

SUBMISSIONS

CRITICAL REVIEW is an interdisciplinary quarterly devoted to understanding the nature, politics, and history of modern states and societies, especially to help evaluate their effects on human well-being. Articles are confined to theoretical and historical issues, eschewing policy advocacy or criticism of proposed policies.

Format. Submit contributions not under consideration elsewhere to the address below. Manuscripts should be typed in double spacing throughout (including notes, references, and abstract), on 8 1/2 × 11" or A4 paper with wide margins. After final acceptance of an article, authors will be asked to submit both a hard copy and, if possible, a computer disk. All submissions except replies to previous articles, including review essays and solicited papers, may be subject to anonymous peer review; therefore, no identification of the author should occur in text or notes. Number the top of each page. Submissions should be titled and should include descriptive section headings rather than numbered section divisions. A less than 100-word-long double-spaced abstract, summarizing the argument of the paper in detail, should begin each submission (including review essays). A separate page should contain a brief biographical note for publication, including (in the following order) the author's mailing address, phone and fax numbers or e-mail address, position and institutional affiliation (if the latter is not included in mailing address), titles, publishers, and years of publication of recent books by the author, and acknowledgements (if any). In addition, please (1) use underlining, not italics or bold face, for emphasis; (2) strive for gender-neutral language; (3) use ragged right margins rather than right-justifying; and (4) supply a word count.

In the text of review essays, the first reference to a book being reviewed should include the publisher, city, and year of publication in parentheses; subsequent page references should include page numbers only, rather than reiterating the book's author, unless more than one book is under review.

Length. 5000 words (@ 20 TS pp.) is usually the minimum required to explore a topic in appropriate depth. We can accommodate much longer manuscripts, but cet. par., shorter is better.

Citation system. CRITICAL REVIEW has adopted, with some modifications, the style set forth in the American Political Science Association Style Manual for Political Science. Both the Manual and a list of our modifications are available at www.criticalreview.com. APSA style replaces end note citations with in-text, parenthetical citations (the "author-date" citation system described in the Chicago Manual of Style). Explanatory notes, however, should be in the form of end notes.

Unsolicited manuscripts, advertisements, and books for review should be sent to: Prof. Jeffrey Friedman, P.O. Box 496, Plainsboro, NJ 08536. For more information see www.criticalreview.com.
