

---

Index

---

- active state advocacy 58
- Act on the Relations of the People between the Taiwan Straits [Taiwan] 130
- adaptability of political organizations 150
- adaptive efficiency norm 50
- adversarial political party system 42–43
- amakudari* (Japanese practice) 66
- Amnuay Viravan [Thailand] 221
- Anwar Ibrahim [Malaysia] 239, 240
- Aoki, Masohiko 72
- APU (Angkatan Perpaduan Ummah)
[Malaysia] 244, 245, 246
- Aquino, Benigno “Ninoy”
[Philippines] 170
- Aquino, Corazon [Philippines] 171, 189, 191, 194
- Argentina 26
- Asian values
  - Asian miracle as due to 334
  - Confucianism and 140, 295–296, 303
  - debate over 3–4
  - democratization process and xiii
  - economic development/democracy and 10–11
  - Singapore debate over Western vs. 295
  - see also* values
- Asia-Pacific Regional Operations Center 130
  - see also* Taiwan
- “Assembly of the Poor” movement
[Thailand] 58–59
- Australian federation 26
- Australian Graduate School of Management (University of New South Wales) xiv
- authoritarian governments
  - of East and Southeast Asian countries
2–3
  - economic growth and democracy vs. 6–9
  - of Malaysia 2, 338
  - of Taiwan 338
  - uncertainty characterizing 8
  - see also* democratic governments
- autonomy of political organizations 150
- Banharn Silapaarcha [Thailand] 206, 212–213, 227
- Bank of China [China] 313
- Banking Law amendment (1989) [Taiwan] 119
- Bank of Thailand [Thailand] 219, 220, 222, 223, 225, 344
- barangays* (neighborhood groups)
[Philippines] 170
- Basic Law [Hong Kong] 316, 318–319
- BBC (Bangkok Bank of Commerce)
[Thailand] 222
- Belgium 93–94, 95, 96, 98, 338

- Bhumiphol Adulyadej, King [Thailand] 204
BN (Barisan Nasional) coalition
    [Malaysia] 231, 233
BOC (Board of Election Canvassers)
    [Philippines] 173–174
Bowie, Alisdair 66
The Brothers Karamazov 302
Buddhism 296 bureaucracy consociational parliamentary model and strong 93–98
    in East and Southeast Asia 14
    economic governance, Filipino parties and 189–197
    economic governance/relationship of party and 81–87
    consociational parliamentary model of 93–98
    Japanese model of 88–93, 104
    presidentialism model of 99–104
    economic growth and democratic 9–10 economic growth and Singapore 300
    of Malaysia 14, 252–253
    political leaders and elite 57–58 political and politico-administrative processes and 342–346 power flows between Thai parties and 221–223
    presidentialism of U.S./Latin American models and 99–104
    state autonomy and prestige of 53
Burma 2
business-government collaboration economic performance and 52 sectoral ideas, choice sets, and motives in 63, 66

cadre political parties 31
Cambodia 2–3
Campos, Edgardo Jose 55, 58
Carey, J. 278
catch-all parties 37–38
Catholic Church [Philippines] 171
Cayetano, Rene [Philippines] 175
CDF (Countrywide Development Fund)
    [Philippines] 191
chaebols [Korea] 66
Chai-Anan Samudavanija 205
Chang Rong-fa [Taiwan] 130
Chatichai Choonhawan [Thailand] 205, 213
Chavalit Yongchaiyuth [Thailand] 206, 207,
    212, 221, 227

Cheng, Tun-Jen 55
Chiang Ching-kul [Taiwan] 120, 125, 127
Chile 26
China
    economic nexus of Taiwan and 127–131 economic ties between Hong Kong and 313–315
    future influences on Hong Kong by 326
    Hong Kong as SAR of 305, 307
    Hong Kong under sovereignty of 310–317
    political climate of 2
    Sino-British talks over Hong Kong by 307, 309–310
    Tiananmen square (1989) incident in 310
    United Nations sanctions against 308
    see also Taiwan
China Merchants Corporation [Hong Kong]
    313
Christian Democrats [Netherlands] 95
Chuan Leekpai [Thailand] 206, 208, 211
Chun Doo Hwan [South Korea] 148, 149, 157
Civic Organization Law (1989) [Taiwan] 120 coherence of political organization 150–151
Cojuangco, Eduardo, Jr. [Philippines] 181
Colorado College xiv
COMELEC (Commission on Election)
    [Philippines] 172–173
communitarian ideology [Singapore] 294–297
competition
    Asian countries and extent of party 82 forms of party 38–40
complexity of political organizations 150
Confessor, Nieves [Philippines] 175
Confucianism 140, 295–296, 303 consociational parliamentary model principle of accommodation and 94 strong bureaucracy and 93–98
consociational political party system 42–43 constitutional structure, political party system and 25–27
Consultative Assembly [Indonesia]
    269–271, 274, 280
Contemplacion, Flor [Philippines] 175
Cox, G. 278
CPP (Chart Pattana Party) [Thailand]
    213–214
CTP (Chart Thai Party) [Thailand]
    212–213

- DAP (Democratic Action Party) [Malaysia] 242–243, 245, 246
- DBM (Department of Budget Management) [Philippines] 191
- decision-making in democratic governments 6–7, 8–9 in Indonesian democratization 278
- De Gaulle, Charles 101
- democratic governments development of pluralistic party system
         in 25–31
     of East and Southeast Asian countries 2–3 economic development correlated with liberal 7 economic performance and liberal 346–355 Filipino satisfaction with 189 inefficiency of decision-making in 6–7, 8–9 instability of personnel/policies in 6, 7–8 party-bureaucracy relationships/economic governance in 81–87 Japan model of 88–93 party system and institutional resilience of 168 political parties in consolidated 24
     see also authoritarian governments;
         democratization process; political parties
- democratization process
     Asian values and xiii changing political economy of Taiwan and 129–134 debate over economic development and 1–2 in East and Southeast Asian countries 3 economic growth and authoritarianism vs. 6–9 impact of economic globalization on 11–13
     as impeding economic growth 4–5
         Asian values and 10–11
         role of bureaucracy and 9–10
     implications for economic governance 80
     Indonesian economic growth and 276–279 internal party structure and 31–38 role of political parties and 15–17
     South Korean transplacement 142–144
     Thai party system development and 208–211, 214–215 threats to the 167–168
- Democrat Party [Thailand] 211–212
- developmental states 51–52
     see also economic development
- developmental state theory 51–52
- De Venencia, Jose [Philippines] 178
- DI 12
- Diamond, Larry 168
- DJP (Democratic Justice Party) [South Korea] 148–149, 150, 151, 152
- DLP (Democratic Liberal Party) [South Korea] 148, 149, 150, 151
- Dore, Ronald 68
- Doyle, Sir Arthur Conan 287
- DPP (Democratic Progressive Party) [Taiwan] 123–126, 131, 132–133
- Duverger, M. 31
- East Asian countries benefits of consociationalism in 98
     case-study method used to examine 335–336, 356
     compared to Southeast Asian countries 2–3 creativity, innovation, and skills in 70–71
     economic growth/economic governance and values in 9–11
     flexible representative mass parties of 38 future for strong state in 14–15
     government failures in 71–73
     liberal democracy and economic performance in 346, 348
     during economic crises 352–355
     overview of 348–352
     notable parties in 32
     party leadership in 35–36
     party type/development in 34–35, 41–42
     political leaders and elite bureaucracy in 57
     political map of 3–4
     political and politico-administrative processes bureaucracies and 342–346 role of parties on 337–341 studies on NICs of 156
     see also Southeast Asian countries
- economic crisis. see 1997 economic crisis
- economic development correlated with liberal democracy 7 debate over democracy and 1–2 path dependence as influence on 49–50

- economic development (cont.)
    - South Korean democratization process and 142–144
    - studies on authoritarianism and 156
    - Thailand's political and 204–207
  - Economic Development Board [Singapore] 59
  - economic globalization
    - impact on economic governance or growth 11–13
    - impact on Japan by 90–91
    - impact on the Philippines by 187, 189
    - impact on Singapore by 299
    - impact on Thailand's economy by 223–225
    - Taiwan and 1980s 119–120
  - economic governance
    - bureaucracy, Filipino parties and 189–197
    - consequences of 1997 economic crisis for 345–346
    - democratic party-bureaucracy relationships and 81–87
    - consociational parliamentary model of 93–98
      - Japanese model of 88–93, 104
      - presidentialism model of 99–104
    - democratization and implications for 80
    - East and Southeast Asian countries' political parties and 347
  - economic performance practice
    - creativity, innovation, and skills 70–71
    - government failure and 71–73
    - national ideas, choice sets, and motives 55–59
    - sectoral level ideas, choice sets, and motives 59–66
    - transaction costs and 67–69
  - economic performances and differences in 48–49
    - business-government collaboration and 52
    - developmental state theory on 51–52
    - shared growth strategy and 54
    - state autonomy and 53–54
    - state as distinctive learning environment and 49–51
  - Filipino party policies and 184–189
  - in Hong Kong 317–321
    - Basic Law framework for 318–319
    - impact of political developments on 325–326
    - impact of economic globalization on 11–13
    - in Malaysia 246–254
    - role of values in economic growth and 9–11
  - Taiwan and 1980s 119–120
  - Thai democratization, party development and 225–227
- economic growth
    - authoritarianism vs. democracy and 6–9
    - democratization as impeding 4–5
      - Asian values and 10–11
      - role of bureaucracy and 9–10
    - diminished income inequality and 58–59
    - in Hong Kong without democracy 307–310
    - impact of economic globalization on 11–13
    - Indonesian democratization and 276–279
    - role of values in economic governance and 9–11
    - studies of Latin American 7
    - technology development and 53–54, 301
  - economic performance
    - business-government collaboration and 52
    - economic governance and differences in 48–49
    - institutions as determinants of 12–13
    - liberal democracy and 346–355
    - neoclassical economics on 49
    - South Korean democratization and 153–162, 158
    - state as distinctive learning environment and 49–51
  - economic performance practice
    - institutional structure for industry strategy and 60
    - national ideas, choice sets, and motives
      - active advocacy and 58
      - appropriate outcomes of 58–59
      - elite agencies and 56–58
      - leadership consensus and 58
      - strategic socio-economic goals and 55–56
    - sectoral level ideas, choice sets, and motives 59
      - business-government collaboration and 63, 66
      - sectoral agencies and 59
      - sectoral priorities and 59, 62–63

- targeted emerging industrial sectors and 61–62
see also economic governance
- economic policy management changes in Hong Kong's 321–325
 Singapore institutions 297–302 and Thai party system 218–220
see also economic governance
- elaborated embeddedness 220
- Election Commission [Malaysia] 231
- electoral systems impact of 27–29
 of Indonesia 262–267
 of Malaysia 230–234
 in the Philippines 171–174
 of Singapore 293–294
 of South Korea 145–148
- elite agencies 56–58
- embeddedness studies 52, 220
- EOI (export-oriented industrialization) [Malaysia] 247
- EOI (export-oriented industrialization) [Taiwan] 117–118
- Estrada, Joseph [Philippines] 171, 175, 180, 184
- European University Institute xiv
- Evans, Peter 12, 52, 53, 66, 220
- evolutionary economics 49–50
- Exchange Fund Advisory Committee [Hong Kong] 313–314
- Executive Council [Hong Kong] 307, 321, 327n.10
- federalism decentralization 26–27
- Feng, Y. 6, 7, 334
- first-past-the-post system 28–29, 146–147, 230
- FLAMES* program [Philippines] 183
- “flying geese” metaphor 14
- France
 semi/presidentialism (1958) of 101
 strength of bureaucracy in 85–86
- Free Trade Zone Act of 1971 [Malaysia] 247
- Fukuyama, Francis 167
- Garrett, Geoffrey 54
- GATT Law 185, 186
- GDP (gross domestic product) of Hong Kong by 1997, 308
 Indonesian public/private investment percent of 275
 Malaysia's (1960–1993) 250
- GNP (gross national product)
 business group conglomerates and Taiwan 112–113
 of South Korea 141
 in Taiwan (1950–1986) 110
- Goh Chok Tong [Singapore] 292, 293, 294
- Golkar [Indonesia] 263, 264–265, 266, 267–268
- Gomez, Edmund Terence 56, 71
- Gonzales, Neptali [Philippines] 180, 181
- government failure 71–73
see also economic performance practice
- GP (Green Party) [Taiwan] 133
- Grand National Party [South Korea] 149
- Great Ten Constructions [Taiwan] 119
- Habibie, President [Indonesia] 280, 281
- Haddon-Cave, Sir Philip [Hong Kong] 320
- Haggard, Stephan 55, 131, 278
- Hanbo Steel scandal [South Korea] 159
- han* governing units [Japan] 88
- HANPs (Highly Advanced National Project) [Korea] 70–71
- Hashimoto Ryutaro [Japan] 91
- Hawes, Gary 68
- HICOM (Heavy Industries Corporation of Malaysia) [Malaysia] 249
- HKMA (Hong Kong Monetary Authority) [Hong Kong] 314, 323–324
- Hobday, Michael 70
- Hong Kong
 Basic Law of 316, 318–319 changing economic ideology of 317–321 continued capitalism of 319–320 economic growth without democracy in 307–310 economic/political history of 305–307, 308–310 economic ties between China and 313–315 future influence of China on 326
 institutional and policy changes of SAR 321–325 Finance Bureau 322
 government's proactive approach to 324–325
 Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) 314, 323–324
 Industry Department 323
 Intellectual Property Department 323
 Trade Department 322–323

Hong Kong (cont.)

- new labor laws of 315–316
- political climate of 2
- political developments and economic governance in 325–326
- political party/group strengths (1995–2000) 312
- SAR of People's Republic of China as 305, 307
- Sino-British Agreement of 1984 on 307, 310–311
- under Chinese sovereignty 310–317
- hongs* [Hong Kong] 314–315
- Hughes, Helen 10
- Huntington, Samuel P. 142, 150, 167

ideas 54–55

Ikegami, Keiko 88

IMF (International Monetary Fund)

- Filipino requests of 197
- pressures for global standards by 12
- response to 1997 crisis by 48, 345, 346
- South Korea supported by 159
- Thailand support from 224–225, 226

income distribution

- in Singapore 290–291
- in Taiwan of personal 115

Indonesia

- current political situation in 279–281
- democratization and economic growth in 276–279
- elite agencies of 56
- industries targeted for growth in 63
- policy-making framework in 267–272
  - accountability and delegation relationships 271
- political climate of 2
- political institutions and economic outcomes in 272–276
- political parties and electoral system of 262–267
  - general election results (1971–1997) 267
- public/private investment as GDP percent 275

Industrial Relations (Amendment)

- Ordinance [Singapore] 299

industrial sector

- economic performance and targeted 61–62
- institutional structure for 60
- role of Japanese bureaucracy in 62–63

- infocommunications subsector [Korea] 67
- innovation 70–71

see also technology development

Inoguchi, Takashi xiv

institutional economics

- on path dependence 49–50
- on transaction costs 50

institutions

- changing Hong Kong 321–325
- as determinants of economic performance 12–13
- of economic policy in Singapore 297–302
- political parties as democratic 23
- of politics in Singapore 291–293
- state autonomy and strategic 53

ISI (import substitution industrialization)

[Malaysia] 246

ISI (import substitution industrialization)

[Taiwan]

- during the 1950s 117
- second phase during 1970s 118–119

ISIS (Institute for Strategic and International Studies) [Malaysia] 56

issue political parties 33–34

Japan

- bureaucratic role in industrial structure 62–63
- business-government collaboration in 52, 63, 66
- decision-making process in 9
- economic governance/relationship of party and bureaucracy in 88–93
- economic growth within 2
- globalization impact on 90–91
- government service by elites 57
- lessons from economic example of 13–14
- as network state 68
- party system of 92
- strategic socio-economic goals of 55
- strength of bureaucracy in 85, 86
- targeted sectors in 64–65
- technology innovation in 70

Jomo, K. S. 56

KADIN [Indonesia] 268

Kaufman, Robert R. 131

KBL (Kilusang Bagong Lipunan)

[Philippines] 170

Kelm, Matthias 71

khaa ratchakarn (Thai civil servants) 219

Khong, Tat Yan 55

- Kim Dae Jung [South Korea] 139, 140, 142, 149, 152, 163, 164
- Kim, Hyung-Ki 55
- Kim Jong Pil [South Korea] 149, 151, 152, 153
- Kim Young Sam [South Korea] 139, 142, 152, 157, 160–161
- KMT (Nationalist Party) [Taiwan] control of state enterprises by 111–112 economic development and authoritarian ideology of 110, 116, 119–120 economic policies of 131–132
 following Civil War 109
 ISI and land reform by 117 liberalization limited by 120 media control by 30–31
 Southward Investment Policy by 127, 130
see also Taiwan
- Korea. see South Korea
- Korean telecommunications industry 67–68
- Korean War (1950–1953) 138, 308
- Korn Dabaransi [Thailand] 213
- Kramol Tongdhamachart 211
- Krause, Lawrence 300
- Kuala Lumpur [Malaysia] xiv
- Kuomintang. see KMT (Nationalist Party) [Taiwan]
- Kuznets, Simon 115
- labor
 business-government collaboration and 52
 Hong Kong's new laws regarding 315–316
 Singapore economic policies and 299–300
- Lakas-LDP coalition [Philippines] 186, 189–190
- Lakas [Philippines] 178, 180, 183, 185, 186
- LAMMP [Philippines] 180, 181, 182, 183
- Latin America
 bureaucracy and presidentialism of 99–104 party structure in 31 strength of bureaucracies in 85
 studies of economic growth in 7, 334–335
- LDP (Laban ng Demokratikong) [Philippines] 180–181, 183, 185, 186
- leadership
 in consociational systems 97–98 economic performance and consensus of 58 of South Korean political parties 150 within political parties 35–36
- LEDAC (Legislative-Executive Development Advisory Council) [Philippines] 185
- Lee Hsien Loong [Singapore] 300
- Lee Kuan Yew [Singapore] 1, 3, 288–289, 291, 295, 300
- Lee Teng-hui Complex [Taiwan] 126
- Lee Teng-hui [Taiwan] 125, 126, 130
- Legarda, Loren [Philippines] 175
- Legislative Council [Hong Kong] 307, 311–312, 315, 321
- liberal democracy. see democratic governments
- Liddle, R. W. 266
- Lijphart, A. 42
- Linz, John 168
- Lipset, S. M. xiii, 151
- Liu, Hong 68
- Low Countries 93, 94, 95, 96–97, 98
- LP (Liberal Party) [Philippines] 170, 182, 183–184
- McCubbins, M. 278
- Maceda, Ernesto [Philippines] 181
- MacIntyre, Andrew 56, 69, 344
- Mahathir Mohammad [Malaysia] 1, 3, 63, 238–239, 240–241, 244, 255, 256
- Malaysia
 authoritarianism political climate of 2, 338 bureaucracy of 14, 252–253
 business-government collaboration in 66
 economic governance in 246–247 bureaucrats, think tanks, and 252–253 heavy industrialization strategy and 249–252 political economy (1970–1990) and 247–249 Vision 2020 and 253–254
 elections and the electoral system of 230–234 campaigns 233–234
 first-past-the-post system of 29, 230 parliament election results 235 role of media in 232
 elite agencies of 56
 employment/occupation by ethnic group in 251
 NEP (New Economic Policy) of 247–248, 250–251, 252, 254

- Malaysia (cont.)
  ownership of share capital in 251 party system experience in 26, 27, 43, 339 pluralism within 39–40
  political outlook in middle-class activism and 254–255
    UMNO factionalism and 255–257 political parties in DAP (Democratic Action Party) as 242–243, 245, 246 opposition coalitions since 1987 244–246
    other BN members 241–242
    PAS (Parti Islam SeMalaysia) 243, 245, 246
    PRM (Parti Rakyat Malaysia) as 244 ruling coalition of 234, 236
    UMNO as 236–241
  Singapore expelled from 289, 298
  social cleavages in 93–94
  targeted industries for growth in 63
  see also UMNO (United Malay National Organization) [Malaysia]
- Maravall, Jose Maria 159
- Marcos, Ferdinand [Philippines] 36, 66, 170, 171, 184
- market failures 67
- mass media
  elections and behavior of 30–31
  Indonesia electoral system and 265–266
  Malaysian elections and 232 party system and role of 29–31 in Philippine politics 174–175 role in Thai elections by 209
  Singapore government constraints on 294
  Taiwanese politicized 131–132
- mass political parties 31–34, 37–38, 39
- Matthews, John 70, 72
- Megawati Sukarnoputri [Indonesia] 263
- Meiji Restoration [Japan] 88–89
- MIC (Malaysian Indian Congress) [Malaysia] 232
- MIDA (Malaysian Industry Development Authority) 59
- Miners, Norman 320
- MITI [Japan] 53, 56, 62–63
- Mochtar, Pabottinga 58
- Moon, Chung-in 68
- Moore, Thomas G. 71
- “Multimedia Super Corridor” [Malaysia] 63
- multi-party systems (with dominant party) 41
- multi-party systems (without dominant party) 41
- NAMFREL (National Movement for Free Elections) [Philippines] 174
- Nam Thai Party [Thailand] 221
- NAP (New Aspiration Party) [Thailand] 212
- NAP (New People’s Army) [Philippines] 170
- National Development Planning Committee [Malaysia] 59
- National Economic Consultative Council [Malaysia] 59
- National Health Insurance [Taiwan] 132
- National Security Law (1987) [Taiwan] 120
- NCNP (National Congress for New Politics) [South Korea] 146
- NDRP (New Democratic Republican Party) [South Korea] 149, 151, 152–153
- NEP (New Economic Policy) [Malaysia] 247–248, 250–251, 252, 254
- NESDB (National Economic and Social Development Board) [Thailand] 56–57
- Netherlands 93–94, 95, 96, 97, 338
- New Aspiration Party [Thailand] 207
- new institutional economics theory 12–13
- New Order regime (Indonesia) 279, 281
- NICs (newly industrializing countries) 156
- 1997 economic crisis
  Asian economic governance studies and 335–336, 337 economic governance consequences of 345–346 origins and spread of 47–48, 72, 73 Philippines during 196–197 productive capacity before 48
  Thailand’s experience during 9, 207–208, 223
  transaction costs and 69
- NKP (New Korea Party) [South Korea] 145, 146, 148, 149
- North, Douglas 50, 68
- North Korea 138
  see also South Korea
- notable political parties 31–32

- NPC (Nationalist People's Coalition)
     [Philippines] 180, 181–182, 183
 NP (Nationalista Party) [Philippines] 170
 NP [Taiwan] 123, 125
 nuclear power policy [Taiwan] 132–134
 Nukul Committee report [on Bank of Thailand] 225

 O'Donnell, Guillermo 145
 OECD
     pressures for global standards by 12
     response to 1997 crisis by 345
     South Korean membership in 159, 162
 OEC (Omnibus Election Code)
     [Philippines] 171, 172
 Okimoto, Daniel 63
 Outline Perspective Plan [Malaysia] 58

 Palang Dharma Party [Thailand] 209
Pancasila state ideology [Indonesia] 264, 282n.3
 PAP (People's Action Party)
     [Singapore] 288, 291, 293, 296, 297
 Party and Bureaucratic Power I 83
 Party and Bureaucratic Power II 84 party identification 31–32
 PAS (Parti Islam SeMalaysia) [Malaysia]
     243, 245, 246
 PBS (United Sabah Party) [Malaysia] 242, 244, 245
 PDI (Partai Demokrasi Indonesia)
     [Indonesia] 263, 266, 267, 281n.1
 PDP (Philippine Democratic Party)
     [Philippines] 186
 Pelita VI strategic plan (1994–95)
     [Indonesia] 63
 People's Republic of China. see China
 Philippines
     bureaucratic character in 103
     business-government collaboration in 66 constitutional structure and electoral system of 171–174
     economic governance, bureaucracy, and parties in 189–197
     bloated and politicized bureaucracy 192–193
     competent bureaucracies of 193–194 currency crisis and “tiger cub”
         economy 196–197
     economic growth and policy-making by 194–196
     historical background of parties in 169 martial law politics (1972–1986) 170–171
     post-war democratic politics (1946–1972) 169–170
     restoration of democratic politics (1986–present) 171
     macroeconomic indicators (1985–1996) 195 major political parties of the 175–178 basic indicators of party institutionalization in 177 economic governance and policies of 184–189
         Lakas as 178, 180, 183, 185, 186
         LAMMP as 180, 181, 182, 183
         LDP as 180–181, 185, 186
         LP as 170, 182, 183–184
         net trust ratings (1991–1997) of 188
         NPC as 180, 181–182, 183 party affiliation of Congress/governors 179 policies, ideologies, platforms of 182–184
     mass media in politics of 174–175
     political climate of 2
     satisfaction with democracy in 189
 Plaza Accords of 1986, 49
 plural societies 39–40
 PMP (Party of the Filipino Masses)
     [Philippines] 180
Political Man (Lipset) xiii political parties as central democratic institutions 23 competition of 38–40
     democratization and internal structure of 31–38
     East and Southeast Asian countries' economic governance and 347
     economic governance, bureaucracy, and Filipino 189–197
     economic governance/relationship of bureaucracy and 81–87
     consociational parliamentary model of 93–98
     Japanese model of 88–93, 104
     presidentialism model of 99–104
     emergence of issue 33–34
     functions/characteristics of 23–24, 43–44 impact of electoral system on 27–29 impact on political and politico-administrative processes 337–341
     of Indonesia 262–267

- political parties (cont.)
  - leadership within 35–36
  - liberal democracy and role of 15–17
  - mass vs. notable 31–32
  - of the Philippines 175–189
  - politics of Taiwanese emerging 123–126, 338–339
  - power flows between Thai bureaucracy and 221–223
  - programmatic vs. representative 36–38
  - role of mass media and 29–31
  - social cleavage/legitimation process of mass 32–33
  - of South Korea 144–153
  - strengths of Hong Kong's (1995–2000) 312
  - Thai democratization, economic governance, and 225–227
  - types/development of East/Southeast Asian 34–35
  - see also* democratic governments
- Political Parties and The State* (Shefter) xiv
- Political Party Law of 1981 [Thailand] 208–209
- political party systems
  - adversarial vs. consociational 42–43
  - comparison of Taiwan and Malaysia 339
  - democratization and South Korean 144
    - the Constitution and presidentialism 144–145
    - the electoral system 145–148
    - evolution of 150
    - problem of party institutionalization and 150–153
  - institutional resilience of democracy and 168
  - Thai democratization and development of 208–211, 214–215
  - Thai economic policy management and 218–220
  - types of pluralistic 40–42
- positive non-intervention policy [Hong Kong] 320
- PPCRV (People's Pastoral Council for Responsible Voting) [Philippines] 174
- PPD (Party for Peace and Democracy) [South Korea] 152
- PPP (Partai Persatuan Pembangunan) [Indonesia] 263, 267, 281n.1
- Prachakorn Thai Party [Thailand] 207
- Prasad, Rashemi 68
- Prem Tinasulanond [Thailand] 205, 219, 227
- presidentialism model [U.S. and Latin America] 99–104
- PRM (Parti Rakyat Malaysia) [Malaysia] 244
- programmatic political parties 36–38
- Protestant ethic 11
- Provisional Legislative Council [Hong Kong] 312, 316
- PR (proportional representation) system [Taiwan] 123
- Rafidah Aziz [Malaysia] 257
- Ramos, Fidel [Philippines] 171, 174, 184, 189, 191, 192, 194
- Razaleigh Hamzah [Malaysia] 238, 239
- RDP (Reunification Democratic Party) [South Korea] 149, 151, 152
- regionalism 151–153
- representative political parties 36–38
- Revilla, Ramon [Philippines] 175
- “Riding Out the Storm: Renewing Hong Kong Strengths” (speech by Tsang) 320
- ROC (Republic of China) 109
  - see also* Taiwan
- Roh Tae Woo [South Korea] 148–149, 152, 157, 160
- Rokkan, S. 32, 151
- Romulo, Roberto [Philippines] 175, 178
- Root, Hilton L. 55, 58
- Rosario, Roberto Del, Jr. [Philippines] 178, 180
- Sabel, Charles 69
- SAP (Social Action Party) [Thailand] 213
- SAR Legislative Council [Hong Kong] 312
- shared growth strategy 54
- Shefter, Martin xiv, 83, 88
- Shizuoka Research and Education Foundation xiv
- Shugart, M. 278
- Shunto* round 52
- Singapore
  - changing social structure of 290–291
  - communitarian ideology and 294–297
  - competing nation strategy by 302–303
  - Confucian values and 295–296, 303
  - constraints placed on media in 294
  - economic growth and bureaucracy in 300
  - electoral process in 293–294

- elite agencies of 56
- expelled from Malaysia 289, 298
- government service by elites 57
- historical origins of 288–290
- impact of global economy on 299
- institutions of economic policy in 297–302
- institutions of politics in 291–293
- political climate of 2
- pragmatism of economic policy in 298–299
- social cleavages in 93
- strategic socio-economic goals of 55–56
- Sino-British Agreement of 1984, 307, 310–311
- Siti Zaharah Sulaiman [Malaysia] 257
- SNTV (single non-transferable vote)
  - electoral system [Taiwan] 122–123
- Social Action Party [Thailand] 207
- social cleavage
  - consociational principle and 95
  - democracy and decline of party 40
  - mass parties and 32–33
  - primacy of regionalism over other 151–153
  - types of 93–94
- societies
  - adaptive efficiency norm of 50
  - plural 39–40
  - studies of embeddedness in 52
- socio-economic goals 55–56
- Sotto, Vicente [Philippines] 175
- Southeast Asian countries
  - benefits of consociationalism in 98
  - business-government collaboration in 66
  - case-study method used to examine 335–336, 356
  - compared to East Asian countries 2–3
  - creativity, innovation, and skills in 70–71
  - economic growth/economic governance and values in 9–11, 334
  - future for strong state in 14–15
  - government failures in 71–73
  - investment by Taiwan in 128–129
  - liberal democracy and economic
    - performance in 346, 348
    - during economic crises 352–355
    - overview of 348–352
    - political parties and economic governance in 347
  - notable parties in 32
  - party leadership in 35–36
  - party type/development in 34–35, 41–42
  - political leaders and elite bureaucracy in 57–58
  - political map of 3–4
  - political and politico-administrative
    - processes, role of parties on 337–341
  - strategic socio-economic goals of 56
  - see also* East Asian countries
- South Korea
  - as “Asian miracle” 137
  - bureaucracy of 14
  - bureaucratic character in 103
  - business-government collaboration in 66
  - crisis of 1997 and domestic conditions in 72
  - democratization and economic
    - performance in 153–162
    - between 1987–1995 158
    - presidential election by region (1987–1997) 154–155
  - economic growth and delayed democracy of 140–142, 339–340
  - elite agencies of 56
  - government service by elites 57
  - growth of GDP in 141
  - influence of Confucianism on 140
  - legacy before democratization 138–140
  - party politics of 144
  - political climate of 2
  - political parties of 144–153
  - problem of party institutionalization and 150–153
  - strategic socio-economic goals of 55
  - technology innovation in 70–71
  - transplacement democratization process
    - in 142–144
    - the Constitution and presidentialism and 144–145
    - the electoral system and 145–148
    - general elections results (1996) 147
- Southward Investment Policy [Taiwan] 127, 130
- the state
  - constitutional and territorial structures of 26–27
  - criteria for collaboration of business and 52–54
  - as distinctive learning environment 49–51
  - economic governance and autonomy of 53–54

- the state (cont.)
  - economic governance of developmental 51–52
  - transaction costs of 67–69
- state autonomy 53–54
- Statute for Upgrading Industries of 1990 [Taiwan] 119
- strategic socio-economic goals 55–56
- Suchinda Kraprayoon [Thailand] 206
- Suharto, President [Indonesia] 3, 63, 263, 279, 280, 344
- Sundaram, Jomo Kwame xiv
- Supachai Panichpakdi [Thailand] 221–222
- Sweden 9
- Swiss federalism 27
- Switzerland 94, 338
- TAIP (Taiwan Independence Party) [Taiwan] 123, 125
- Taiwan
  - authoritarian social structure of 338
  - business-government collaboration in 66
  - changing economic structure patterns of 112
  - composition of exports by 112
  - constitutional structure/electoral system of 121–123
  - development patterns (1950–1986) of 110–116
  - distribution of personal income in 115
  - economic indicators (1952–1996) of 111
  - emerging party politics of 123–126
    - adversarial nature of 338–339
  - export-oriented industrialization (1960s) in 117–118
  - foreign aid from U.S. to 117
  - import substitution industrialization (1950s) in 117
  - investment in PRC/Southeast Asian countries 128–129
  - nuclear power policy of 132–134
  - origins and survival of 109–110
  - overall democratization trends of 120–121
  - percentage of medium/small enterprises in 113–114
  - popular vote distribution (1994) in 124
  - popular vote distribution (1996) 124
  - presidential election of 1996 in 121
  - stable social base/politicized media of 131–132
  - Taiwan-China economic nexus and ramifications for 127–131
  - vote/seat distribution in elections (1991–1996) 124
    - see also* China; KMT (Nationalist Party) [Taiwan]
  - Taiwan Power Company 132, 133
  - Tam Yiu-chung [Hong Kong] 311
  - Tarrin Nimmanhaeminda [Thailand] 221, 222
  - technology development
    - economic growth and 53–54, 301
    - fostered by economic governance 70–71
  - Temporary Provisions [Taiwan] 120, 121
  - Teo Chee Hean [Singapore] 291
  - TEPU (Taiwan Environmental Protection Union) 132
- Thailand
  - business-government collaboration in 66
  - Constitution (1997) of 215–218, 226
  - coup of 1976 in 204–205
  - economic downturn of 1996/crisis of 1997, 9, 207–208, 222–223
  - economic governance, democratization, and party development in 225–227
  - economic policy management and party system of 218–220
  - elite agencies of 56–57
  - impact of globalization on economy of 223–225
  - major political parties of
    - CPP (Chart Pattana Party) of 213–214
    - CTP (Chart Thai Party) of 212–213
    - the Democrat Party of 211–212
    - listed 211
    - NAP (New Aspiration Party) of 212
    - nature of 209, 211
    - new requirements for 218
    - SAP (Social Action Party) of 213
  - media role in elections of 209
  - parliamentary election statistics (1979–1996) of 210
  - party system development and democratization of 208–211, 214–215
  - political climate of 2
  - political and economic development of 204–207
  - power flows between bureaucracy and parties of 221–223
  - strategic socio-economic goals of 56

- Tiananmen square (1989) [China] 310
 Tokugawa rule (1603–1858) [Japan] 88 transaction costs
     economic performance practice and 67–69
     institutional economics on 50
 Tsang, Donald [Hong Kong] 319, 320
 Tung Chee-hwa [Hong Kong] 310–311, 321
 TVRI (Indonesian broadcasting channel) 265–266 two-and-a-half-party systems 41
 two-party systems 41
- ULD (United Liberal Democrats) [South Korea] 146
 UMNO (United Malay National Organization) [Malaysia] 26, 36 campaigns of 233–234
     deputy presidential election of 1993 and 239–240 election results for 235
     factional crisis of (1987) 238–239 impact on bureaucracy by 253
     Mahathir consolidation and 240–241 membership breakdown (1997) of 237
     overview of 236–237
     patronage of 237–238
     political outlook and factionalism of 255–257 rural support of 231, 232 ties between media and 232
     see also Malaysia
- United States
     bureaucracy and presidentialism in the 99–104
     federalism of 26, 27
     foreign aid to Taiwan from 117 party system and constitutional structure in 25
     University of Malaysia xiv
     University of New South Wales xiv
     University of Siena xiv
     University of Tokyo xiv
- values
     Confucian 140, 295–296, 303
     role in economic growth and governance 9–11
     Singapore debate over Asian vs. Western 295 Western Protestant ethic 11
     see also Asian values
- Veneroso, F. 72
 Venezuela 26
 Vietnam conflict 299
Vision 2020 [Malaysia] 58, 253–254
- Wade, Robert 53, 54, 72
 Wang Yong-ching [Taiwan] 130
 Weingast, Barry 54
 Western Europe
     consociationalism in 94–97
     mass parties of 37
     pluralistic party systems of 41
     social cleavages in countries of 93–94
     strength of bureaucracies in 85–86
- World Bank
     on competence of Filipino civil servants 193
     Filipino requests of 197
     response to 1997 crisis by 345, 346
- World Trade Organization Agreement on Textiles and Clothing 323
- WTO (World Trade Organization) 12, 69, 223