hostility, 240–243; political, 2–3; of Tripoli, 127
- France: in 1840 uprising, 82–83, 94; Greater Lebanon and, 282–289; as protector of Maronites, 276, 277; Règlement Shakib Efendi and, 90–91, 275–277; religious riots in, 56, 57–58; Ta'if and, 293–294
- Franjeh, Tony, 47, 214
- Franjeh, Suleiman, 162, 293
- Free National Movement, 322
- French Revolution, 101
- Freud, Sigmund, 39
- Friedman, Thomas, 326
- fundamentalism, as outgrowth of violence, 45
- Gallery One*, 187
- gamesmanship, 199–201
- Gates, Carolyn, 155
- Gay, Peter, 34, 39
- Gellner, Ernest, 25–26, 100, 306
- Gemayyel, Amin, 54, 229, 329
- Gemayyel, Bashir, 44, 46–47, 222, 333; consolidation by, 241
- Gemayyel, Pierre, 43, 140, 141, 228–229
- Gerges, Fawaz, 7–8
- Ghaleb, Abdul Hamid, 110
- Ghoussoub, Mai, 236, 239
- Gillian, James, 11
- Girard, René, 58, 99–100, 102
- Glass, Charles, 14
- globalization, 305–306; increased violence and, 42–48; localism vs., 314–319; violence and, 40–42
- Goffman, Erving, 269
- golden age of Lebanon, 151–203;
 agricultural development in, 164–166; assessments of, 151–152, 154–155; democracy in, 154; economic inequality in, 156–157; economic performance in, 159–169; emergence of, 156; external instability and, 153–154; industrial development in, 167–169; intellectual/cultural awakening in, 173–196; journalism in, 170–172; as luck, 155–156; paradoxes in, 157–158; playground metaphor for, 196–203; social mobilization in, 169–172; transition to violence from, 209–210
- government: central vs. feudal lords, 70–71; control of publishing, 171–172; hypersensitivity of, 112–113; ineffectiveness of, 210; inefficiency/misuse in, 198–199; under the Règlement Organique, 278; war system vs., 251–253
- Greater Lebanon, State of, 282–289
- Greek Orthodox community, 89–90, 276
- Green Line, 248, 293

- Green Plan (1964), 199
 Grossman, Dave, 239
 Gunther, John, 258–259
- Habachi, René, 200
 Haddad, Fuad, 138
 Haddad, Saad, 242
 hakim, 64
 Hamadeh, Qahtan, 133
 Hamadeh, Sabri, 135
 Hammoud, Mu'in, 119–120
 Hanf, Theodor, 8, 25, 29, 333
 Harik, Iliya, 76
 Hariri, Rafik, 319
 Harris, William, 11–12 hatred: cultivation of, 39; in politics, 144
 Hawi, Khalil, 244–245
 Hawran, 81
 Helou, Charles, 157, 162 helplessness, 237
 Hermel, 134–135
 Hizbullah, 241–242; infighting in, 46;
   in Beirut, 319; South Lebanon war and, 13–14
 Hobbes, Thomas, 38
 Hobeika, Elie, 47
 homelessness, 243–244
 Hourani, Albert, 19–20, 286–287
 Hrawi, Elias, 292, 296
 Hubaysh, Yusuf, 87
 Hudson, Michael, 160 humiliation, 254–255
 humor, 184, 198
 Huntington, Samuel, 12
 Hüppauf, Bernd-Rüdiger, 42
 Hurewitz, J.C., 204
 Hussein, Saddam, 297 hypersensitivity, 34, 50–51;
   governmental, 112–113
- Ibrahimi, Lakhdar, 291
 Ibrahim Pasha, 80, 84, 85, 86
- identity: cultural, 308–309; ethnic,
   28–29; memory and space in, 306–
   309; politics and, 248; population shifts and, 243–248; urbanization and, 205–206. See also national identity ideologies of enmity, 36–37
 Ikle, Fred, 33–34
 immigrants, 181–182
 individualism, 200 industrial conflict, 168–169 industry: development of, 164; performance of, 167–169 infrastructure, 4–5
 golden age development of, 159, 160– 161 intellectual life, 173–196; Cenacle in, 179–180; dialogue in, 175–176;
   identity concepts in, 174; universities in, 173–179; Western-trained scholars in, 174–176 intermarriage, 69
 internal-external dialectics:
   empowerment/self-determination and, 305; Greater Lebanon and, 283–289; in 1958 strife, 107–108;
   radicalization through, 213–214; in transition to violence, 209–210 internal strife, 1–2
 intifadah, 136
 Intra Bank crisis (1966), 162, 163 inward shifts, 314
iqta' system, 64–67, 73; transformation within, 77
 Iran, 14
 Iraq, 293, 297; coup of 1958, 6
 Iraq Petroleum Company (IPC), 127
 Ireland, 32–34, 57
 Israel: booty taken by, 253; creation of, 105; disproportionate reprisals by, 14, 214, 216–224, 226–227;
   expansionism of, 214–215, 216–

- Israel (Continued)
 217; Golan Heights and, 45; impact of establishment of, 17, 214–216; 1982 invasion by, 44–45;
 Lebanon invasions by, 220–221;
 Six Day War and, 162, 212–214, 217; victimization by, 215
 Israeli Defense Forces (IDF), 44
 Issawi, Charles, 9, 154, 160, 331
 Istfan, Yusuf, 75–76, 78
- Jadid, Ghassan, 111
 Ja'ja, Samir, 47, 54
 Jamal Pasha, 152
 James, William, 39
 Jarrar, Marwan, 194, 195
 Jarrar, Wadia, 194, 195
 Jazzar, Ahmad Pasha al-, 71
 Jesuits, 177, 191
Jeunesse Musicales du Liban, Les, 191
Jewish Observer, 112 jihad, 41–42, 314
 journalism, 170–172; popular culture and, 183–184; power of, 172; suspension of newspapers, 211. See also writing journals, 176, 177
 Jumblat, Kamal, 109; advisors of, 145;
 assassination of, 44; in the Chuf, 129–132, 133–134; commando activities and, 222–223; as Minister of Interior, 218
 Jumblat, Sheikh Bashir, 75–76
- Kahhalè, 222
 Kakar, Sudhir, 30–31, 59
 Kaplan, Robert, 45
 Karam, Butrus, 83
 Karam, Yusuf, 96, 281
 Karami, Rashid, 127, 129, 141, 292
 Kaslik, 57
 Kassis, Sharbel, 230
- Kata'ib: Ain al-Rummaneh massacre and, 229–230; Black Saturday and,
 43–45; Chamoun and, 124–125;
 1958 counterrevolution of, 137–
 141; In 1971–76 conflict, 34;
 Palestinian confrontations with,
 222–223; on Palestinian presence,
 226; response to Haddad abduction, 138–141
 Ka'wash, Jalal, 217
 Keane, John, 36, 43, 51
 Kettaneh, Alfred, 288
 Khalidi, Walid, 145
 Khartoum summit (1967), 216
 Khoury, Bishara, 104, 174; assessments of, 154–155
 Khurshid Pasha, 96
 Kimche, Jon, 112
 King-Crane Commission (1919), 284 kinship solidarity, 68–69; familism and, 263–265; vocational skills
 and, 185
 Kisrwan revolt (1858–61), 63
 Kissinger, Henry, 7–8, 224 kitsch, 311–313
 Kiyanists, 283
 Korbani, Agnes, 8–9
 Kouguell, Arkadie, 190, 191
- Labaki, Boutros, 161 language destruction, 310–311
 Lasch, Christopher, 264, 306 lawlessness, 258–262
 Lebanese Conservatory of Music, 191
 Lebanese Forces, 47, 241, 292; Awn and, 297–298; income of, 252
 Lebanese Internal Security Council, 112
 Lebanese Nationalist Movement
 (LMN), 16
 Lebanese National University, 178–179
Lebanese Nights, 195

- Lebanese-Syrian Upper Council, 302
- Lebanization metaphor, 10–15
- Lebanon: as asylum, 19; 1971–76 conflict, 34–36; contrasted with Israel, 215–216; 1860 crisis, foreign intervention in, 6, 9, massacres, 20; 1958 crisis, 103–150, in Ba'lbak and Hermel, 134–135, in Beirut, 119–127, in Chuf, 129–134, factors leading to, 107–118, foreign intervention in, 6–9, 13, government hypersensitivity and, 112–113, groups and regions in, 118–136, inferences from, 142–150, infiltration/subversives in, 110–112, initiating vs. sustaining forces in, 146–150, internationalization of, 50, 115–118, 147–148, interpretations of, 20–21, Kataeb counterrevolution and, 136–141, leadership of, 145, magnitude of, 144–145, mass support of, 145–146, religious enmity in, 106–107, return to normalcy after, 137–138, in Sidon, 135–136, in Tripoli, 127–129, victimization following, 9, violence in, 106–107, 109–111, as watershed, 105–106; 1975 crisis; foreign intervention in, 7–8; interpretations of, 21–22; as democracy, 16; destabilization of, 105; different concepts of, 286–288; evaluations of, 16–22, 204–205; famine in, 152–153; golden age of, 19–20, 151–203; great depression and, 152–153; independence of, 104; interest in/speculation on, 15–19; as nation of disputants, 143; partitioning of, 89–90; successes of, 16–20, 103–105, 158–196; territorial commitments of, 324–326; 1820 uprising, 71–79; 1840 uprising, 79–85, clergy leadership in, 91, conscription and, 80–81, covenant in, 83, leadership in, 83, 92–93, peasant demands in, 92, as social revolution, 94–95; 1857–60 uprising, 85–97; vulnerability of, 320–321
- lethargy, 305, 308
- Levi, Primo, 240
- Liberation Front, 46
- literacy, 101, 153–154
- Livre D'or*, 178
- London Treaty (1840), 84
- Low Intensity Conflict (LIC), 2–3, 42
- MacCannell, D., 306
- Mack, John, 36
- Mackey, Sandra, 17, 19
- Mafia, 252
- Mahfouz, Issam, 192
- Mahjar poets, 333
- Maila, Joseph, 299
- Majdalani, Gibran, 201
- Majdalani, Nassim, 109
- Makdisi, Jean Said, 248–249, 251, 327
- Malik, Charles, 108, 116, 120
- Malik, Faud, 297
- Malki, Adnan, 126
- Manchester Guardian*, 112
- Manganoro, Liza, 207–208
- Maqassed Sunni Benevolent Society, 114, 331
- Maronites: Ain al-Rummaneh massacre, 229–230; arming by, 230; clergy leadership of, 72–75; in 1840 uprising, 87–90, 94, 95–96; Greater Lebanon and, 283; infighting among, 46–47; intelligentsia, 174; jailing of, 54; leadership of conflict by clerics, 49–50, 101–102; Palestinian militancy and, 213, 219; Règlement

- Maronites (Continued)
Organique and, 279, 281; uprising of 1820 and, 75–77. See also Christians
- Marxism, 25
- Ma'ushi, Paul, 121
- McWorld, 41–42, 314
- media: coverage of Lebanon, 10–11; exposure to, 170. See also journalism
- Mélanges*, 177
- memory, collective, 306–309
- Menassa, Gabriel, 288
- mercantilism, 258–259
- metayage* system, 66–67
- middle class, 91
- military: actions against guerrillas, 223–224, 225–226; conscription, 80–81, 120–121; Israeli vs. Lebanon, 216; neutrality of in 1958, 149; reconciliatory role of, 104; sovereignty of, 228; in Tripoli, 127–128; Ministry of Information, 113
- miri*, 65, 66
- Misery belt, 318–319
- Mithaq al-Watani* (1943), 104–105, 284, 285–289; confessional solidification by, 274; criticisms of, 285–286
- mobilization: Arab nationalism and, 213–214; political, 27, 28–29; role of clergy in, 28–31, 72–75; social, 169–172; modernization theory, 25
- Moisseev, Igor, 194, 195
- monastic orders, 73, 230; education by, 74, 101
- monopolies, 163–164
- motion pictures, 170
- Mouawad, Rene, 292
- Mroueh, Kamel, 211
- Mughabghab, Na'im, 133
- Muhsin, Zuhair, 252
- multinational firms, 160–161
- muqaddam*, 68
- muqata'as*, 64, 65
- muqata'jis*, 64–67, 65–66; clergy and, 72
- Murphy, Robert, 116–118, 119
- Musa, Abu, 242
- music, 183, 184–185, 189–191
- Muslim National Movement (LNM), 57
- Muslims, 331; National Covenant of 1943 and, 285; Ta'if and, 54
- mutasarrifiyya*, 282
- mutual lies, 274
- Naccache, George, 289
- Naccache, Maroun, 192
- Nasr, Salim, 168, 247, 250
- Nasser, Gamal Abdel; Ba'thist regimes and, 210–211; defeat of, 212; popular support for, 113–114; support of, 145; National Boy Scouts Association, 323
- National Covenant (1943), 104–105, 274, 284, 285–289
- national identity: Arabist, 174, 179–180, 206–207; under Chehab, 161–162; constitutionalist, 174; isolationist, 174; Kataeb anxiety over, 139–140; as merchant republic, 203; in 1958 crisis, 121–122; pastoral, 205–206; radicalization of communal solidarity and, 23; Ta'if on, 295–296; writers on, 205–209
- Nationalist Bloc, 174
- National Liberation Party (NLP), 47, 226
- National Pact (1943), 156
- naturalization, 301–302
- New Phoenicians, 155, 287–288, 331

- New York Times*, 113
 Norton, Richard, 289 nostalgia, 306, 311–313

 oil revenues, 18, 159, 160–161, 163
On Killing (Grossman), 239 open societies, 5, 197–198
 Operation Peace for Galilee, 253
Orient', L, 187
 Ortega y Gasset, José, 39 “other,” the; communalism and, 31;
     reconstruction and, 310;
     sanctification of violence against,
     57–61; vilification of, 36–37, 144
 Ottoman Empire, 20; in 1840 uprising, 86–89; government system of, 64–65; hostility toward, 173; Lebanon damaged under,
     152–153; in peasant uprisings,
     101–102; pluralism in, 26;
     Règlement Organique and, 277– 282; Règlement Shakib Efendi and, 90–91, 275–277; support of conflict by, 50
 outward shifts, 314
 Oweini, Hussein, 111
 Owen, Roger, 163

 Pact of Defense and Security (1991), 302 painting, 186–187
 Palestine Salvation Front, 242
 Palestinian issue, 212–214
 Palestinian Liberation Organization (PLO), 214; Cairo Accord on, 216–217; in 1971–76 conflict, 35;
     consolidation of in Lebanon, 216– 224, 221–222; increased violence by, 220–221; during 1982 Israeli invasion, 242; Rabat summit on, 226; radicalization of society by, 18;
     role of in fighting, 16

 Palestinian militarization, 18
 Palestinian resistance movement, 162
 Palestinians: Christian militia clashes with, 222, 225–226; clashes with security forces, 219–220; infighting among, 46, 241–242; societal rifts and, 222–223; violence levels by, 222–223
 Paris Peace Conference (1919), 284
 Parti Populaire Syrien (PPS): attempted coup by, 212; in Ba’lbak and Hermel, 134, 135; in the Chuf, 133; in 1958 strife, 125, 126–127; Palestinians and, 218; in Tripoli, 127 peaceful inequality, 33
 peasant resistance/rebellion: changing political perspectives in, 76–77;
     conclusions about, 97–102; 1820 uprising, 71–79; of 1857–60, 85– 97; ecological conditions for, 69;
     feudal society and, 64–70;
     inferences from, 97–102; initial vs.
     continuing impetuses for, 98;
     leadership of, 101–102; magnitude of, 98–99; new protest forms of, 70–97; political conditions leading to, 70; success of, 63
 Philipe, Alphonse, 193 photography, 184–185, 185–186
 Pinkerton, Lowell, 288
 playfulness, 158; in fighting, 199;
     Lebanon as playground and, 196– 203 pluralism, 2–3: Cenacle in, 179–180;
     under feudalism, 68; fragmentation from, 4; future of, 319–326; of the media, 172; pathological, 5, 233 poetics of disaster, 244–245 poetry, 333
 polarization, 265–266
 political humor, 184

- political mobilization, 27, 28–29 political parties, 230 political succession, 104, 121–122, 136–137 politics: after 1958, 142–144;
   communities, standing of, 300–301; cultural awakening and, 173;
   of ethnic identity, 28–29;
   fragmentation in, 2–3; identity and, 248; law degrees and, 178; as organization of hatred, 144; participation in, 305, 306;
   playfulness of, 142–143;
   polarization in, 225–226;
   publications of, 171–172; Syrian involvement in, 54–55; under Ta'if, 294–295. See also feudalism; government popular culture: commercialization of, 183–184; confessional enmity in, 35–36; folklorization of, 206–207; globalization of, 308–309; golden age, 153–154
 Popular Front, 218, 223
 Popular Resistance, 127, 129 population shifts: agricultural development and, 165;
   communalism and, 265–266;
   communal solidarity and, 27–28;
   famine and, 152–153; identity and, 243–248; naturalization and,
   301–302; in 1930s, 153;
   Palestinian migrants, 181; retribalization and, 262–272; self-sufficiency and, 269 poverty, 4
 Prime Minister, office of, 286, 294
Proche Orient, 177 profiteers, 251–253
 propaganda, 57 property: under metayage, 67; social position and, 68
 proportionality, 43; disproportionate reprisals by Israel, 14, 214, 216– 224, 226–227
 proportional representation, 279, 285–
   289, 300–302
 Proteine Company, 227–228 protest, escalation into violence from, 49 proxy battles, 1–22; as defining element, 12–13; foreign intervention and, 6–7; in 1958, 146–150; radicalization of discontent in, 210–227; in South Lebanon, 13–14 psychological effects, 253–258; in-group/out-group conflict, 31; of war, 4 psychology: of cruelty, 59–60; of violence, 38–41
 public planning efforts, 4–5, 321–322; corruption in, 198–199; under Franjiyeh, 162–163 public/private spaces, 176, 234; destruction of, 246–247; effects of war on, 248–251; identity and memory and, 306–309; open spaces, 258–259; symbolic meanings of, 249; third spaces, 314–316
 publishing: cultural awakening and,
   173; monastic, 74; popular culture,
   183; popular culture and, 183–184.
   See also journalism Qabbani, Nizar, 208
qa'immaqamiyyah plan, 89–90, 90– 91, 275–277
 Quadruple Alliance, 84
 Quandt, William, 205
 Qulailat, Ibrahim, 145–146
 Rabat conference (1974), 226
 Rabinow, Paul, 321–322

- radicalization, 210–227
 Rahbani, Ziyad, 184, 206
 Ras-Beirut, 174, 176–177;
     urbanization and character of,
     181–183
 Reagan, Ronald, 8–9 real estate, 327 reconstruction, 304–305 refugees: Armenian, 182, 185–186; in Beirut, 214; in 1958 crisis, 145; public image and standing of, 218– 219; space attachment and, 250; violence against communities and,
     60
Règlement Organique (1861), 6, 97, 277–282; confessional solidification by, 274
Règlement Shakib Efendi (1843), 90– 91, 275–277
 Rejection Front, 213 religion: communalism and, 266–267;
     communal mobilization by, 28–31;
     confessionalism and, 270–272;
     desecrations of in 1958, 140–141;
     emotional power of, 58–59;
     fragmentation from, 3; influence of, 281; leadership of conflicts and, 49–50, 72–75, 91, 101–102;
     political position and, 54;
     sanctification of violence and, 56, 57–60; socioeconomic status and,
     2; violence under, 102 research centers, 176
 resocialization, 269–270 resort, Lebanon as, 158, 202–203 retribalization, 262–272, 305, 326 revenge: hypersensitivity and, 50–51;
     perpetuation of violence in, 43–45;
     reconciliation and, 45
 Revolt of the Pashas, 136 revolution, civil war as, 53
Revue Phénicienne, La, 174
 Riad, Mahmoud, 229–230
 Ricoeur, Paul, 56
 romantic tradition, 205
 Rorty, Richard, 310–311
 Rosewater Revolution, 104
 Rubeiz, Janine, 188
 Rule, James, 100
 rural development programs, 166–167
 Russia: Greek Orthodox community and, 89–90, 276; Lebanese folk art and, 194; Règlement Organique and, 279–280; in U.S. intervention, 116, 118
 Saad, Marouf, 135–136, 214, 228
 Sadat, Anwar, 226
 Said, Edward, 221, 325
 Said, Khalida, 193
 Salam, Nawaf, 330
 Salam, Saeb, 108, 109, 111, 118, 139, 145; as commander-in-chief of people's forces, 121; 1958 leadership of, 119–120
 Salem, Paul, 289
 Salibi, Kamal, 154–155
 Saudi Arabia, 290–291
 Scaife, Christopher, 193
 Scarry, Elaine, 310 scholarly writing: on aggression and violence, 38–41; freedom in, 184; golden age, 174–179; on Lebanization, 11–12; on Lebanon's successes, 16–18
 scientific organizations, 176
 Scott, James, 62
 secularization, 281
 “Seminaires Semaines Sociales de Beyrouth, Les,” 178
 Sennett, Richard, 326
 Series of Social Studies, 176, 178 service economy, 202–203
 Sfeir, Nusrallah, 47, 296

- Shahin, Tanyus, 92–93, 94, 96
 sharecropping, 165
 Sharett, 215
 Shawool, Paul, 192
 Shihab, Fuad, 331–332
 Shihab, Yusuf, 84
 Shihabi Emirate, 87–90
 Shi'ites: infighting among, 46, 241–242; Lebanonization and, 11, 12; Règlement Organique and, 279; South Lebanon war and, 13–14.
See also Hizbullah Shils, Edward, 105–106
 Shklar, Judith, 237
 Shmash, Moshe, 21, 156
Shuyukh al Shabab, 92
 Sidon: monopolization of by Jazzar, 71; 1958 strife in, 135–136 silk industry, 67–68, 90–91, 153, 164
Silsilat Al-Abhath Al-Ijtima'iyya (Series of Social Studies), 176, 178
 Simmel, Georg, 39
 Sinai II, 226
 Sinai Observers Agreement, 44
 Singer, M., 41
 Six Day War (1967), 162, 212–214; as critical threshold, 217
 Smith, Adam, 39, 200–201 smoking, 261–262 smuggling, 198
 social Darwinism, 38, 39, 200, 201 social mobility, 69 social protest, transition to confessional rivalry from, 12–13 social status: connections with violence, 209–210; economic shifts and, 153; under feudalism, 67–69; under the Règlement Organique, 278–279 social strife, 24; communal violence and, 31–37; transformation into confessional conflict, 32–34; societal problems as parochial problems, 202 socioeconomic conditions: decline in inequality of, 163; under feudalism, 68; feudalism and changes in, 2; foreign interventions and, 273–274; gamesmanship and, 200–201; horizontal disputes in, 31–37; inequality of, 2, 3; in transition to violence, 209–210; violence due to, 24; war system and, 251–253
 Solidere, 334
 Sorel, George, 40
 South Lebanese Army (SLA), 44, 242
 South Lebanon, 242 sovereignty, 224; of the army, 228 special-interest groups, 311–312
 Spencer, Herbert, 39, 321
 Stewart, Desmond, 113–114, 122, 149
 Stoakes, Frank, 16
 Storr, Anthony, 35
Story of Zahra, The (al-Shaykh), 245–246 stress, 253–258
 strikes, 109; by fishermen, 227–228; general, in 1958, 139, 140; government action against, 112; labor, 224–225; as political unrest, 211–212; student, 224 Suez Crisis (1956), 6
 sultans, 64–65
 surrogates, 1–22; civilians as, 293–294; in peasant uprisings, 99–100.
See also proxy battles
 Sursock Museum, 187–188
 Syria: brinkmanship by, 53–55; France and, 283; hostility toward Chamoun, 110; Natural Syria nationalism, 126; PLO in, 221; protection rackets by, 252; South

- Lebanon war and, 14; Ta'if and, 293, 295–297; Tripartite Commission and, 291
 Syrian Socialist National Party (PSS), 115; coup of, 211
- Tabbah, Bechara, 177
- Ta'if Accord (1989), 289–303;
     sectarianism of, 28; Syria's role in, 54
- Taky deen, Diana, 190
- taxation: 1840 uprising and, 91; under feudalism, 65, 66; 1820 uprising and, 75–76; uprising of 1840 and, 80
- Tayan, Emile, 177
- territorial commitments, 324–326
- terrorism, 42–43, 225
- theatre, 183, 184–185, 192–193
- Third Force, 118, 122–123
- third spaces, 314–316
- Tiger Militia, 230, 241
- time flows, 250–251
- tolerance, 104–105, 328
- totalitarianism, 269–270
- Touraine, Alain, 100
- tourism, 202–203
- trafficking, 198
- traffic violations, 260
- Trans-Arabian Pipeline, 17
- Travaux et Jours*, 177
- Treaty of 1838, 91
- Treaty of Brotherhood, Cooperation and Coordination (1991), 302
- tribal clashes, 219
- tribal identities, 24, 25; retribalization of, 24, 26–27, 28–29
- Tripartite Agreement, 298
- Tripartite High Commission, 291
- Tripoli, 114–115; commercialization in, 153; factions in, 241; 1958 strife in, 127–129; snipers in, 230
- Tueni, Ghassan, 9, 123–124
- tunnel vision, 237
- turf battles, 45–48
- turf wars, 249
- Umar Pasha “al-Mansawi,” 87–88
- U.N. Security Council, 115–116, 147–148
- unemployment, 159
- ‘unfuwan*, 329
- United Arab Republic: creation of, 113; formation of, 6
- United National Front (UNF), 110
- United Nations Observer Group, 116
- United Nations Resolution 424, 295
- United Parliamentary Bloc, 138
- United States: in 1958 strife, 116–118; interventions by, 6–9, 330–331;
     power balance with Egypt, 212;
     Ta'if and, 293–294
- University of Saint Joseph (USJ): AUB rivalry with, 178; cultural life around, 177–179; theatre at, 193
- urbanization, 165–166, 169–170, 181–182; environment and, 250; as threat to identity, 205–206
- utopianism, 248
- victor/vanquished, 33; failure to establish, 51–53; in 1958 conflict, 141, 150
- violence: anomalous, in 1958, 148–149; categories of, 109–111; change from “civil” to “uncivil,” 86; children and, 238–240; as communal glue, 100; communal solidarity and, 31–37; counter-productivity of, 5–6; courtesy in, 148–149; cycle of, 43–45; domestication of, 235–240; in 1840 uprising, 93–94; as entertainment,

- violence (Continued)
 239; features of confessional, 34–36; by followers vs. leaders, 137; globalization and, 41–48; history of, 1–4; increased magnitude of, 3–4, 108–111; insoluble, 236–237; justification of, 36; layers/magnitudes of, 24; link between civility and, 38–40; momentum of, 50–51; pathology of protracted, 48–61; psychic toll of, 4; radicalization of communal solidarity and, 23; randomness of, 235–236; romanticized, 148; sanctification of, 55–61; as self-discovery, 40; stylization of, 237–238; technology of war and, 61; transition from hostility to, 38–61
- Voice of Lebanon, 139
- Voice of Reform, 135
- voluntarism, 176, 305, 311–313
- vulgarization, 203, 311–313
- Waines, David, 17
- wakils* (representatives), 101; role of in government, 94–95; in uprising of 1820, 76–77
- walis*, 65
- Walzer, Michael, 43, 327
- war: barbarism after, 258–262; civilian targets in, 42–43; civil vs. international, 33–34; coping with, 234–235; costs of, 43; descent into uncivil, 42–48; displacement by, 243–248; erosion of civility by, 233; factors sustaining, 48–50; foreign intervention in, 6–9; “just,” 43, 47–48; lasting effects of, 232–272; multiplication of and shifts in, 240–243; normalization of, 234, 235–240; origins of, 233–234; pervasiveness of in Lebanon, 240–242; psychic toll of, 4; public/private space and, 234, 246–251; retribalization and, 262–272; stress and trauma from, 253–258; as system, 251–253; technology of, 61
- Wasa Pasha, 280–281
- welfare agencies, 281
- welfare programs, 161
- Wildavsky, A., 41
- Williams, Robin, 36, 59
- Wirth, Louis, 324
- women: as activists, 322–323; as artists and patrons, 188–189; Beirut Decentrists, 244–246
- working conditions, 168–169
- World War II, economic impact of, 159–160
- writing, 205–209; after 1975, 207; by the clergy, 73; decentrist, 244–246; experimental, 207. See also journalism
- xenophobia, 319–320
- Yafi, Abdallah, 108, 111
- Yahya, Maha, 249
- Yom Kippur war (1973), 226
- Youth Association for Social Awareness (YASA), 323
- Zamir, Meir, 21
- zero-sum fighting, 56–57
- Zgharta, 128
- zone of peace, 41
- zone of violent anarchy, 41