

INDEX

- 'Abbasiya theater, 207
'Abd al-Razzaq, 'Abbud, 122
'Abduh, Muhammad, 94
Abdulhamid II, Ottoman sultan
 (1876–1909), 74
Abdullah, Prince, 43
'Abid, Nazik, 127, 128, 133, 259, 275; as leader of women's movement, 95–96, 141, 256; as magazine publisher, 121;
 military rank, awarded, 120; opposed to patriotic motherhood, 146; and suffrage campaign, 118, 120, 121, 144;
 and women's labor, 157
Abu al-Lam', Najla, 121, 215
Abu Rashid, Salima, 120
Abu Salih, Shaykh Muhammad, 273–274
"Adam and Eve," 203
Adib Pasha, 123
'Aflaq, Michel, 265
Agriculture: Cereals (previously Wheat)
 Office, 235; French policy, 45, 54, 62,
 80–81; in Ottoman era, 74; poor wartime yields, 19–21, 233; after World War I, 31, 34, 36, 80–81;
 in World War II, 235–36
'Aisha, 124, 275–76
'Ajamy, Mary, 153; disillusionment of,
 144, 216; as leader of women's movement, 95–97, 120–21, 138–139; as publisher of The Bride, 120, 129–30,
 143, 214, 215; and suffrage campaign,
 118, 120–22, 125
al-'Ajlani, Munir, 193
'Alawis, 12, 236, 251; autonomous state of,
 in Syria, 11, 44, 45, 64; community (millet) and beliefs of, 10–11, 150; and conversion scandal, 82; as impoverished peasants, 35, 82; revolt against the French, 43
Aleppo, 39, 201, 250, 265; anti-French protests and revolts, 43, 66, 185, 187,
 190; Islamic populism in, 105–7, 263,
 266–67, 273–74, 277; labor movement in, 94, 102; population of, 31; urban planning of, 66, 176; World War I's impact on, 21, 80; proto-fascist movements in, 192, 194
Aleppo, 211
Alexandretta, 84, 148, 191
Algeria, 80, 185, 245
Algiers, 249, 252, 254
Alif Ba', 139, 212, 213, 272
al-Amali, 195, 218
America and Americans, see
 United States
American Junior College for Women,
 253–54
American University of Beirut, 20, 85,

- 146, 178, 192; women's enrollment at, 88, 97
- Amin, Qassim, 132–33, 134
- 'Ammun, Charles Da'ud, 249
- Anderson, Benedict, 173*n*4, 212*n*1
- Antonius, George, 21, 23
- Arab Academy, 97, 133
- Arab Girl's Awakening Society, see Women's groups
- Arab League, 272, 274
- Arab nationalism, Arabism and Pan-Arabism, see Nationalism
- Arab Revolt, 15, 22, 41, 46, 69
- 'Araqtinji, Yusuf, 77, 166
- 'Arida, Antoine, 168; campaign against public morality, 149–50, 204; and November 1943 crisis, 254, 256, 258–59
- al-'Aris, Mustafa, 159, 277–278
- Armenian Girl*, 215
- Armenians, 47, 75; and Communist Party, 101, 102; as minority community, 10, 11; and politics, 41, 123, 254; as World War I refugees and victims, 11, 27, 31–33, 76
- Army of the Levant, see Military, French
- Arslan, Amir Fu'ad, 123
- Arslan, Shakib, 32, 94
- Artisans, see Labor
- Arwad, island of, 21
- Ashmar, Shaykh Muhammad, 262–63, 265, 268, 274, 276
- L'Asie française*, 62
- Asmahan, see Amal al-Atrash
- Association for the Defense of the Race, 152
- Associations (jam'iyat) and associationism, see Social movements
- Assyrian refugees, 31
- Atlantic Charter, 253–54
- al-Atrash, Amal, 209, 240, 269
- al-Atrash, Prince Hasan, 209
- al-Atrash, Sultan, 43, 46, 48, 56
- Automobiles and motor vehicles, 80, 181, 186
- Avenue des Français (Beirut), 178, 179
- al-Ayyam*, 212
- al-Ayyubi, 'Ata, Syrian head of state (1943), 238
- al-Azhar college (Cairo), 131, 140
- 'Azm family, 55
- 'Azm Palace, 178
- al-'Azm, Mme Haqqi Bey, 85
- al-'Azm, Khalid, Syrian head of state (1941–42), 230, 242, 250
- al-'Azma, Yusuf, 43, 120
- 'Azraq, 'Abd al-Wahhab, 251
- 'Azuri, Nasri Bey, 122
- Bakdash, Khalid, 102, 159, 243, 250, 278
- Bakeries and bread, 20; poor hygiene of, 97, 141, 229; rationing and subsidies to poor, 230, 236, 239, 264, 265; riots and hunger marches, 21, 26, 95, 230, 233–34, 236–37
- Balfour, Lord, 15, 129
- Banque de Syrie et du Liban, 81
- Barada River, 133, 176
- Barakat, Subhi, 185
- al-Barazi, Hayat al-Mu'ayyad, 139, 144
- al-Barazi, Husni, Syrian prime minister (1942–43), 235, 236
- al-Barudi, Fakhri, 97, 201; as National Bloc leader, 107, 158, 192; and women's rights, 188–90, 196, 269
- al-Bashir*, 92, 202–203, 213
- Bathhouses, 175–76
- Ba'thist revolution in Syria, 5, 212, 289
- Ba'th Party, 265
- Bayhum, 'Adila, see al-Jaza'iri, 'Adila Bayhum
- Bayhum, Muhammad Jamil, 133, 141, 146, 290
- Bayhum family, 55, 99

- Bayrut*, 211, 212, 213, 244; fascist sympathies of, 193, 195; and women's press images, 195, 204, 217, 221–22, 240
- Beirut, 39, 127, 249, 254; city budget of, 65; economic role of, 36, 62, 80; famine's impact on, 20; French presence in, 178; labor movement in, 101–2, 158–59, 280; population of, 20, 31; proto-fascists in, 191–96; religious movements in, 106, 109, 134–36, 149, 202–4, 210; urban planning in, 65, 176–78; women's movement in, 95–98
- Bekaa Valley, 46, 69, 122, 123, 253
- Berlin Olympics (1936), 193
- Beynet, Paul Etienne, delegate general (1944–1946), 261
- Bint-Jubayl, 190
- Bkerke, 254
- Bokova, Lenka, 56
- Bonnard, Abel, 126
- The Boudoir*, 121, 130, 215
- Bourgeoisie, petty, 10, 105, 262
- Bourgeoisie, urban and landowning, 10, 127, 213, 223, 285, 289; and colonial welfare state, 167–69, 245; emergence of, 30; and Islamic populists, 266, 276; and labor movement, 160, 237, 279–80; political divisions among, 16, 41, 52, 55, 236, 249–250, 282; political unity as ruling class, 227, 250–252, 279–281; prosperity and new lifestyles of, 28–29, 36–37, 177–80, 245, 269; as social base of women's movement, 93, 99–100, 154, 162; see also Landowners; Mediating elites; Nationalist movement
- Bread riots, see Bakeries and bread
- Briand, Aristide, 22, 44
- The Bride*, 120, 143, 153; demise of, 215, 216; and patriotic motherhood, 143; on suffrage, 118, 122, 214
- Bshamun, 253
- Budgets, state, 64–65, 78–79, 101, 185; and colonial welfare state, 156–57, 164–68, 243–244; cuts during depression, 101, 156–57, 165–66, 185; limited by French policy, 43, 59, 60, 61, 63, 168; postcolonial, 283; in World War II, 232, 236, 243–44
- al-Bukhari, Nasuhi, 262
- al-Bukhari, Rafiq, 262, 265, 269
- Bureaucracy, French: as agent of civilizing mission, 58–59, 66; dual administration, 64; under Free French, 232; and gender, 67–68; number of French employed, 49, 63, 64; Ottoman legacy, 60, 64, 74, 75, 93; as pillar of French rule, 42, 65–66; see also Civil service; High Commission
- Burj Square (Place des Canons), 177, 198, 257
- Bustros, Eveline, 98, 99, 148; and November 1943 crisis, 256, 257, 258, 259
- Cafes, 92, 119, 177, 179, 182; and early cinema, 197, 198, 205; as immoral spaces, 105, 149, 198, 200; as male spaces, 175–76, 195, 205
- Cairo, 20, 22, 106, 181, 216, 232; women's conferences in, 148, 272–74
- de Caix, Robert, 62
- Caliphate, 41
- Capucins, see Missionaries
- Carbillet, Captain, 43–44, 46
- Catholic Church and Catholics, 45, 68, 81, 126, 149, 254; and colonial welfare state, 240, 245; Conference of Patriarchs, 15; and education, 282–283; and film censorship, 202–4; population of, 11; Vatican (Rome), 42, 45, 67, 149, 152
- Catholic Youth Circle, see Youth movements
- Catroux, Georges, delegate general (1941–43), 225–27, 232; and 1943 elec-

- tions, 232–33, 236–37, 246, 249; and Cereals Office, 235–36; and colonial welfare state, 235–38, 243, 246; efforts to impose direct rule, 235–38; and November 1943 crisis, 252, 254
- Catrux, Mme Georges, 240, 241, 263
- Censuses, see Lebanon; Population
- Chamber of Commerce and Industry, 278
- Chamoun, Camille, Lebanese president (1952–58), 258, 289
- Chanteur, Father Claude, 231, 232
- Chaplin, Charlie, 198
- Charities, Islamic, see Islamic populism; Religious endowments
- Charities, women's: as agents of French propaganda, 85, 95, 240; charity balls and fundraisers, 85, 99–100, 179, 207, 262–63, 268; as dominant form of women's activism, 96, 99–100, 142, 144–46, 162; Drop of Milk (Goutte de Lait), 85, 95, 179, 262–64; Flower of Charity, 93; Islamic Orphanage, 96; Orthodox Society of Compassion for Ladies, 96; Red Cross, 84–85, 89, 95, 179, 240; Sisters of Love, 93; in World War I, 26, 37, 95; in World War II, 238; see also Women's movement
- Chatterjee, Partha, 223–24
- Chiha, Michel, 81, 250
- Christians, 109, 249; 1860 massacres of, 11, 27, 45, 69; and Syrian Revolt, 50; and famine in World War I, 16, 27–28; privileges of, under French, 11, 79–81, 151; support for French, 21, 23, 27–28, 39, 192, 254; as targets of missionary activity, 75, 79; see also Armenians; Catholic Church; Greek Orthodox; Maronite Church; Maronites
- Christian Women's Club, see Women's groups
- Churches: as assembly spaces, 176, 254; as sectarian targets, 192, 267; as sponsors of charities, 96, 145
- Cinema, cinemas, movie theaters, 179, 197–210, 213; as assembly space, 92, 199–200, 234; development of, 199–197, 201; as propaganda, 199–201, 208, 209; state regulation and censorship of, 197, 200–202, 231, 279; as threat to patriarchal family, 209–10; as volatile spaces, 149, 198–200; women's attendance at, 197, 204–8, 224, 231, 262–69, 273; women's images in, 202–4, 206–7, 209–10, 244–45
- Cinema Empire, 199
- Circassians, 47, 82
- Citizenship and citizens: definitions of, 1–3, 72, 113; bargaining to set terms of, 1–7, 16–17, 50–57, 66–70, 155–70, 244–81, 287–89; gendered representations of, 24–27, 247–48, 269; gendered terms of, 66–70, 115–16, 169–70, 227; heterogeneity of, 286–87; motherhood as basis of women's, 24–27, 142–45, 240; military service as prerequisite, 25–27, 118, 124, 259, 275; nationality laws and identity cards, 68, 186–87, 189, 219; in Ottoman era, 73–76; paternalistic hierarchy of, 53–56, 66–70, 73–90, 169–70, 247–48; postcolonial, 3, 227, 271–90; rights (civil, political and social) of, 6–7, 68, 113–16, 163–70, 243–46, 259–61, 268–89; and state social policy, 71–72, 77–90, 163–69, 244, 281–84; women's claims to full rights of, 98–99, 120–24, 127–32, 141–47, 256–61, 272–76; see also Civic order; Constitutions; Welfare state, colonial
- Civic order: competing models of, 6, 17, 41, 222; definition of, 1, 16–17, 173; establishment of colonial —, 50–70; gender as site of conflict in, 3–7,

- 115–16, 171–74, 183, 196, 227, 247–48, 266–70, 287–90; legal boundaries of, 7, 68, 113–14, 142, 169–170; paternalistic pillars of, 5–7, 66–70, 73–90, 113–16, 148–54, 171–74, 223–24, 281–90; paternal-republican tensions in, 66–70, 113–16, 169–70, 285–90; polarization of, 169, 227, 244–46, 266; post-colonial, 244, 271–90; role of press in, 213–14; as shaped by state social policy, 73–90, 155–70, 244–47; spatial boundaries of, 171–24, 289; subaltern groups' challenge of, 91–111, 155–70, 225–46, 252–70, 272–81; transformation of, in World War II, 243–46, 277–84; see also Citizenship; Democracy; Paternalism; Paternal republicanism; Public space; Republicanism; Welfare state, colonial
- Civilizing mission, French, see Colonialism, French
- Civil service and civil servants, local: employment in, 49, 64, 78, 81, 164, 271; and Islamic populists, 264, 266–67; and new middle class, 10, 101; strikes by, 101, 156, 157; unequal job access in, 81–82, 251, 256; wages of, 82, 157, 237, 243, 278; women in, 122–23, 239, 283; see also Bureaucracy, French
- Class, social: as basis of new social movements, 16, 35, 111, 162; as basis of political divisions, 104, 158–62, 209, 238, 244–45, 265, 277–81; and colonial welfare state, 167–169; consciousness of, 29–30, 244, 285; and gender attitudes, 35–36, 99, 136–38; and impact of World War I, 28–30, 33; structural transformation of, 10, 30, 34, 36; and urban boundaries, 175, 182, 212–14; see also Bourgeoisie; Labor movement; Mediating elites; Peasants; Workers
- Clothing: European fashions in, 117, 136, 138, 180–81; politicization of, 128–29, 132, 136, 138; shortage of, 229; state regulations on, 117, 129; see also Veiling and seclusion, women's
- Coffeeshouses— see Cafes
- Colonialism, French: civilizing mission, 53, 58–66, 91, 121, 188, 200, 208; colonial lobby, 62, 80; concessionary companies, 60–63, 66, 83, 155, 158, 164, 232, 261, 279; French ambivalence about, 4, 49, 62, 63; methods of rule, 44; strategic goals of, 163, 185, 225–26, 231–32; see also France; High Commission; Lyon; Mandate for Syria and Lebanon; Paternalism; State(s), mandatory
- Colonial welfare state, see Welfare state, colonial
- Committee for the Defense of Lebanese Working Women, see Women's groups
- Committee for Indigenous Schools, see Islamic populist groups
- Common Interests administration, see State(s), mandatory
- Communications, 256; expansion of, 65, 181; fostering broader associationalism, 92; radio and Radio-Levant, 61, 181, 189, 199, 213, 230, 253; telephones and telegraph, 61, 62, 89, 176, 181; see also Press; Transportation
- Communist Party: and 1935–1935 mass protests, 158–59; arabization of, 102; arrests of leaders, 229; democratic agenda of, 102, 160–61, 234, 278, 280, 286; in elections, 102, 249–50; emergence of, 29, 101; and fascism, 194, 234, 241, 278–79; and French Communists, 102; and Islamic populists, 243, 265, 276–77, 289; and labor movement, 6, 158; Lebanese People's Party, 100–101; mobilization in World War

- II, 230, 254; nationalism of, 102; and nationalist elites, 249–50, 251; publications of, 213–14, 217, 234; rallies, 200, 234, 237, 243, 278; recruitment and membership of, 102, 234; split into Lebanese and Syrian parties, 278; and welfare state, 234, 278; and women's rights, 102, 161–62, 241–43; women's wing of, 157, 195–96, 241, 280; see also Bakdash, Khalid; Labor movement; Workers; Workers, women
- Concessionary companies, see Colonialism, French
- Conferences, women's, 100, 143–44, 154; Arab Women's Conference (Cairo 1944), 272–74, 276; Eastern Women's conference (Damascus 1930), 98, 143–44, 203; Eastern Women's conference (Tehran 1932), 138, 143, 149; Eastern Women's Conference for the Defense of Palestine (1938), 148, 272; honoring European feminists (Damascus 1935), 138, 144; International Alliance of Women, (Istanbul 1935), 139; Women's Union in Syria and Lebanon (Beirut), 143 (1927); 98, 148–49 (1928); 137, 143, 145 (1930)
- Congress of Catholic Youth, see Youth movements
- Congress of Syrian Farmers, 235
- Constitutional Bloc, 148, 236–37, 279; electoral victories of, 159, 249; and women's movement, 142, 250–51, 256–61, 275–76; see also al-Khuri, Bishara
- Constitutions and constitutional government: adoption of, 50–57; demands to reform, 252–53; French influence on, 53; gender and, 56–57, 186; and independence, 272; Ottoman precedents, 53; reinstatement of, 159, 235, 237; secularism and, 50–52, 55; suspensions of, 107, 156, 174, 184–87, 232; see also country listings
- Cooper, Gary, 198, 205
- Couland, Jacques, 3, 281
- Crisis of paternity, see Paternity, crisis of
- Crystal Cinema, 200
- Curie, Marie, 125
- Dabbas, Charles, Lebanese president (1926–34), 51, 201
- al-Dabbur*, 217, 220, 221, 241, 247–48
- Daghestani, Kazem, 180
- Damascus: anti-French protests in, 128, 152–53, 156–57, 184–90, 275; capital of Syria, 45; Communist and labor movements in, 103, 159–60, 238, 241–42, 250, 278; French occupation of, 39–40; impact of famine on, 20; Islamic populists in, 105–7, 136, 234, 261–70, 276–77; population of, 31; proto-fascists in, 191–96; in Syrian Revolt, 46; urban planning of, 65–66, 176–78; women's movement in, 95–97, 233–34, 241–42, 275
- Damascus Union of Labor Syndicates, 159
- Dammus, Shibl, 123
- “Danton,” 199
- al-Daqr, ‘Ali, 105
- al-Daqr, Muhammad, 105
- Darien, Archbishop Joseph, 22
- Darwaza, ‘Izzat, 120
- Darwishiya quarter (Damascus), 186
- Dawhat al-adab, see Women's groups, Tree of Culture
- The Dawn*, 121, 215
- Dayr al-Zur, 192
- DeMille, Cecil B., 203
- Democracy and democratic republicanism, 13, 72, 253; Communist and labor appeals for, 102, 103, 111, 156, 160, 253, 281; and constitutions, 50, 53; defini-

- tion of, 41, 41*n*7; French promises of, 232; as opposed to paternal republicanism, 6, 41, 41*n*7, 50, 247–49; post-colonial hindrance of, 271–72, 281, 284; women's appeals for, 41, 111, 132, 234, 259
- Demonstrations, boycotts and general strikes: against constitutional suspensions, 185, 187; against French concessionary companies, 66, 155, 156; Lebanese uprisings of 1935–36, 158–59, 190, 193; for national army and French evacuation, 275; in November 1943 crisis, 253–55; against personal status law reform, 152–53, 155, 191, 207; preceding 1943 elections, 236–37; Syrian general strike (1936), 107, 155, 159, 185, 190; in Syria's May 1944 crisis, 261–63; against tobacco monopoly, 158; see also Bakeries and bread; Demonstrations, women's; Islamic populism; Labor movement, strikes
- Demonstrations, women's, 144, 154, 188; for French evacuation, 275; for nationalist causes, 122, 128, 129, 147, 148, 186–91; hunger marches in wartime, 26, 95, 233–34; in November 1943 crisis, 256–59; during Syrian Revolt, 48, 124; against veiling, 128, 129, 136
- Dentz, Henri, high commissioner (1940–41), 230–31, 232
- Deringil, Selim, 75
- D.H.P railway (Damas-Hama et Prolongements), 61, 100–101
- Dimashq*, 166, 217, 218–19
- Dimashqiya, Julia, 99; as leader of women's movement, 95–97; as publisher of The New Woman, 97, 121–22, 129, 143, 214, 215–16; and suffrage campaign, 121–24, 144
- Drop of Milk (Goutte de Lait) society, see Charities, women's
- Druze, 82, 94, 236, 251; community (millet) and beliefs of, 10–11, 133, 150; French relations with, 40, 43–44, 46, 64, 209; and Lebanese civil war, 5, 11; and May 1944 crisis, 263–64; and November 1943 crisis, 253; in Syrian Revolt, 43, 46, 48, 50; tribal autonomy of, in Syria, 43–44, 45, 287; women, 128, 209, 259; see also Jabal Druze
- The East*, 211
- East-West dichotomy: ideological constructions of, 8; in cinema, 201; in Islamic reformism, 103–4, 106, 109–10; in suffrage debate, 120, 126; in veiling debate, 129, 131–32, 134, 136, 138–40, 187
- Les Echos*, 145, 146, 147, 171, 213, 217, 221
- Economic Union of Syria, 62
- Economy and economic conditions: crisis in World War II, 229–30, 231, 233–34; depreciation of franc, 43, 63, 157, 159, 216; dislocation after World War I, 3, 80; European imperialism, effect of, 30, 62, 94, 176, 178–81, 232; expansion before World War I, 30; French policy on, 45, 46, 80–81, 158, 229, 232–38; industrialization, 10, 34–35, 81, 83, 101, 156, 238–239, 245, 279; promotion of national economy and industry, 123–24, 158, 162, 164, 193, 279; wartime inflation, 20–21, 25, 28–29, 230, 233, 237; world depression, 81, 107, 155–56; see also Agriculture; Budgets, state; Labor; Taxes; Welfare state, colonial
- L'Ecran*, 204, 231
- Eddé, Antoine, 27
- Eddé, Emile, Lebanese prime minister (1929–30) and president (1936–1941),

- 193, 213, 230, 249; appointed head of state (1943), 253; elected president (1936), 147, 159, 201; and Maronite Church, 150; and November 1943 crisis, 253, 254, 257; and school closures, 166; and women's movement, 122, 147, 151, 162
- Edib, Halide, 20, 32
- Education: budgets, 79–80, 164, 166–67; constitutional guarantees for, 51, 52, 145; enrollments, 78–79, 87–88, 166–67, 243, 282–83; establishment of state system, 60–61, 62; under Faysal, 76; and French civilizing mission, 60–61, 79–80, 109–10, 79–80; French curriculum and control, 78, 96, 105–6, 108, 166, 282–83; French subsidies to Christian schools, 54, 60, 64, 79–80, 167–68; League of Nations' guarantees for, 58; in Ottoman era, 74–75, 87–88; postcolonial reforms of, 282–83; as precondition of democracy, 166; private and religious schools, 60–61, 79–80, 168, 283; shortage and overcrowding, 106, 166; state policy on, 3, 78–80, 282–83; unequal access to, 74, 79–80, 166; workers' technical, 89–90, 157, 166; see also Education, Islamic and women's; Missionaries; Welfare state, colonial
- Education, Islamic: Islamic College of Beirut, 134; Islamic populists' schools, 105–6; Maqasid foundation, 93, 108, 109, 260; Qur'anic schools, 79, 105
- Education, women's: attitudes toward, 36, 87–88, 122, 132, 220, 276; and citizenship rights, 119, 144; constitutional guarantee of, 145; enrollments, 87–90, 195, 284; and Islamic populists, 105, 109–10; medical training, 89; in Ottoman and Faysal eras, 74–76, 87–88; shortage of schools, 87–89, 123, 141, 166; teachers' colleges, 89, 199; women's private and nationalist schools, 96–97
- Egypt, 61, 64, 260, 290; films from, 199, 201, 206, 279; unveiling in, 129, 139–40; women's magazines from, 121, 133, 216; women's movement in, 8, 99, 118, 130, 146, 214
- Elections and electoral system: 1943 election campaign, 236–38, 243–46, 248–52, 265; clientelism in, 249–50; French rigging of, 45, 52, 184, 186; laws concerning, 45, 51–53, 120, 123, 125–26, 289; in Lebanon 147, 159 (1936); 148 (1937); 248–252 (1943); postponed, 53, 232; in Syria, 51–52, 136, 138, 141, 147 (1928); 53, 184–85 (1931); 148, 159 (1936); 248–252 (1943); two-stage process, 53, 250; see also Suffrage
- Electricity, 61, 179, 181
- Eliot, George, 125
- Empire cinema, 262
- Encouragement of Lebanese Industry Society, see Women's groups
- L'Equipe, see Youth movements
- The Euphrates*, 212
- al-Fadl, Fadl Bey, 122
- The False Warrior*, 126
- Family and households: disruption of, in World War I, 5, 24–25, 30–37, 285–86; economic strategies of, 34–36, 238–39, 244–45; female roles in, 6, 16, 31–37, 68, 161, 180, 189, 215, 219–21, 238–43; honor of, 19, 180, 185, 191, 221, 223, 241, 257; lifestyle changes among elites, 36–37, 177–80; male authority in, 6, 16, 32–38, 68, 99, 189, 210, 219, 287; male breadwinner of, 35, 239–41, 287; patriarchal bargain, 38, 288*n*58; as political metaphor, 39–40, 195, 230–31, 243, 255, 261; pro-natalism, 152, 240;

- structure and size, 31, 36–37, 86, 145;
as target of public policy, 71, 84–87, 141–45, 217, 238–45, 267; see also
Health, public; Marriage; Motherhood; Paternalism
- Famine: fears of, in World War II, 225, 233–34; memories of, 24–30; and Syrian Revolt, 80; as a weapon of war, 21–22; during World War I (safir barlik), 15, 19–22
- Fascism, 193–195, 218; see also Mussolini;
Nazis and Nazism; Youth movements
- al-Fatat, 119
- Faysal Club, 265
- Faysal ibn al-Husayn, Prince (later King)
(1918–20): and Arab Revolt, 15, 16;
populist opposition to, 119, 151, 202;
and women's movement, 95, 117–20,
128; see also Syria
- First World War, see World War I
- "The Fortieth Door," 203
- Fragments of Memory*, 33
- France: Free French government, 225–27,
231–33, 252; foreign ministry, 22, 54,
60–61, 63, 64, 67, 78, 199–200, 211;
imposition of rule, 6, 16, 39; parliament, 62, 63, 153, 163; Popular Front,
102, 159, 163, 167; Third Republic, 53,
89; Vichy government, 226, 230–31,
232, 240; withdrawal, 271; see also Colonialism, French; High Commission; Mandate for Syria and Lebanon;
Military, French; State(s), mandatory
- Free French, see France
- French Officers' Club (Damascus), 177, 262
- French Revolution, 199, 222, 242; invoked
in political debate, 52, 56, 121, 132, 160, 163, 248, 254
- Furayha, Anis, 19
- Furn al-Shubbak, 280
- The Future*, 215
- Gamelin, General, 61
- de Gaulle, Charles, 199–200, 226, 232, 246, 253
- De Gaulle Park, 239–40
- Gelvin, James, 41n6
- Gender: definition and method of analysis of, 3–5; anxiety about identity and roles of, 3, 16, 24–25, 35–37,
47–49, 171–74, 217–24, 240–43, 257,
287–88; and civil rights, 127–54, 174, 209–10, 224, 241–42, 288; hierarchy of as pillar of paternalism, 3, 66–68,
84–90, 189–90; and political rights, 117–26, 259–61, 272–76, 288; pacts or bargains based on, 7, 9, 66–70, 150–54, 260, 268–70, 287–90; and public space, 171–224, 256–70, 289; as site of conflict and compromise in civic order, 4–7, 148–53, 169–74,
185–90, 202–10, 217–24, 257–70,
287–90; and social rights, 84–90,
161–63, 168–69, 238–43, 281, 283–84,
288; in Syrian Revolt, 47–50; see also Citizenship; Civic order; Family and households; Motherhood; Patriotic Motherhood; Women's movement;
Workers; Workers, women
- General Security police (Sûreté générale), 63, 188, 200–201, 206, 253, 261
- Germany and Germans, 63, 188, 200, 201;
influence on youth movements, 191,
193; and Ottoman alliance, 15, 21; in World War II, 226, 229, 231, 234; see also Nazis and Nazism
- Ghalayini, Shaykh Mustafa, 134–35, 138
- al-Gharra, see Islamic populist groups
- al-Ghuta (orchards around Damascus),
46, 65–66, 124, 162, 176
- Gilsenan, Michael, 29
- Girl of Lebanon*, 120
- Girl of the East*, 216

- Gouraud, Henri, high commissioner (1919–22), 16, 39, 59; and civilizing mission, 63, 66; as founding father, 16, 39–40, 42, 255; methods of rule, 44; opposition to labor unions, 83; organization of High Commission, 62–63; and religious interests, 42, 44, 202, 283
- Grand Serail, see Serail
- Great Britain: in World War I, 22, 39; in World War II, 225, 230, 271
- Great War, see World War I
- Greek Orthodox, 81, 99, 123, 254, 259; community (millet) and beliefs, 11, 150; and opposition to French mandate, 40, 55, 150
- Habermas, Jürgen, 173
- Hachette, Jeanne, 188
- Haddad, Habuba, 97, 216
- al-Haffar, Lutfi, 180, 263, 269
- al-Hafiz, Thuraya, 96, 98, 147, 242, 268
- Hama, 21, 46, 86, 188, 250; campaign against female moviegoers in, 205–7; Communists and labor movement in, 165, 276; and Islamic populism, 105, 106, 276; opposition to women's movement in, 118, 133, 265; women's movement in, 120, 242, 265, 268, 275; youth movements in, 192, 194
- Hamada, Nur, 98, 148, 157; and patriotic motherhood, 144; and personal status law reform, 141, 151
- Hamidiya market (Damascus), 136, 177, 192
- Hananu, Ibrahim, 43, 191; as National Bloc leader, 52, 55, 185
- Hanna, Abdullah, 3
- al-Haris*, 183, 217
- al-Hasani, Shaykh Badr al-Din, 131
- al-Hasani, Shaykh Muhammad Taj al-Din, Syrian prime minister (1928–31, 1934–36) and president (1941–43), 131, 232, 249, 252; and 1936 general strike, 190; and colonial welfare state, 158, 235–36, 238; and constituent assembly, 52, 55; and women's movement, 136, 138–39, 147, 242
- Hashemite dynasty, 41, 52; see also Faysal ibn al-Husayn; Husayn, Sharif
- Hawran, 19, 43, 263, 265
- Hawrani, Akram, 5, 250
- Hayward, Susan, 205
- Health, public: abortion and birth control, 37, 240; budgets, 78, 164–65; criticism of/demands for, 77–78, 86, 165–66, 278; epidemics, 61, 77–78, 165; expansion of, 61, 62, 77, 164–66, 182, 230; in Faysal's government, 76; infant mortality, 30, 84, 86, 131, 164, 233; League of Nations' guarantees for, 58; maternity care, 86–87, 165; missionaries' role in, 60–61, 78, 85, 164; in Ottoman era, 74–75; paternalism of, 85, 87; Pharmaceutical Office, 243; prison hygiene, 97; regulation of prostitution, 86–87, 97; women as clients of, 85–86, 284; workplace safety, 157, 160, 165, 243; see also Charities, women's; Missionaries; Welfare state, colonial
- Helleu, Jean, delegate general (1943), 252–253, 261
- al-Hidaya, see Islamic populist groups
- High Commission (later Delegation General), 50, 132, 207; establishment at Beirut, 58, 62–63; constitutional powers of, 51, 53; and film censorship, 200–201, 203, 207–9; labor policy of, 156–59, 237–40; methods of rule, 44–45, 226, 231–33, 246; renamed Delegation General, 232; social policy of, 62–66, 77–79, 84–90, 163–69, 235–46; Social Section, 235, 237; see also individual high commissioners

- Hijaz railway station, 42, 177
 al-Hilu, Farajallah, 278
 "His Girl Friday," 244–45
 Hitler, Adolf, 191, 192, 218, 232
 Hitler Youth, 195
 Homs, 101, 187; and Islamic populism, 103, 105, 106, 206, 243, 263; proto-fascists in, 192; women's movement in, 93, 215
 Hotel Royal, 205
 Hotels, 36, 179; as assembly spaces, 179, 182, 234, 266; see also Kawkab, Orient Palace, Royal, Victoria hotels
 Hourani, Albert, 48; quoted, 210, 271
 Households, see Family and households
 Hunger marches, see Bakeries and bread
 Hunt, Lynn, 222
 Husayn, Sharif, of Mecca, 15, 22, 23
 al-Husri, Sati', 282
- Ibrahim, Imilie Faris, 157, 257; as writer for al-Tariq, 217, 259
 Ibrahim, Warda Butrus, 280
 Independence: achievement of, 226, 247, 252–54, 261, 271; false promises of, 58, 232; mass protests for, 155, 158–60, 163, 190–91, 253–54; treaty negotiations, 107, 147–48, 153, 185, 192, 208
 India, 122, 142, 223–24
 Industrialization, see Economy and economic conditions
 Inflation, see Economy and economic conditions
 "The Innocent Victim," 202, 207, 209
 "Insubordinate Woman," 201
 International Labor Organization, 100, 157
 Iraq, 64, 231, 285, 290; economic links with, severed, 80, 230
 Iron Shirts, see Youth movements
 Islamic College of Beirut, see Education, Islamic Islamic law (shari'a): development and reform of, 8, 106, 110, 114; Mecelle code, 114; women as scholars of, 127, 133, 134–35; and women's citizenship, 118–19, 123–26, 127–36; and women's veiling, 118–19, 127–28, 130–37, 140; see also Law and judiciary; Personal status law; Islamic populism; Salafiya movement; Ulama
 Islamic populism: attitudes toward the state, 107–8, 136, 245, 266–67, 276–77; charities of, 104, 106, 107, 242; and Communist Party, 243, 276–77, 288; and education, 105–6, 109–10, 149, 168, 178; emergence of, 103–11; and labor movement, 161–62; and May 1944 crisis, 261–70; nationalism of, 106–7; and nationalist elites, 103–4, 108–9, 136, 138, 251–52, 264–70; paternalism of, 109–11; and personal status law reform, 149, 152–53, 274; and petty bourgeoisie, 105, 262; and proto-fascists, 194, 206; and public morality, 105, 149, 161, 252, 262, 265–70; and Salafiya movement, 103–4, 107–9, 153; and strikes in World War II, 230; and Sufism, 104, 105; and ulama, 103, 105, 107–9, 274; unification of groups, 234, 277; and violence against women, 172, 262, 264; and women moviegoers, 205–10, 262, 273; and women's suffrage, 119, 274; women's sympathy for, 138; and women's veiling and seclusion, 109–10, 136–39, 219, 242, 261–69; see also Islamic populist groups; Salafiya movement
 Islamic populist groups: Committee for Indigenous Schools, 149; al-Gharra, 105, 139, 207, 242, 245, 251, 252, 262–70, 277; al-Hidaya, 105, 206; League of Modesty, 138; Muslim Youth, 106, 206; Party of God, 105; Society for Piety

- and Morals, 106; Society of Ulama, 108, 153, 249, 265; Syrian Muslim Brotherhood, 106, 234, 277; al-Tamad-dun, 105, 107, 108, 264, 265, 277; Youth of Muhammad, 106, 108, 251, 264, 276, 277
- Istanbul, 22, 139, 147, 181, 211
- al-Istiqbal*, 213
- al-Istiqlal*, 136
- Italy, 79, 195, 200, 201
- Jabal (Mount) Druze, 11, 33, 209; in Syrian Revolt, 43, 46
- al-Jabiri, Sa'dallah, Syrian prime minister (1943–44, 1945–46), 55, 250, 274; and May 1944 crisis, 263–69; and women's rights, 118–19, 268–69
- al-Jabiri, Shafiq, 186
- Jack the Ripper, 223
- Janak Kala'a cinema, 199
- Janbalat (Jumblatt), Amira Nazira, 128
- al-Jaza'iri, 'Adila Bayhum, 99, 109, 139, 263; and 1944 Arab Women's Conference, 273; as leader of women's movement, 95–96, 98, 124, 273, 275; and patriotic motherhood, 146, 148
- al-Jaza'iri, 'Aziza, 26
- Jazira, 44
- Jemal Pasha, 177; as commander of Ottoman Fourth Army, 21–34 passim, 49, 75, 76, 96; and women's war mobilization, 26, 95
- Jerusalem, 20, 61
- Jesuits, see Missionaries
- Jews and Jewish community, 109, 151, 203, 249; and Communist Party, 100–101; girls' employment among, 36; population of, 10; as target of Islamic popular protests, 107
- al-Jisr, Muhammad, 185
- Joan of Arc, 120, 188
- Joseph, Suad, 8
- Le Jour*, 213
- Journal of Men and Women Teachers*, 220
- Journal of Pedagogy and Education*, 220
- de Jouvenel, Henry, high commissioner (1925–26), 48, 53; and Lebanese constitution, 50–51
- Jubayl, 27
- Judiciary, see Law and judiciary
- Jumayyil, Pierre (Gemayel), 247; as leader of Phalanges, 192–95; and November 1943 crisis, 255–56; see also Youth movements, Phalanges libanaises
- al-Jundi, Ahmad, 23
- al-Jurjis, Da'as, 118
- Kandiyoti, Deniz, 8, 38*n*77, 289
- Karam, Jamal, 255, 259
- al-Karami, 'Abd al-Hamid, Lebanese prime minister (1945), 256, 275, 279, 283
- Kassab, Mary, 96–97
- al-Kata'ib, see Youth movements, Phalanges libanaises
- Kawkab hotel (Beirut), 166
- al-Kaylani, Shaykh 'Abd al-Qadir, 118–19, 128
- al-Kayyali, 'Abd al-Rahman, 55, 66, 158, 192
- Kemal, Mustafa (Ataturk), 41, 43, 114; and women's rights, 122, 129, 132, 289
- Khadija, 124, 220
- Khalid, Shaykh Muhammad Tawfiq, 254
- Khalid Ibn Walid mosque (Homs), 106
- Khan Maysalun, battle of, 39, 40, 43, 120, 124
- al-Khatarat*, 217
- al-Khatib, Ibrahim, 118, 119
- Khawla bint al-Azwar, 120
- Khayyatah, Rugina, 280
- al-Khazin, Shaykh Yusuf, 122, 123
- Khoury, Philip S., 2, 46, 150

- al-Khuri, Bishara, Lebanese president (1943–52), 136, 150, 213, 236, 289; arrested in coup, 253; elected president, 248–50; and labor movement, 278–79; and National Pact, 251; and women's movement, 142, 250–51, 259–60
- al-Khuri, Fa'iz, 145
- al-Khuri, Faris, Syrian prime minister (1944–45), 97, 242, 250; and labor movement, 278, 279; and May 1944 crisis, 263, 268; and women's movement, 269, 274, 275
- al-Khuri, Fu'ad, 250
- al-Khuri, Laure, 269; and November 1943 crisis, 253, 255; and women's movement, 259–60, 274
- al-Khuri, Suhail, 274
- King-Crane Commission, 40, 128
- "King of Kings," 203
- Kurd 'Ali, Muhammad, 94, 130, 133
- Kurds, 10; and May 1944 crisis, 263, 264, 265
- Labor: decline of artisanal sector, 34–35, 89, 94, 100, 101; laws, 45, 75, 83, 102, 157–60, 237–38, 278–81; market, shifts in, 33–35, 82–83; state as employer, 81–82, 237; state policy, 81–83, 89–90, 156–61, 250–51, 237–38; statistics, 34, 81, 83, 90, 101; workplace safety, 83, 102, 157; see also Communist Party; Economy and economic conditions; Labor movement; Workers; Workers, women
- Labor movement: anti-sectarianism of, 103, 161; campaign for labor codes, 156–61, 277–81; and education, 166, 278; labor federations, 159–60, 234, 278; mutual-aid societies, 237; and nationalist elites, 158–61, 237–38, 250–51; and November 1943 crisis, 253; Ottoman precedents, 94; recruitment and membership, 102–3, 160, 234; strikes and demonstrations, 83, 100–102, 156–61, 230, 233–34, 237–38; unionization, 29, 83, 100–103, 234; and women, 101–2, 161–63; see also Communist Party; Workers; Workers, women
- Ladies' and Men's Review*, 216
- Ladies' Society, see Women's groups
- Landowners or landlords, 5, 10, 237; enriched under French, 36, 54, 235–36, 245; favored in elections, 45, 250; in Syrian Revolt, 46
- Latakia, 85, 88, 109, 206, 230
- Latuf, Alfira, 215
- Law and judiciary: courts, 47, 106, 114; dual legal system, 113–15, 135, 148–54, 288–90; female lawyers, 118, 231; male privileges in, 68; mandate charter's provisions for, 58, 114, 151, 153, 155; Ottoman precedents, 75, 83, 102, 114, 150–51; reform of, 45, 65, 106, 148–53; see also Islamic law; Personal status law
- Lawrence, T.E., 15
- Lazarists, see Missionaries
- Lazreg, Marnia, 8
- League of Modesty, see Islamic populist groups
- League of National Action, see Youth movements
- League of Nations (and Permanent Mandates Commission), 2, 231; as overseer of mandate, 44, 50, 78, 163, 165, 285; petitions to, 105, 107, 109, 158, 165, 166, 187–88, 191; see also Mandate for Syria and Lebanon
- Lebanese Bar Association, 231
- Lebanese People's Party, see Communist Party
- Lebanese (Arab) Women's Union, see Women's groups

- Lebanese Women's Association, see
Women's groups
- Lebanon, state of: censuses and population distribution, 69, 82, 122, 122*n*21;
civil war, 5, 287, 289; constitution,
50–51, 123, 126, 185, 256;
constitution/parliament suspended,
156, 174, 184–85, 253; constitution/parliament reinstated, 159, 229, 237, 254;
economic policy, 279–80; elections,
147, 148, 159; flag, 40, 247, 255; Greater Lebanon created, 40, 42, 255; National Pact, 11, 251, 252, 255, 256, 260, 279,
282; November 1943 crisis, 248,
252–61; parliament, 51, 83, 147–48, 160,
250, 253, 256, 259, 260; postcolonial liberal paternalism, 282–90; Representative Council, 44, 50–51, 122–23;
Republic of Lebanon proclaimed, 51;
Service for the Protection of Manpower, 160; Social Affairs Service, 237;
see also State(s), mandatory
- Liberation of Woman, The*, 133
- Light of Damascus*, 121
- Light of Damascus society, see Women's groups
- Linder, Max, 198
- Lisan al-hal*, 24, 212
- Lisan al-talaba*, 106; quoted 219
- Literacy, 212–13, 235
- Literary salons, 97
- London, 223
- Longrigg, Stephen, 2
- Lumière brothers, 197
- Lyon: Chamber of Commerce, 62, 82–83;
Colonial Museum, 62; Silk Merchants Syndicate, 62; University of, 61; see also Colonialism, French
- “Mme Husson's Rosebush,” 203
- Magazines, women's, see
Women's magazines
- Mahmud II, Sultan, 129
- Maktab 'Anbar school, 75
- Mandate for Syria and Lebanon: charter awarded, 2, 39, 118; conditions of, 58, 62, 113–14, 126, 131, 150–51, 163, 285;
definition of, 2; historiography of period, 2–3, 9–12; loss of, 248, 254, 261, 271–72, 275, 285; violations of, alleged, 62, 108–9, 131, 135–36, 153, 163, 166, 191, 231–32; see also France; League of Nations
- Manjak mosque, 263–64
- Manset, Regis, 189
- Maqasid foundation, see
Education, Islamic
- Mardam Bey, Jamil, Syrian prime minister (1936–39), 69, 97, 193, 242; alliance with Islamic populists, 153, 208, 251, 269; fall of government, 160, 208
- Marianne, 247
- Marie Antoinette, 222
- Marja Square (Damascus), 147, 178, 179, 242; cinemas in, 198, 202, 205, 208; in May 1944 crisis, 262–66, 269; in Ottoman era, 176–77
- Markets and shops (souks): as public space, 175–76, 177, 117, 191; strikes and closures of, 174, 206, 230, 233–34, 263–64; see also Hamidiya market; Shopping
- Maronite Church, 11, 27, 114, 283; patriarch of, 42, 60, 79, 114, 168, 260; as pillar of French rule, 42, 44, 50; and public morality, 145, 149–50, 204, 209; role in Lebanese politics, 45, 50–51, 55, 150, 247, 254, 256;
see also 'Arida, Antoine; Catholic Church; Christians
- Maronites, 68, 209, 259; community and beliefs of, 11; in government and politics, 51, 55, 81, 193, 213, 234–35, 254, 256
- Marriage: age of, 37, 86, 141, 151, 273;

- civil ceremony proposed, 152–53;
demands for reforms in laws on, 37,
141, 144, 152, 242, 273; encouragement of, 152, 240–41; gender roles in, 35, 144, 215, 219–20, 241; as obstacle to female employment, 89, 90, 157, 220, 231, 284; see also Motherhood; Personal status law
- Marseille, 61
- Marshall, T. H., 113
- de Martel, Comte Damien, high commissioner (1933–38), 203, 226, 235; and Islamic populists, 109–10; and labor movement, 156, 158; social bargaining of, 163–64, 229; and women, 109–10, 187–90
- Martial law, 49, 190, 191, 229, 232, 233
- Martini, Nabih, 233
- Martinprey, Reverend de, 60
- Martyrs' squares, 25
- Maugain, M., 188–89
- Maydan quarter (Damascus), 47, 105,
208, 262–68
- Maysalun, see Khan Maysalun
- Mecca, 73, 222
- Mediating elites: challenges to power of,
16, 91–111, 155–56, 159–61, 170; clientelism and privileges of, 44, 50–57, 67–68, 72, 82–84, 164, 245; and colonial welfare state, 168–69, 245; as pillars of colonial paternalism, 1–3, 42,
65, 66–69; women as, 78, 84–85, 128,
162; see also Bourgeoisie; Landowners;
Paternalism; Religious patriarchs;
Tribal chiefs
- Mein Kampf*, 193
- Mernissi, Fatima, 209
- Middle East Supply Center (MESC), 232, 235, 236, 245, 278
- Midhat Pasha, 74, 176
- Military, French, 61, 199, 232; Army of the Levant, 49, 53, 84; and civilian repression, 49–50, 184–86, 190, 229–30, 253,
285; number of troops deployed, 49,
229; as pillar of colonial rule, 42,
49–50, 60–61, 65–66; withdrawal of,
271, 275; see also General Security
police; Special Troops
- Millets, see Religious communities
- The Mimas Tree*, 215
- Mina, Hanna, 33
- Minirva*, 135
- Minneapolis, 20
- Missionaries: Capucins, 60; educational role of, 60–61, 79–80, 63, 283; Jesuits
(Society of Jesus), 60, 62, 78, 202–3, 213, 231, 232; Lazarists, 27, 60; in Ottoman era, 74–75; as mediating elites, 59–61, 63, 77, 232; as public health agents, 60–61, 63, 78; Sisters of Charity, 78; Sisters of the Sacred Heart, 106; Sisters of St. Joseph, 78;
as target of Islamic populist protests,
105–6, 134
- Moreau, Abel, 49
- Morocco and Moroccans, 40, 44, 185
- Mosques: as assembly space, 103–4,
134–35, 254, 262–63; as male space,
134–35, 176; right to free speech in,
106; see also Khalid ibn Walid, Manjak, Sultan Selim, Tankiz, and Umayyad mosques
- Motherhood: as basis of citizenship, 24–27, 142–45, 240, 255; male control and criticism of, 24–25, 85, 87, 133, 219–20, 240–41; as political metaphor for French rule, 27, 58–59, 66, 132; as target of public policy, 70, 84–87, 131,
215, 240–41; see also Family; Marriage;
Patriotic motherhood
- Mount Lebanon, 75, 233, 235, 249, 254;
1860 massacres in, 11, 27; Administrative Council of, 41; as autonomous
Ottoman district (mutasarrifiya), 28;

- famine in, 19–20, 27; and silk industry, 34–35
- Movie theaters, see Cinemas
- Mubarak, Archbishop Ignatius, 254, 257, 258
- Mufti of Beirut, 151, 203, 258, 260; as Muslim leader of Lebanon, 109, 131, 149; relations with French, 42, 131, 254; and veiling issue, 133–34
- Muhammad, Prophet of Islam, 124, 139, 220, 240, 242; birthday celebrations of, 103–4, 178
- al-Munqari, Nadima, 216–17
- Munthir, Ibrahim, 123
- al-Muqtabas*, 130, 137, 165
- Murad, Shaykh Sa'ïd, 118, 120
- Murshid, Sulayman, 54, 82
- Musa, Da'ud, 24
- "Musketeers in the Convent," 202, 203
- Muslim Brotherhood (Egyptian), 106, 266–67
- Muslim Brotherhood, Syrian, see Islamic populist groups
- Muslim Council, see Ulama
- Muslim Girls' Club, see Women's groups
- Muslim Sporting and Literary Society (Tripoli), 205
- Muslim Youth, see Islamic populist groups
- Mussolini, Benito (Il Duce), 193, 200, 218, 220
- Nabarawi, Saiza, 129
- Nadra, 206
- al-Nahar*, 212, 213
- Nahr el-Deb, 29
- Najjada, see Youth movements
- "Napoleon," 200
- al-Naqid*, 220
- Naqqash, Alfred (Naccache), Lebanese president (1941–42), 230, 232, 236–37
- Naqqash, Mme Alfred, 240
- al-Na'sin, Shaykh Said, 206
- Nasuli, Muhi al-Din, 193, 195, 204
- National Bloc (Lebanon), 249
- National Bloc (Syria), 69, 150, 213; and 1936 general strike, 159, 190; and 1943 mobilization, 236, 238; economic congress of (1933), 158, 191–92; elected to head government, 159 (1936); 248–52 (1943); formation of, 51–52; and Islamic populists, 107, 108, 153, 207–8, 251–52, 264–70; and labor movement, 160, 279–81; and May 1944 crisis, 265–70; paternalist policies of, 54–55, 153, 180, 268–69; and sectarianism, 107, 251, 267; and strikes in World War II, 230; and women's movement, 97, 100, 142, 147, 148, 186–91, 207–8, 267–70, 275–76; and youth movements, 192–94
- National Cement Company, 250
- National identity and unity: absence at creation of states, 16, 41, 176, 247; bureaucracy's role in shaping, 65; divided by religious affinities, 27–28, 44, 50–51, 69, 115; and independence, 251–52, 254, 257; in the press, 211–12; promotion of by French, 45, 254; role of education in forming, 76, 80, 282–83
- National Guards, see Youth movements
- Nationalist movement, elite: Arab nationalism, Arabism and Pan-Arabism, 41, 69, 76, 93–94, 95, 136, 193–94, 213, 272; cleavage with Islamic populists, 9, 103–4; and colonial welfare state, 163–64, 166, 169, 236, 237, 245; emergence of in World War I, 23, 27–28; inherit rule of mandatory states, 247–70; and labor movement, 158–61, 279–81; Lebanese nationalism, 193, 213; pan-Syrianism, 192, 193, 194; and religious patriarchs, 148, 150–54,

- 251, 254, 256; and Syrian Revolt, 46, 50–53; and veiling, 136, 138, 268; women viewed as threat to nation, 25, 27, 219, 222; and women's movement, 142–53 passim, 196, 223–24, 275–276, 289; see also Demonstrations; Constitutional Bloc; National Bloc; Youth movements
- National Pact, see Lebanon
- Nazis, Nazism, 193, 195, 231, 241, 258, 259; see also Fascism; Hitler; Youth movements
- Near East Foundation, 32
- The New Life*, 216
- Newspapers, see Press
- New Syria*, 211
- The New Woman*, 97, 129, 143, 214, 215; and suffrage campaign, 121–23
- al-Nidal*, 212
- North Africa, 49, 132, 188, 245
- Northern Syria*, 212
- La Nuit syrienne*, 49
- L'Orient*, 213
- Orientalism and Orientalists, 134; see also East-West dichotomy
- Orient Palace Hotel, 179, 194, 234, 263
- Orosdi-Beck department store (Beirut), 177
- Ostrorog, Count, 207
- Ottoman Empire and Ottomans, 1, 3, 41, 128; in World War I, 15–23, 39; Tanzimat reforms in, 30, 71, 74, 92–93, 114; social policy in, 73–76, 77, 78–79, 83, 87; see also Law and judiciary; Mahmud II, Sultan; Young Turks
- Palestine, 8, 21, 75, 86, 101, 192, 285; economic ties with, 80, 230; support for Arab resistance in, 107, 129, 148, 263, 273
- Palmyra, 263
- Paramilitary groups, see Youth movements
- Party for the Defense of Unions and the Press in Syria, 102
- Party of God, see Islamic populist groups
- Paternalism: definition of, 66–67; fatherhood as leadership model, 40–42, 48, 230, 248, 255–60, 286–87; French bolstering of, 42, 53–54, 67–68, 285–86, 289; honor in politics, 47, 171, 185–91, 223–24, 257; Nazira Zayn al-Din's attack on, 127–68; Ottoman precedents, 67; pacts with and privileges of mediating elites, 3–4, 50–57, 66–70, 251; 255–60, 268–69; pillars of, 3, 67–68, 154; in the press, 213–14, 217–24; in social policy, 66, 71–72, 77–90, 163–69, 235–36; subaltern revolt against, 91–11, 155–56, 159–61, 244–45; see also Paternal Republicanism; Paternity, crisis of
- Paternal republicanism, 44, 56–57, 71–72; as opposed to democratic republicanism, 41n7; tensions between paternalism and republicanism, 7, 12–13, 53–57, 68–70, 77–84, 113–16, 243–45, 247–48, 255–61, 267–69, 285–90; see also Democracy; Paternalism; Republicanism
- Paternity, crisis of: definition and general causes of, 6–7, 15–17, 68–70, 285; climax in World War II, 226–27, 247–70; emergence in World War I, 37–38, 41, 44; and public violence, 174, 196, 222, 253; and rise of subaltern movements, 69–70, 91–92, 110–11; and Syrian revolt, 48–49, 56–57, 68–70; unresolved, 45, 224, 286–88; and women's suffrage, 113, 125–26
- Patriotic motherhood: criticism of, 146, 219, 224; maternalist ideology of, 142, 143, 240–41; roots in World War I and

- famine, 24, 27; as women's movement's strategy, 141–54, 162–63, 186, 261, 288; see also Motherhood
- Patriotic Youth, see Youth movements
- Peasants: economic hardships of, 10, 28, 33–34; under landlords' control, 12, 46, 54, 55–56, 82, 235–36; marginalized in civic order, 5, 12, 54, 250, 281; migration to cities, 5, 10, 31, 33, 104, 183, 285
- Permanent Mandates Commission, see League of Nations
- Personal status law: and citizenship, 115, 144; demands to reform, 99, 115–16, 127–54, 273, 288; development of, 114; on divorce, 8, 151; Family Law of 1917, 114, 150–51; and inheritance rights, 127, 141; on marriage, 35, 141, 152–53, 242, 273; perpetuation of, under French, 51, 114, 146; in postcolonial era, 7, 275, 288–90; property rights in, 8, 139; in Tunisia and South Yemen, 9, 290
- Pétain, Marshal, 230, 231, 232
- Phalanges libanaises, see Youth movements
- Phares, Georges, 146
- Photography of women, 25, 128, 128*n*6, 129, 137, 214, 218, 221
- Picot, François Georges-, 15, 60
- Piépape, Colonel de, 59
- Place des Canons, see Burj Square
- Ponsot, Henri, high commissioner (1926–33), 55, 63, 132; and religious schools, 79–80; and Syrian constitution, 51–53, 156
- Pope Pius XI, 45
- Popular Front, see France
- Popular List, 249
- Population: birth rates, 86; distribution by religious sect, 10–11, 82; loss during World War I, 21–23; rebound after World War I, 30–31; see also Health, public; individual country, city and sect listings
- Port of Beirut, 20, 65, 80, 81
- Press, 26, 229; censorship of, 45, 213, 279; expansion of, 212; gendering of, 211–23; paternalism of, 213–14, 217–19; as political forum, 211–14; and print community, 211–13; and veiling issue, 130–39 passim, 219; and women, 146, 213–14, 217–24, 231, 239, 244, 273, 274, 280; see also Communications; Public space and the public; Women's magazines
- Prisons and prisoners, see Health, public
- Prostitution, see Health, public and Public morality
- Proto-fascist groups, see Youth movements
- Puaux, Gabriel, high commissioner (1938–40): and personal status law reform, 152–53; and World War II, 229–30
- Public health, see Health, public
- Public morality: campaigns against prostitution, 86–87, 143, 144, 150, 204; and cinema, 198, 200, 201–10, 231, 262; rivalry for authority over, 105, 149, 182, 204, 262, 267–70; state regulations on, 182, 267; see also Public space and the public; Religious patriarchs
- Public space and the public: definition of, 172–73; class boundaries of, 177–78, 182, 266; gender boundaries of, 37, 99, 175–83 passim, 187–188, 204–210, 223–224, 256–70; as political arena, 174, 184–10, 255–60, 269; regulation of, 182, 186, 267–68; remasculinization of, 184–96, 209–10, 267–70; and sectarian relations, 175–76; women's increased presence in, 172, 179–80, 182–84, 186, 221–24, 266; women's voice in, 134–35,

- 137, 154, 214–19, 241, 288; violence in, 184–96; see also Civic order; Press; Public morality
- Public works, 61, 62, 63, 236, 283; employment in, 82, 156–58, 230, 243; see also Transportation
- al-Qabas*, 213
- Qabbani, 'Iffat, 241
- Qaddura, Ibtihaj: as leader of women's movement, 95, 96–98, 147; and November 1943 crisis, 256, 259, 275
- Qadmani, Ahmad, 119
- al-Qassab, Kamil, 153, 249, 265
- al-Qassar, Kamil, 105
- Qaz'un, Husayn Bey, 122
- Quai d'Orsay, see France, foreign ministry
- al-Qudsi, Lutfiya bint Mahmud, 32
- Qur'an, The, 107, 108, 127, 131, 132, 266, 267, 274
- Qur'anic schools, see Education, Islamic
- Qurtas, Wadad, 48, 181n28, 225 quoted
- al-Quwwatli, Shukri, Syrian president (1943–49), 230, 236, 245, 273, 280, 289; alliance with Islamic populists, 251–52, 268–70; elected president, 248–52; and May 1944 crisis, 261–70; and women's rights, 268–69, 275–76
- Radio, see Communications
- Rafeq, Abdul-Karim, 128n4
- Rape: as metaphor for colonial rule, 119, 125, 171, 185, 196; press accounts of, 221; rumors of, in Syrian Revolt, 47
- Rashaya, 253
- Ras Metn, 20
- Red Cross, see Charities, women's
- Red Star society, see Women's groups
- Religious communities (millets): French policy toward, 150–54; protected by mandate charter, 113–15, 150; in Ottoman era, 11, 108–9, 114; reorganization of, in mandate era, 108–9, 149–52; see also Armenians, 'Alawis, Catholics, Christians, Druze, Greek Orthodox, Maronite Church, Shi'is and Shi'ism, Sunnis, Ulama
- Religious conversion, 82, 152–53
- Religious endowments (waqf/awqaf), 74, 93, 96, 101, 145, 168; protests against French control of, 106, 108, 109
- Religious law, see Islamic law; Personal status law
- Religious patriarchs: challenges to power of, 45–46, 107–9, 127–36; and film censorship, 202–4, 208–9; and November 1943 crisis, 254, 256, 257–59; and personal status law reform, 150–54; political alliances and power of, 51, 115, 148, 149–54; relationship to state, 135–36, 151; and support of French mandate, 42, 44, 54, 151; and women's movement, 127–40, 145, 258–59; see also Maronite Church; Catholic Church; Ulama
- Rémy, Father, 60, 86
- Republicanism: of constitutions, 51–53; as direct colonial rule, 44–46; and ideal of fraternity, 41, 56, 67, 70, 104, 107–8, 110, 215, 222, 252, 256, 287, 288; Marianne, as symbol of, 247–48; religious opposition to, 45, 52, 126, 267–68; Rights of Man, 44, 253, 259; see also Citizenship; Constitutions; French Revolution; Paternal republicanism; Welfare state, colonial
- Le Réveil*, 126, 165
- Rex theater, 204
- Rida, Rashid, 94, 119, 121, 125, 126
- Rishani, Adalayd, 97
- Roberts, Mary Louise, 125
- Rome, 45, 149, 195
- "The Ruins of Baalbek," 201

- Russell, Rosalind, 245
 Russia, see Soviet Union
 Ryan, Mary, 223
- Sa'ada, Antun, 192, 193, 195, 235
 al-Sa'b, Afifa Fandi, 121, 215
 Sa'b, Najla, 256, 258–59
 al-Sabuni, Shaykh Ahmad, 105, 263
 al-Sa'd, Habib Pasha, Lebanese president (1934–36), 158
 Sadiq, Muhammad Sa'id, 105
 Safar barlik, see Famine
 St. Joseph University, 90, 178, 240; French Faculty of Medicine at, 60, 61, 78, 85
 Sakakini, Widad, 217, 218–19
 Saladin, 69
 Salafiya movement: decline in mandate era, 103–4, 125; ideology of Islamic reform, 93, 104; and Islamic populism, 103–4, 107–9; Ottoman-era roots in, 93–94; and women's reforms, 110, 117, 118–19, 124–25, 127, 134
 Salam, 'Anbara, 95, 118, 136–37, 141, 145, 148
 Salihya quarter (Damascus), 177, 179, 180, 186, 262, 266, 269
 San Remo conference, 118, 119
 Sarloute, Father, 60
 Sarraïl, Maurice, high commissioner (1924–25), 53, 159, 201; anti-sectarianism of, 45, 50, 79; methods of rule, 44–45, 226; and Syrian Revolt, 46, 48, 50
Sawt al-Sha'b, 213, 214, 234
 Sayigh, Salma, 95, 98, 123
 Schilcher, Linda, 21, 29
 Schools: fostering social movements, 93, 96, 104–6, 182, 195; see also Education
 Scott, Joan, 4
 Scouts and scouting movement, 106, 192, 193, 195, 214, 269
 Second World War, see World War II
- Sectarianism and sectarian relations, 11–12; and French policy, 44–46, 50–51, 65, 69, 152–53, 178; in Lebanese education, 60–61, 79–80, 168, 282–83; in Lebanese politics, 44–45, 50–51, 81, 190, 192–93, 249, 251, 256, 260; opposition to, 28, 45, 51, 103, 107, 161, 256–59; in Syrian politics, 52, 82, 107, 192, 251; in World War I, 16, 27–28
 Senegalese soldiers, 40, 185, 186, 194, 253; as targets of racial propaganda, 47, 48–49, 247–48; see also Military, French
 Serail, 177, 262, 269, 275; Grand Serail (High Commission's headquarters), 63, 177, 178, 261
 Service for the Protection of Manpower, see Lebanon al-Sha'b, 146, 213, 222
 Shaghur quarter (Damascus), 105, 180, 262, 264, 269
 Shahbandar, 'Abd al-Rahman, 122, 213, 249, 265
 Shahfa, Rose, 98, 143, 217, 218; and 1944 Arab Women's Conference, 273, 274–75; and November 1943 crisis, 256, 259
 Shakra, Mary Abdu, 215, 216
 Shalaq, Maqbula, 241–42, 243
 al-Shamali, Fu'ad, 100, 102
 Sha'rawi, Huda, 129, 140, 260, 272, 274
 Shari'a, see Islamic law; Personal status law
 Shartuni, Edward, 278
 Shaykh al-Ard, Nadida, 162, 205, 210
 Shi'is and Shi'ism: community (millet) and beliefs, 10, 149–50; economic disadvantages of, in Lebanon, 81; and Lebanese civil war, 5, 11
 Shopping, women's, 180, 220, 223–24
 Shuf region of Lebanon, 32
 al-Siba'i, Mustafa, 106, 276–77

- Siba'i, Shaykh Safa, 106
- Sidon, 81, 250, 259–60
- Singer Sewing Company, 35
- Sisters of Charity, see Missionaries
- Sisters of St. Joseph, see Missionaries
- Sisters of the Sacred Heart,
 see Missionaries
- Silk industry, see Textile industry
- Siza, Siran, 215
- Social movements: definition of, 92;
 growth of associations (jam'iyat),
 91–94, 97, 145; licensing of associations, 91–92, 143, 182, 185; mobilization in World War II, 225–27, 233; rise of mass politics, 41, 91–92, 155; see also Charities, women's; Islamic populism;
 and Labor, Nationalist, Subaltern,
 Women's and Youth movements
- Social Section, see High Commission
- Social services and policy, state: demands to expand, 155–56, 163–64, 233–38, 273,
 278; expansion of, 73, 77–79, 155,
 163–67, 243–44; and hierarchy of citizenship, 71–90, 277–84; High Commission's emphasis on, 58–66, 235–38;
 in Ottoman era, 21, 95, 73–76; paternalism of, 71–72, 77–90, 282–84;
 politicized by subaltern movements,
 91–111; uneven distribution of, 71–72,
 77–90, 168–69, 281, 283–84; and women, 84–90, 161, 238–43, 283–84;
 see also Charities, women's; Education; Health, public; Labor; Welfare state, colonial
- Society for Piety and Morals, see Islamic populist groups
- Society of Jesus (Jesuits),
 see Missionaries
- Society of Ulama, see Islamic populist groups
- Society to Stop Crime and Improve Prisons, see Women's groups
- "Song of the Heart," 206, 207
- Soviet Union, 200, 234, 241, 276
- Spears, Edward, 235, 249, 252, 257
- Special Troops, 49, 64, 82, 261, 275
- State(s), mandatory: Common Interests administration, 64, 164, 232, 235, 252, 261; creation of, 1, 5–6, 16, 39–42; governments established, 50–66; joint administration of, 59, 62–64; limits to authority of, 113–16, 130–31; local government, 64–65; see also Budgets;
 Bureaucracy; Civil servants; High
 Commission; Law and judiciary;
 Lebanon; Mandate; Military,
 French; Syria
- Students, see Youth movements
- Subaltern movements: definition of, 2,
 72, 91; claims to full citizenship by,
 91–92, 110–11, 226–27, 244–45, 271–72;
 emergence of, 71–72, 91–111, 193; rivalry and frictions among, 110–11, 162,
 271–72; role in elections of, 111, 142,
 158–60, 163–64, 235–38, 243–44; see also Citizenship; Islamic populism;
 Labor movement; Social movements;
 Women's movement
- Suez, 23, 76
- Suffrage: attainment of women's, 289;
 demands for women's, 117–26, 132, 147, 249, 250, 259, 272–75; denials of women's, 119–20, 123, 137, 147, 251, 260, 275–76; constitutional provisions for men's, 51, 52, 126; education as prerequisite to women's, 119, 123, 144, 273, 289; French attitudes toward women's, 125–26, 260; military service as prerequisite for, 27, 120, 124, 275; see also Elections and electoral system
- Sufism and Sufi orders: ties to Islamic populists, 104, 105; women's status in, 8
- Suleyman the Magnificent, Sultan 220

- al-Sulh, Fa'iza, 253
- al-Sulh, Riyadh, Lebanese prime minister (1943–45), 158, 177, 237, 250, 257; and labor movement, 250–251, 278–80; and National Pact, 251, 252–53, 256, 260, 278, 279; and women's rights, 119, 251, 259–60, 269
- Sultan Selim mosque, 191
- Sunnis: and anti-sectarianism in Lebanon, 45, 82, 259; community (millet) and beliefs, 10, 108–9, 149–51; demand for union of Lebanon and Syria, 46, 50–51, 150, 190; dominating Syria's urban-landowning elite, 11–12, 50–51, 251; see also Ulama
- Supply Service (Service de Ravitaillement), 60
- Sursuq, Emily, 93
- Sursuq, Linda, 96
- Sursuq family, 28, 55, 99
- al-Suwayda, 43
- Sweden, 283
- Syria, state of: armed revolts against French, 39–40, 43–46, 275; boundaries of, 45, 53, 60, 80; constitution of, 51–53, 126, 145, 185, 186; elections, 51–53, 136, 147, 159, 184–86, 248–50, 277; Faysal's regime in, 39–41, 59, 69, 76, 199, 282; gender pact in, 268–70, 274, 276; May 1944 crisis, 248, 261–70; Ministry of Social Affairs, 239; parliament, 52–53, 138, 160, 185, 250–52, 265, 267–68, 279–81, 285; postcolonial coups, 287, 289; postcolonial statist paternalism, 282–90; suspension of constitution/parliament, 107, 156, 185–87, 229, 232; see also National Bloc; State(s) mandatory
- Syrian (Arab) Women's Union, see Women's groups
- Syrian Congress: debate on women's suffrage (1920), 41, 117–20, 128, 260
- Syrian Conserves Company, 250, 280
- The Syrian Mail*, 211
- Syrian National Party (SNP), see Youth movements
- Syrian People's School, 96
- Syrian Revolt (1925–27), 6, 43–50, 184; impact on constitutions, 50–57; women's role in, 48–49, 96, 123
- The Syrian Union*, 211
- Syrian University, 218, 264, 278; medical faculty of, 61, 77, 85; women's enrollment at, 88, 89–90, 241
- Syrian Woman's Awakening Society, see Women's groups
- al-Tabba', 'Abd al-Hamid, 105, 251; and May 1944 crisis, 262–63, 265, 266, 268
- Taj or Taj al-Din, Shaykh, see al-Hasani, Shaykh Muhammad Taj al-Din
- Tajhiz preparatory school (Damascus), 106
- Tall Kalakh, 40
- al-Tamaddun, see Islamic populist groups
- Tankiz mosque, 242, 251, 252, 262, 264, 266
- Tanzimat, see Ottoman Empire
- Taraqi theater, 199
- Tarazi, Falak, 241–42, 243
- Tarikh al-Harb al-'uzma*, 25
- al-Tariq*, 217, 234, 241, 278
- Taxes: and colonial welfare state, 167, 245; customs duties, 59, 64, 232, 283; on income, 236, 245, 283; protests against, 156, 234, 245, 283; revenues from, 64–65, 166, 167, 168, 232, 283; reforms of, 45, 81; on war profits, 245; see also Budgets
- al-Tawwil, Subhi, 119–20
- Tehran, 138, 143
- Telephones and telegraph, see Communications

- Tergeman, Fahmi, 26, 34
 Tergeman, Siham, 26*n*32
 Textile industry: decline of artisanal production, 31, 34–35, 156, 162; modern factories in, 81; silk industry, 30, 33–34, 62, 89, 279; workers and strikes in, 34–35, 90, 101, 157, 234, 278; see also Economy; Labor; Workers and Workers, women
 Thabit, Ayyub, Lebanese president (1943), 237, 249, 256
 Thabit, Labiba, 98
al-Thaqafa, 217
 Theaters and theatrical performances, 182, 199; and sexual morality, 25, 202, 205, 207; see also Cinema
 Tobacco industry and state monopoly (Régie de Tabacs), 81, 150, 232; workers and strikes in, 89–90, 100–101, 157–58, 277, 280
Tongue of the Arabs, 211
 Trad, Petro, Lebanese president (1943), 249
 Transjordan, 21, 192, 285
 Transportation: as booming employment sector, 34, 101; disrupted in World War I, 19–20, 61; European investment in, 30, 176; expansion of, 176, 181; see also Automobiles; D.H.P. railway; Public Works
 Tree of Culture Society, see Women's groups
 Tribal chiefs or shaykhs, 16, 42, 43, 46; privileges and power of, 5, 44, 54, 82, 250, 287
 Tripoli, 39, 86, 192, 205; oil refinery in, 101, 230, 232; school protests in, 106, 166; Sunni nationalists in, 150, 256
 Tunisia, 9, 62, 290
 Turkey, Republic of, 80, 191, 289; women's movement and rights in, 8, 99, 122, 129–30, 139–40, 195; see also Ottoman Empire and Ottomans
 Ulama (Muslim clerics): authority lost or threatened, 16, 93, 103, 114, 127–28, 131–34; Committee of Ulama (Beirut), 237; and education, 75, 93; as guardians of public morality, 175, 202, 208–9; mufti of Beirut, 131, 133–34, 203; Muslim Council (Beirut), 108–9, 134, 149; relationship to state, 28, 108, 114, 131–32; Society of Ulama (Damascus), 108, 109, 153, 249, 265; ties to Islamic populism, 103, 107–9, 136; and women's movement, 130–31, 133–36, 274; see also Islamic law; Islamic populism; Religious patriarchs; Salafiya movement
 al-Ulshi, Jamil, Syrian prime minister (1943), 236, 238
 Umayyad mosque, 20, 42, 187, 274
 Umm Kalthum, 199
 United States, 74, 86, 99, 121, 179, 223; consuls and embassies, 20, 80, 129, 184–85, 258; films, film companies and cinema, 198, 201, 204–5, 244–45; King-Crane Commission, 40, 128; in World War II, 232, 254; see also American University of Beirut; American Junior College for Women
Unveiling and Veiling, 127–28, 130–36, 141
 Urban notables, see Bourgeoisie, urban and landowning
 Urban planning and landscape, 65, 173–83; class boundaries in, 175, 177–78, 182, 266; gender boundaries in, 175–76, 182–83, 209–10, 223–24; Ottoman, 175–77; see also Public space and the public
 Vatican, see Catholic Church
 Veiling and seclusion, women's: changing

- practices in, 8–9, 25, 128, 177–83 passim, 272, 289; debates on, 127–40, 171–74, 180, 219, 242–43; demonstrations and protests against, 127–40, 242, 257–58, 259–70 passim; and denial of political rights, 118–20, 122, 124, 147, 260, 268–69; and employment, 90, 161; and family honor, 130, 133, 180, 185–86, 191; French policy on, 132; in schools, 109–10; women's use of as political symbol, 128, 187, 191, 257–58; see also Family; Paternalism; Public space and the public
- Versailles peace conference, 44, 63
- Vichy government, see France
- Victoria Hotel, 177, 179
- "Victory of Youth," 209
- Victory theater, 205
- Violence against women: by police and military, 48, 122, 186, 187–88, 191, 233, 280; by Islamic populists, 136, 210, 262, 264; press accounts of, 220–24; in streets, 117, 138, 171–74, 184, 209; in World War I, 25; see also Rape; Senegalese soldiers
- Voting rights, see Elections and electoral systems; Suffrage
- Wages, see Workers and Workers, women
- Walkowitz, Judith, 223
- Waqf/awqaf, see Religious endowments
- Wehbeh, Yusuf, 199
- Welfare state, colonial: definition and historiography of, 6–7, 13, 155–56, 167–69; emergence of, 155–69; expansion in World War II, 226, 229–46; and gender, 13, 161, 239–41, 244; post-colonial dismantling of, 281–84; see also Civic order; Social services and policy
- Weygand, Maxime, high commissioner (1923–24), 44–45, 123
- Wheat Office, 235
- White Badge, see Youth movements
- White Shirts, see Youth movements
- Wilson, Woodrow, 39
- Woman, 137, 145, 216, 276
- Women's Arabic and Cultural Assembly, see Women's groups
- Women's Association for the Encouragement of National Industry, see Women's groups
- Women's Committee for the Defense of Lebanese Women's Rights, see Women's groups
- Women's Cultural Club, see Women's groups
- Women's groups: Arab Girl's Awakening Society, 95, 96; Christian Women's Club, 95; Committee for the Defense of Lebanese Working Women, 241; Encouragement of Lebanese Industry Society, 162; Ladies' Society, 95; Lebanese (Arab) Women's Union, 142, 147, 151, 229, 249, 259, 272–76; Lebanese Women's Association, 256, 258, 259; Light of Damascus society, 95; Muslim Girls' Club, 95; Red Star society, 95, 120; Society to Stop Crime and Improve Prisons, 97, 98; Syrian (Arab) Women's Union, 142, 153, 191, 208, 265, 268–69, 272–76; Syrian Woman's Awakening Society, 96, 97, 98, 162; Tree of Culture Society (Dawhat al-adab), 96, 275; Women's Arabic and Cultural Assembly, 98, 141, 157; Women's Association for the Encouragement of National Industry, 239; Women's Committee for the Defense of Lebanese Women's Rights, 147; Women's Cultural Club, 97; Women's Normal School Alumnae association, 96, 147; Women's Revival Society, 97–98, 123; Women's Social

- Democratic League, 241, 245, 261, 288;
 Women's Union in Syria and Lebanon, 94, 98, 141, 142;
see also Charities, women's;
 Women's movement
- Women's magazines: as challenge to male civic order, 214–15; disappearance of,
 215–17; men's reactions to, 123, 216–17;
 as organs of the women's movement,
 97, 120–22, 124, 141, 276; and veiling debate, 129–30, 133, 135, 137; see Appendix for list of titles
- Women's movement: anti-sectarianism of, 98, 99, 121, 259; class base of, 99–100, 110, 154, 162, 273; and Communists, 241–42, 280, 288–89; diminished expectations of, 145, 148, 154,
 216; divisions within, 99–100, 146, 241,
 261, 274, 288; emergence of, 94–100;
 and girls' education, 96–97, 141, 144,
 166, 273; and labor issues, 97–98,
 122–24, 162–63, 191, 215, 241–42; and maternalism, 143–45; nationalism of,
 98–99, 121, 141–43, 146–47, 162, 186,
 190, 272–73; nationalists' betrayal of,
 150–53, 186–89, 207–8, 250–51, 259–60,
 268–69, 275–76; and November 1943 crisis, 253–61; and personal status law reform, 99, 115, 127–40, 273; and political rights, 115, 117–26, 143–48, 259–61,
 272–76; and public health, 97, 141, 229,
 273; recruitment and membership in,
 96, 99–100, 144–47, 154, 186, 190–91,
 224, 256–57; and veiling, 128–30,
 137–40, 145; and wartime service, 24,
 26, 120, 124, 256–59, 275; see also Charities, women's; Communist Party;
 Conferences, women's; Demonstrations, women's; Women's groups;
 Veiling and seclusion, women's
- Women's Normal School Alumnae association, see Women's groups
- Women's Revival Society,
see Women's groups
- Women's Social Democratic League, see
 Women's groups
- Women's Union in Syria and Lebanon,
see Women's groups
- "The Worker," 279
- Workers: emergence of working class, 10,
 101, 244; family allowances for, 237,
 240, 241, 243; in "new" industries, 34,
 101; in "old" silk and textile industries, 34–35, 90; unemployment of, 34, 89, 101, 156, 159, 230, 234, 277; wages of, 34–35, 81–82, 101, 156, 229, 233–34, 237, 277; see also Civil service; Communist Party; Labor; Labor movement; Workers, women
- Workers, women: in the countryside, 35, 89, 162; excluded from modern industries, 102, 161; excluded from welfare benefits, 161, 239, 281; laws concerning, 98, 102, 157, 161, 239, 280; maternity leave, 157, 281; among middle class and elites, 36–37, 89; opposition to women's employment, 161, 220, 231, 240–41; participation in labor movement, 101–2, 161–63, 280; in public sector, 89, 122–23, 239; schoolteachers, 89, 157, 191, 220, 239, 241; in silk/textile industry, 26, 34–35, 90, 239, 280; in tobacco industry, 19–90, 101, 280;
 unemployment of, 89–90; wages of, 8, 89, 102, 239, 241, 283–84; and women's movement, 97–98, 123–24, 157, 215, 241; during world wars, 26, 238–43
- Workers' Unions*, 102
- World War I: casualties, 22–23; collective memory of, 24–30, 171; and crisis of paternity, 37–38; differential class impact of, 28–30; differential gender impact of, 24–27; differential impact on sects, 27–28; famine (safar barlik)

- in, 19–22; martial law during, 23, 28;
Ottoman defeat in, 1, 16, 39; see also
Arab Revolt
- World War II: end of, 275; and expansion of welfare state, 235–46; nationalist elites seize rule during, 248–54, 261;
Free French/British invasion, 231;
French/British withdrawal, 271, 275;
social mobilization prompted by,
229–35, 277–78; as threat to French rule, 163, 201, 208; and Vichy regime, 230–31
- Yanni, Mary, 123, 215
- Yazbak, Yusuf Ibrahim, 29–30, 100
- Yaziji, Warda, 141
- Young Arabs, see Youth movements
- Young Syrians, see Youth movements
- Young Turks, 53, 74, 75, 93, 129
- Young Women's Christian Association
(YWCA), 86
- Youth of Muhammad, see Islamic populist groups
- Youth of the Cedar*, 211
- Youth movements, 182, 190, 191–96, 230;
Catholic Youth Circle, 203; Congress of Catholic Youth, 204; L'Equipe, 204,
231; Iron Shirts, 192–94, 200, 201, 206;
League of National Action, 192, 194,
195; Najjada, 193, 194, 229, 230,
234–35, 237, 255; National Guards,
192; paramilitary or proto-fascist, 6,
172, 191–96; Patriotic Youth, 192; Pha-langes libanaises (al-Kata'ib), 192–95,
230, 234–35, 237, 253, 255–58; students,
136, 139, 147, 156, 159, 186, 202, 204,
208, 235, 236; Syrian National Party
(SNP), 192–95, 229, 235, 256, 278, 286;
White Badge, 192, 194; White Shirts,
192; women's participation in,
195–96; Young Arabs, 192; Young Syrians, 211; see also Scouts and scouting movement
- Zahla, 39, 280
- Zaghlul, Sa'd, 140
- al-Za'im, Colonel Husni, 289
- Zamir, Meir, 2
- Zayn al-Din, Nazira, 171, 205, 268, 287; as author of Unveiling and Veiling, 127–40; impact on women's movement, 135, 137, 141–42, 149, 216–17, 242;
seen as traitor, 134, 146, 158
- Zenobia, Queen, 124
- Ziadeh, Joseph, 21
- Zu'aytar, 'Adil, 119